THE MORGAN GARDNER BULKELEY HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

IN this, the tenth year of the history of our school, we of the Class of 1936B are indeed fortunate to be the ones on whom falls the honor of celebrating the great occasion. There is no student in our class but feels it is indeed an honor to bring his high school career to an end at this particular time. From our vantage point we can look back with no little pride to the advances which Bulkeley has made in those ten full years. Now it is for us to look forward to the steps which our high school will make in the next ten years.

In Bulkeley there has always been a strong sense of unity between the student body and the school itself. These intangible somethings called school spirit and school pride have never been more pronounced than at the present time. To Bulkeley students their school is not just a school in the City of Hartford—it is the school.

In the first two years of its existence, with an enrollment of less than one thousand, a school paper, the Torch, and a literary magazine, the Dial, were organized and published through the students' own initiative, and they have been flourishing ever since. It is this spirit which has made Bulkeley one of the best known and respected high schools in the state, from both an academic and an athletic viewpoint. In both these fields our class has played a leading part.

Four years ago we might have laughed and considered it trite if some graduating senior had told us that his four years at Bulkeley were the happiest in his life. Now that we are in his place we can no longer consider it so, for it is true indeed.

In this Class Book the editors hope to establish a lasting bond between their classmates and the institution where we have spent those four years.

We wish to offer our sincere thanks to Dr. Feingold for his excellent advice; to Miss Potter and Mr. Hart of the faculty for their invaluable assistance; to the editorial and business boards; to Miss Alma Plumb of the Art Department; to Patricia Heidacker, James Young, Dominick Cataldo, Arthur Boehm, Alexander Olenick and Ruth Russell for the art work visible throughout the book; and to the typists, Rena Stockwell, Isabel Denerich, Rose Morello, Doris Duncan, and Frances Wilsberg, for their cheerful service in helping us compile the mass of necessary material.

Regina Pearl Adajian

"Nene"

"Amiability shines by its own light."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2; Dramatic Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 4. Never absent, never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School. New Britain Teachers College.

"Nene" is a model pupil in that she has never been absent or tardy, nor has she received any demerits. Drama figures largely in her high school career, but we hear she intends to be a teacher.

Helen Eleanor Ahlquist

"She's every inch a queen."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League Room Representative 1, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; "Miss Bulkeley" 4. Washington Street School.

Helen's pleasing manner and popularity won for her the appropriate title of "Miss Bulkeley." What more could we editors say?

Grace Ellen Anderson

"Gracie"

"Who is it that can read a woman?"

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3. Never tardy; no demerits. East Hartford High School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

Grace came to us from East Hartford High, but she firmly established herself at Bulkeley. Besides resembling Myrna Loy in features, Grace wears her inscrutable expression.

Mary Louise Anderson

"Louise"

"Refined, gentle, quiet, and kind.
To be like her we wouldn't mind."

A. A. 4. Hartford High School. New Britain Normal School.

The quotation above is the best word-picture we could give you of Louise. Besides the aforementioned qualities she was high ranking scholastically.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

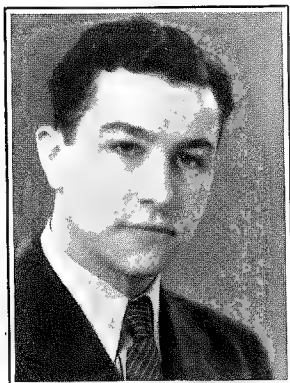

Gustave William Andrian

"Gus"

"Who mixed reason with pleasure and wisdom with mirth."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2, Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3, 4; Parnassus Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Honor Society 4, Treasurer 4, President 4; Chairman Senior Nominating Committee; Pin and Ring Committee; Junior Usher; Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Interclass Basketball 3, 4; Second Scholarship Prize 2, 3; Class Orator. No demerits. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

Recipe for Gus—a wonderful personality, mixed with a lot of brains, seasoned with a sense of humor, and made into one grand fellow. Best of luck, Gus.

Mary Hermione Andrian

"Ease with dignity."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School.

Being related to Gus is enough claim to fame, but Mary would get along anywhere on personal merit alone.

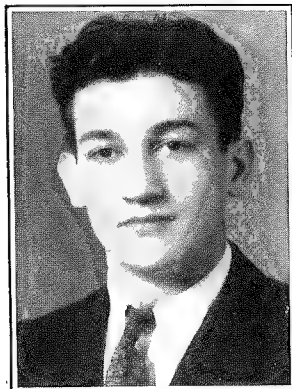

Joseph M. Aniello

"Joe"

"People of few words are the best people."

Alfred E. Burr School.

Joe was a diligent student, very quiet and unassuming. He was just the fellow to have about if you wanted company but not much noise.

Rose Arcari

"Great thoughts, like great deeds, need no trumpet."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2. Chauncey Harris School.

Rose was always an earnest and willing student and we wish her lots of luck.

Doris Ruth Arnold

"Dor"

"Nothing endures but personal qualities."

Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Agora 2; History-Civics Club 4. No demerits. Naylor School.

Dor is one of those sincere friendly persons whom everyone likes. It's remarkable how nice she can be to people. It must be a gift.

Howard Paul Atkins

"Howie"

"Speech is silver, silence is golden."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Freshman Football 1; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3. A. E. Burr School. Alabama.

Howie claims that there should be a law outlawing Commercial Law. Once he tactfully suggested to Mr. O'Leary that he trade in that old horse of his for a new Ford V-8.

William Francis Atkins

"Bill"

"I am modest and true."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Usher 3. Alfred E. Burr School.

Bill is one of that group of Juniors who are making double promotion since the abolishment of mid-year graduation. He's a credit to our class, too, for he's a fine student.

Elsie Bertha Baierlein

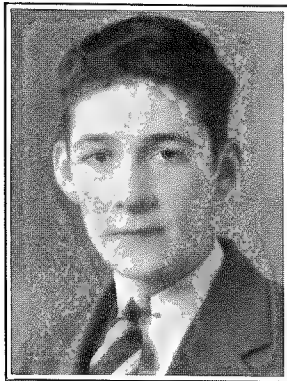

"El"

"Here comes the sun."

Girls' League 2; Vesta Club 2; Art Club 4. No demerits. Meriden High School.

El has had quite a varied high school career. Starting at H. P. H. S., she went from there to Meriden High. Finally deciding to pick the best school of them all, she came to Bulkeley to graduate. We couldn't have had a better classmate, Elsie.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

William Paul Ballard

"Bill"

"Not that I loved to study less, but that I loved fun more."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1; Glee Club 1. Southwest School. Worcester Tech.

Bill never overburdened himself with school work, but he made the grade as fast as any of us, attaining honor grade more than once at that.

Viola Wanda Banas

"Terry"

"It is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

Girls' League 3, 4; Business Board "Dial" 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Washington Street School. Training School for Nurses.

"Terry" had the faculty of making plenty of friends at Bulkeley. She's a "natural" for that.

Josephine Dolores Bartolotta

Girls' League 1. Never tardy; no demerits. A. E. Burr School.

Jo's smile is the index to her personality. We can't recall ever seeing her angry at anything or anyone. Come on, Jo, don't keep it a dead secret.

Leonard Michael Bartone

"Red"

"Happy am I, from care I'm free."

A. A. 2; Boys' Club 2; Interclass Basketball 4. No demerits. Weaver High School.

"Red" was liked by his friends for his happy-go-lucky manner. Never lose this "Red", for it'll take you far on your journey.

Rosanna Mary Bartone

"Cleo"

"She was as sportive as a faun."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Girls' League 1, 2. Never tardy. Weaver High School.

"Cleo" was one of the smallest girls in Bulkeley. But what she lost in stature she made up in vitality. "Cleo" is also one of the Angelo Sisters' pet dancers.

John Francis Beattie

"Hank"

"We are such stuff as dreams are made of; and Our little life is rounded with a sleep."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Baseball 2. St. Peter's School.

Anyone who did not know "Hank" might think that he had contracted a perpetual spring fever. But despite his sleepy attitude, "Hank" has managed to become a pitcher of no mean ability.

Anna Elizabeth Beckwith

"Polly"

"Nothing is impossible to a cheerful person."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Commercial Club 2, 3. Southwest School. Colby Junior College.

Polly's our little girl with the flashing roadster. Lucky girl! By the way, are you the one that kept 236 in an uproar all year?

Gertrude Agnes Begley

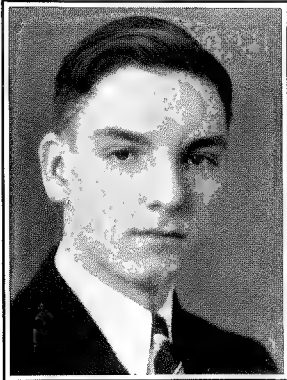

"Gertie"

"A cheerful temper and wit good-natured."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Commercial Club 3, 4; Gregg Shorthand Awards. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. New Rochelle College.

The Agora missed a good member when Gertie didn't join, but she seemed to have expended all her energy on shorthand. Shall we ever forget those arguments in Miss Gilligan's Democracy class?

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Edmond Arthur Belanger

"It is the tranquil people who accomplish most."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Edmond never thrust himself forward, but got on top-rate at Bulkeley just the same. A pleasing manner is one of his greatest assets.

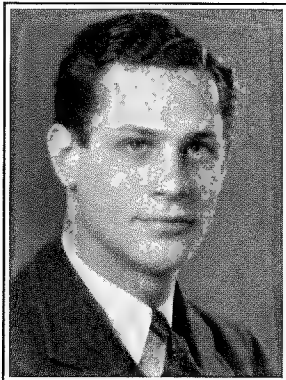

Constance Priscilla Bergeron

"Connie"

"She walks in silence."

A. A. 4. No demerits. Windham High School.

Connie is a newcomer to Bulkeley this year. You're a welcome addition, Connie. We are sure that you enjoyed your brief stay—we certainly did.

J. Jack Berman

"With curly hair and a jolly smile."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 4; Track 2, 3, 4. Theodore Roosevelt High School.

Jack has had a checkered high school career. He went to Bulkeley for a few years and then transferred to a New York high school, but sprinted back just in time to break the tape at B. H. S.

Josephine Victoria Bielonko

"Pheny"

"Don't give up the ship."

Girls' League 3, 4; Commercial Club 2. Never tardy, no demerits. Saints Cyril and Methodius School.

Pheny has made a strong attempt to become efficient in shorthand and typing. We're sure her efforts have not been in vain.

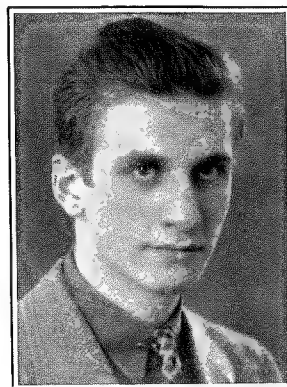

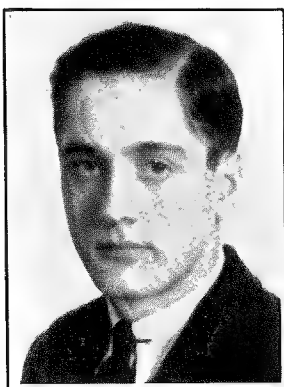

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Raymond J. Bieth, Jr.

"A gentleman and a scholar."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Parnassus Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Usher 3; Tennis Team 3, Captain 4; Honor Society 4; Vice-President 4, President 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 1, 2, 3, 4; Associate Editor 3, Editor 4; Assistant Editor of Class Book; Second Scholarship Prize 1; First Scholarship Prize 2, 3; Harvard Book Prize 3; Valedictorian. Southwest School. Harvard.

Ray was the fellow with the "A" complex. We grew accustomed to seeing four of them after his name on the blackboard. The "Dial" came out with many new and entertaining departments under his editorship. As valedictorian he was right at the head of our class.

Michael Martin Bitondi

"Mike"

"Nature designed us to be of good cheer."

A. A. 1. Washington Street School.

Mike has an easy-going manner that never fails him. Keep this assurance later in life and you will succeed.

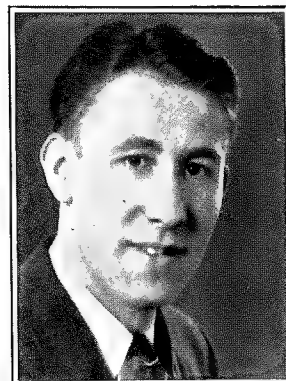

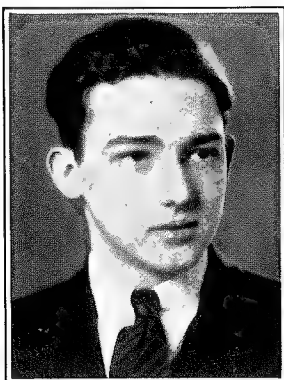

Harry Blythe

"Scotty"

"Much can be made of a Scotchman, if he's caught young."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 3, 4. Lyman Hall.

Harry's sport at Bulkeley was basketball. We're still wondering why "Babe" Allen always singled him out of a gym class as the guilty person.

Arthur Rudolf Boehm, Jr.

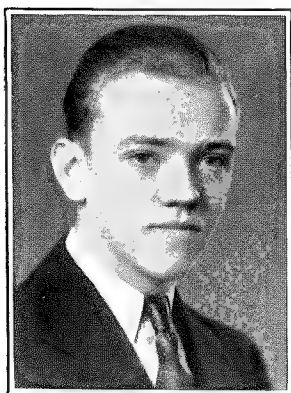

"Art"

"A good sport and a good friend."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Art Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest Grammar School. Pratt Institute.

Art couldn't have been christened with a better name when you consider that art is a big issue with him. We'll miss your cheery greeting, Art.

Walter Einar Borin

"Wally"

"Untwisting all the chains that tie
The hidden soul of harmony."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior Orchestra 1; Senior Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Inter-High Orchestra 4; Junior Usher 3. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Trinity College.

Wally was noted as an accomplished musician and a scholar. We also admired him for his willingness to lend moral as well as financial aid to any worth-while school activity.

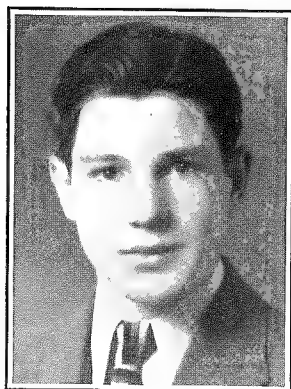

Joseph Vito Anthony Botticello

"Curley"

"High thoughts erected in a heart of courtesy."

A. A. 4; Parnassus Club 3; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Rotary Club Contest Winner 4. Weaver High School.

Joseph was a student of note—modest, polite, well liked by all. He has our admiration.

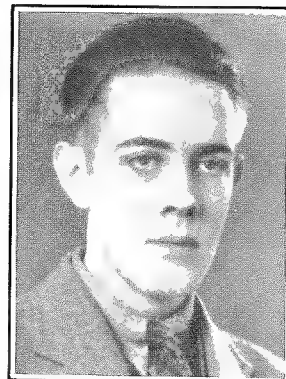

Russell Francis Boudria

"Russ"

"Haste makes waste."

Boys' Club 4; Inter-Scholastic Golf 2; Golf Team 3, 4. St. Peter's School. Northwestern University.

Russ was noted for two things—being late for school and playing good golf. Isn't it true, though, that all crack golfers take their time?

Charles James Bradshaw

"Dinky"

"Haste makes waste."

A. A. 1, 2; Choir 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Chess Club 4; Stamp Club 3; Track Squad 2. Washington Street School.

"Dinky" broke at least one record at Bulkeley—he received more call slips than any other student. Now he's obtained the one slip of paper he's been after for four long years—a diploma.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Marjorie Jane Brainard

"Margy"

"My cup runneth over."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Agora 3; Freshman Choir 1; Freshman Glee Club 1; Upper Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Gregg Transcription Test 60. Never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School.

Margy's easy going, friendly ways make her welcome in any group. She has had a good deal of experience in operettas, having appeared in "The Fire Prince" and "The Mikado."

Elinor Gertrude Bride

"Her pleasure is her power to charm."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1, 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Chairman Girls' League 2; Secretary Student Council 4; Literary Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Ring and Pin Committee 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Elinor's popularity in our class is well deserved. She was very active in extra-curricular activities, and endeared herself to her classmates by her winning ways.

Emid Joseph Briganti

"Briggs"

"A light heart lives long."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Glee Club 2; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Edison Club 4; Junior-Senior Prom Committee 3. Chauncey Harris School.

To Briggs "life is just a bowl of cherries" which is our way of saying he has a most carefree disposition. Wherever Briggs goes, there is excitement.

Helene Bernice Broda

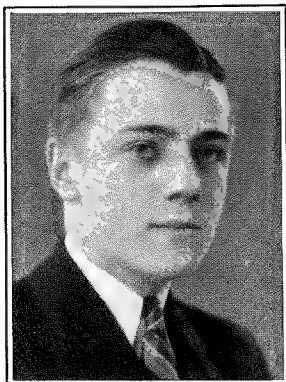

"Helen"

"Pleasure and action make the hours seem short."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2; History-Civics Club 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4. Saints Cyril and Methodius School.

Helen was always seen coming to school surrounded by a laughing group of friends. Once inside, however, she became quiet and attentive.

John Douglas Brown

"Doug"

"See me, how calm I am."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 4. No demerits. - Washington Street School.

Doug took the tip from the poet Milton that Il Penseroso, the melancholy one, got the most from life. Or maybe Milton got it from him.

Grace Buchstane

"Gracie"

"Hark! hark the lark."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Senior Choir 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, Associate Editor 4, Assistant Editor 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 3, Associate Editor 4; Classical Club 3, Vice-President 4; Literary Club 2, 3; Honor Society 4; Girls' Swimming Club. Never tardy, no demerits. Chauncey Harris School. Mount Holyoke College.

Her fine performance as Yum-Yum in the Operetta, "The Mikado," readily assures us that we may have a Lily Pons or Grace Moore among us. We hope you continue to do such fine work in your singing as you did in outside activities, Grace.

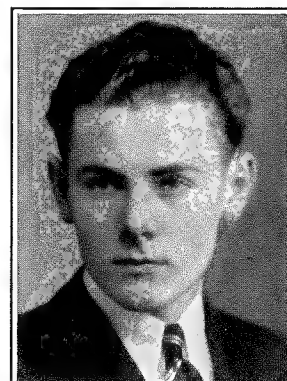

Anastasia Antoinette Buges

"Ann"

"It is a noble privilege to think."

A. A. 1, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Honor Society 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4; Classical Club 4; French Club 4; Editorial Board of "Torch" 2, 3, 4. Never absent, never tardy, no demerits. Holy Trinity School.

Ann was a busy girl with her extra-curricular activities and her school work, for she was a member of the Honor Society. Keep it up, Ann.

Thomas Preston Burkholder

"Tommy"

"And his neckties were gleaming in purple and gold."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4. Dr. James H. Naylor School. St. Thomas Seminary. Holy Cross.

We've always admired Burkholder's eye for brilliant haberdashery. His ties spoke for the man. The man spoke for himself at the dances.

Mary Claire Burns

"Claire"

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Art Club 3; Ni-No-Van Club 2; "Torch" Editorial Board, Secretary 2, 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Commercial Club 3; Swimming Club 3, 4. Washington Street School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

Claire is the sweet girl with the blonde locks. Her favorite pastime seems to be entertaining a certain "B-D", and borrowing combs from the opposite sex.

James LeRoy Burr ridge

"Butch"

"Haste makes waste—so why hurry?"

A. A. 3, 4; Edison Club 4; Swimming Club 4; Radio Club 4. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

We wonder where Burr ridge ever got the name "Butch." Maybe his innocent countenance gave him away. His complexion was the envy of Bulkeley's girls.

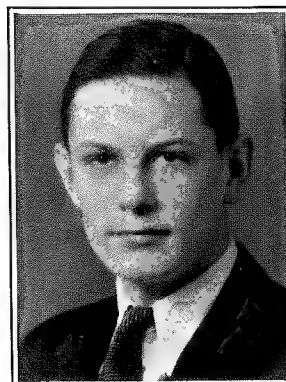

Robert Hines Butler

"Bar"

"Come sing now, sing—for I know you do it well."

Boys' Club 4; Upper Class Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Librarian 3; Junior Glee Club 1; Student Council 1; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Edison Club 4; Swimming Club; Track 3, 4. Southwest School. Morse Business College.

Robert has shown much promise as a singer and has also been active in dramatics. Perhaps we have a future Nelson Eddy in our midst!

Mary Theresa Callan

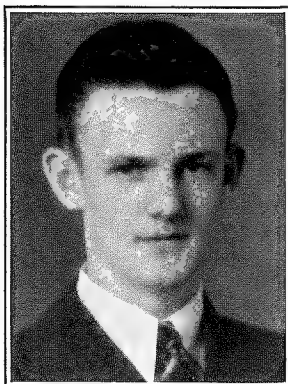

"May"

"Work is the sustenance of noble minds."

Girls' League 3; Classical Club 3; Agora 4. No demerits. St. Peter's School.

May always impressed us as a busy girl with plenty of hustle. She lived up to this impression with her good work in class and club.

William Leo Callahan, Jr.

"Cal"

"It is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Interclass Baseball 1, 2; Varsity Baseball 3. Washington Street School.

Cal is a nifty little ball player. He's the kind of fellow you're glad to number among your friends.

Anna Bettie Camilliere

"Ann"

"Mine own familiar friend."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 3, 4, Secretary 4. No demerits. Washington Street School. Morse Business College.

Everything that Ann did was well done, a trait which made her invaluable to the "Torch" as its Business Board Secretary. A good position should be an easy thing for Ann to get.

Concetta F. Cannarella

"Tina"

"O make us happy and you make us good."

Upper Class Choir 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Tina has achieved quite a reputation for giving smart finger-waves in her spare moments. Her amiability is a by-word around Bulkeley.

Philip Anthony Capabianco

"Sonny"

"Look on the bright side or polish up the dark one."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Boys' Club 1, 4; Baseball 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 3, 4; Interclass Baseball 1, 2. Never absent, never tardy, no demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School. Brown University.

Sonny played with perfection the "hot corner" on the varsity baseball team. We put him down as one of the most genial members of our class.

Myrtle Blanche Carlson

"Myrt"

"'Tis good nature only wins the heart."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School. Middlesex Hospital Training School.

Myrt was always willing to go out of her way to help a friend. Her quick sense of humor made her stand out in class and corridor.

Anthony Carone

"Tony"

"Get a little fun out of life."

Clean-Up League 2; Class Board 2 (East Hartford High School); Honor Society 4. East Hartford High School.

Jack, we hear, was a giant-killer, but from reliable sources we've discovered that Tony slew the ladies, though in a more delicate manner.

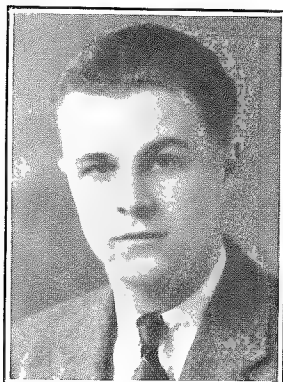

Dominick Vincent Cataldo

"Sonny"

"A sound mind in a sound body."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Art Club 2, 3; "Torch" Sports Editor 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Senior Nominating Committee; Basketball 3, 4, Letter 4; Football 3, 4, Letter 4; Track 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2; Freshman Football 1. Washington Street School. Woodbury Prep.

"Sonny" has achieved a rare combination—brains and brawn. He is not only an athlete but also a student of ability.

John Joseph Cavanaugh

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Edison Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3; Golf Club 3; Boys' Debating Club 3; Boys' Biology Club 2. Washington Street School.

A friend to all was John, always ready with a wisecrack or a pun. He certainly furnished the humor for 286 study hall periods.

Nester Beatrice Cerasole

"Nes"

"Grave is all beauty. Solemn is joy."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School.

One of Bulkeley's best-looking girls is Nes. What makes her even nicer is that she isn't the kind to brag about it.

Mary Bernadette Chamberlain

"Bernie"

"Come, give us a taste of your quality."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4. Manchester High School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

Bernie is one of the girls whose popularity has just been discovered. She must have started that vogue in bangs which for awhile everyone seemed to follow.

Dorothy Grace Chandler

"Dot"

"Joy has its friends but grief its loneliness."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club, 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

Dot's infectious grin has brightened many a dull class. Incidentally, we hear that she is an expert swimmer.

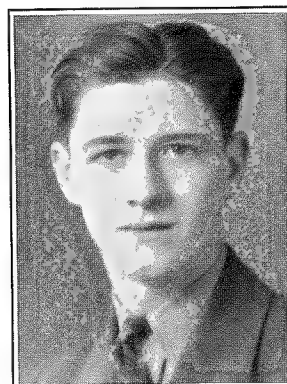

Arthur Chapell

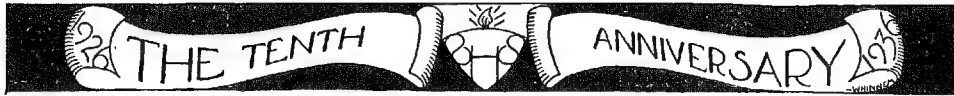

"Bud"

"I am just going to leap into the dark."

Boys' Club 1. Washington Street School.

Bud always takes his time in doing things, but when they are done you can be sure that they are done. To him stop watches are things to be seen but not heard.

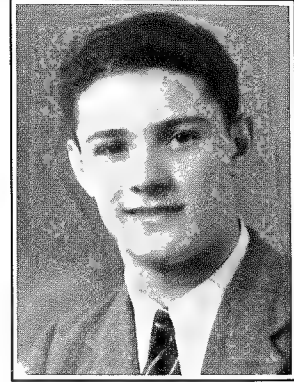

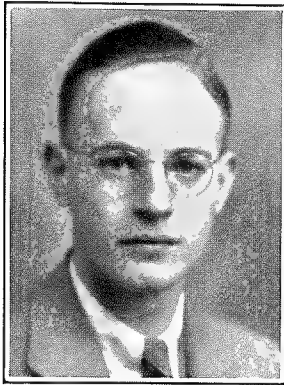

Patrick Robert Cherry

"Pat"

"Play up, play up, and play the game."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1, 2; Boys' Biology Club 2; Baseball 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Football 3, 4, Letter 3, 4, Gold Football 3; Basketball 3, 4, Letter 3, 4, Gold Basketball 3, 4; Swimming Club 1. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Another one of those three letter men, Pat was noted on the gridiron, diamond, and basketball court for his aggressive spirit of play.

Theodore McCausland Child

"Ted"

"Now let's decide whether broccoli has a soul."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Junior Glee Club 1, 2; Parnassus Club 3, 4. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Two of Ted's endearing charms—never passing up a chance for an argument and seldom doing any homework. In addition to these minor embellishments he's an ivory-pounder of major distinction.

James Demetrius Chrisoulis

"Chris"

"Music hath great charms."

A. A. 4; Senior Orchestra 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 4; Boys' Club 4. Farmington High School.

Chris is the Rubinoff of Bulkeley. Many times the Boys' Club has listened to the unusual type of music which comes from Chris's violin. He was always willing to offer his services for all assemblies and the like.

Anna Louise Christiano

"Lightning"

"A little lady."

Girls' League 1. Alfred E. Burr School.

This little lady certainly lives up to her nickname. She is a whirlwind of energy, and when she sets out to do something she's not unlike a streak of "Lightning."

21 THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY 21

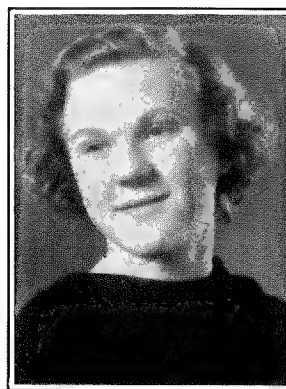

Lily Chrysanthom

"Niki"

"Dress is an index of your contents."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Nashua High School.

"Niki" is only "so high." But her petiteness doesn't prevent her from modeling her clothes to perfection. She's a real fashion plate.

Helen Frances Chudzik

"Lee"

"The mildest manner and the gentlest heart."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 1, 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 3. Chauncey Harris School.

Lee was always one of the star pupils in the business classes. When she ventures out into the business world, she'll surely make someone a good secretary.

John Lyons Clarke

"Jack"

"And we're all good fellows together."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 4. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

Jack was a good student, a regular fellow, and was well-liked by all the boys. You have all our good wishes with you, Jack.

Grace Marion Clemens

"Gracie"

"Dignity of manner always conveys a sense of reserved force."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; French Club 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; Honor Society. Southwest School.

We could easily imagine Grace as a society leader, for she has the assurance and dignity that are necessary.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Viola Joyce Colangelo

"Vig"

"A pleasant association of comrades."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Art Club 2, 3; Biology Club 4; Commercial Club 3; Upper Class Choir 1, 2, 3, 4. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Vig's friends are attached to her because of her unfailing pleasantness. We cannot remember ever having seen Vig angry, and we are delighted to have such a happy person in our midst.

Nancy Livingstone Collins

"Nan"

"As true as sunbeams."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Swimming Club 3; "Dial" Business Board 3. Never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. State Teachers College.

Nan is a true and congenial person to have for a friend. She has made many friends here, and we know she will make many more at Teachers College, which she plans to enter next fall.

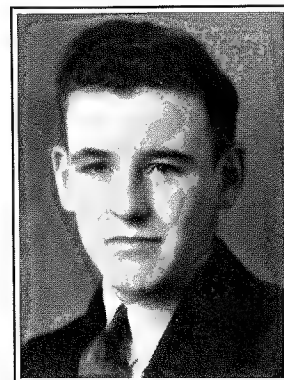

William Joseph Collins

"Bunny"

"A spirit superior to every weapon."

A. A. 2; Honor Society 4; Junior Usher 3. Southwest School. Trinity College.

"Bunny" was small of frame but large of spirit. He didn't need size to stand out. His membership in the Honor Society speaks for his scholastic ability. To steal Mr. Wilson's famous expression, Collins was "a good little man."

Mary Rose Ann Comer

"A little ray of sunshine."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 1. Never tardy, no demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Mary is the young lady with the pretty hair and nice smile. She has been, indeed, a cheerful person in our midst and will be missed by all who knew her.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Timothy Robert Connelly

"Tim"

"An Irishman, a valiant gentleman."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 4; Edison Club 3, 4, Secretary 4. Southwest School. Trinity College.

A true son of St. Patrick was Tim. And wonder to tell, a silent one. Like all good Irishmen, he was a scholar and a capable one. Keep it up, Tim.

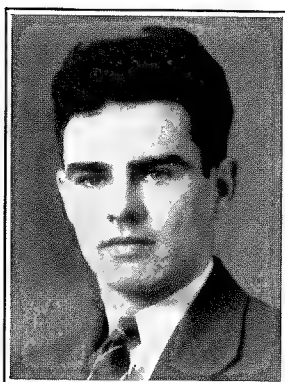

Leneta Ellen Conners

"Lennie"

"My, oh my, what a twinkle in her eye!"

A. A. 2; Girls' League 2; Upper Choir 3, 4. Hartford Public High School. Morse Business College.

Lennie should have been called "Giggles," for she is always laughing and giggling. It didn't take much to get Lennie started, but she certainly was a lot of fun.

John Timothy Connors

"Action is eloquence."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1; Boys' Club 4; Baseball 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

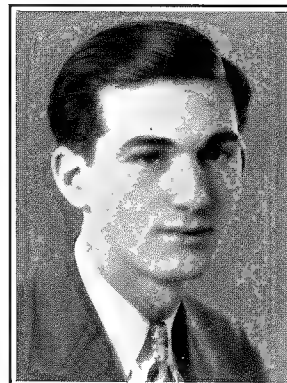

A catcher on the baseball squad, Johnny caught a baseball almost as well as he did the gibes of the faculty—but not quite.

Martin Anthony Consolo

"Let me whisper in your ear."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Martin was another of our science "sharks"; at least, he was always questioning people about it. We wonder if Miss Colby ever discovered who it was that decorated her boards every recess, Martin?

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

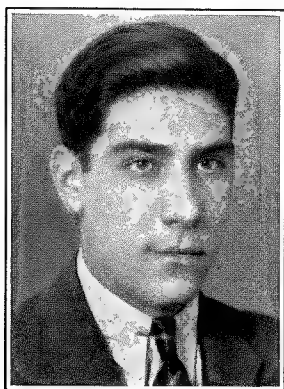

Janet Muri Coops

"Flash"

"Look on the bright side, or polish up the dark."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4. No demerits. James Madison High School, New York. Morse Business College.

Janet was a newcomer to our class from New York, but it didn't take long before her sunny disposition filled every nook of our school.

Salvatore Joseph Corrado

"Sal"

"Always in haste, but never in a hurry."

Alfred E. Burr School.

Sal believes that a little vacation, say once a week during school time, is a good way to improve one's health. We have found, Sal, that it's also a good way to get those beautifully written call slips asking for the pleasure of your company at the office.

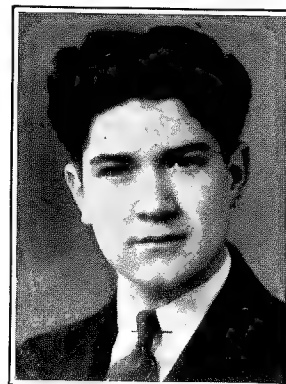

Salvatore Joseph Corsino

"Sebby"

"Doing nothing with a great deal of skill."

Alfred E. Burr School.

Sebby was one of our better known "blackboard artists." If a teacher sent him to the board, there was always a possibility that he might adorn it with cartoons instead of the correct answer. He is also an excellent musician.

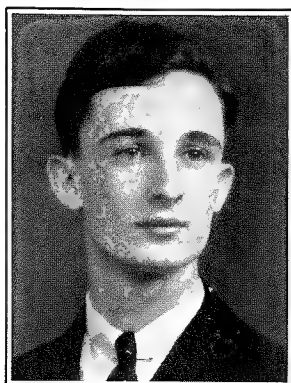

Marion Alice Cotter

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 3; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Agora 2; "Torch" Editorial Board 2, 3, 4; Class Historian; Honor Society 4. Southwest School. New Rochelle College.

Marion's sociability and willingness to help in school activities have kept her busy for four years. Her popularity and school spirit have made her attend all dances and football games, like a true Bulkeleyite.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Eugene Dexter Cowing

"Gene"

"A calm young man."

A. A. 2; Boys' Club 4; French Club 4; Radio Club 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Honor Society 4. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Gene is the Lord's gift to French teachers. There is a legend around school that he once said to Mr. Daly (in French), "Ye gods, teacher, what beautiful ties you have!"

Rose Mary Coyne

"The spirit which never says, 'No'."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 2, 3, 4, President 3, Manager 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; "Torch" Sports Staff 3, Associate Editor 4; Swimming Club 3; Editorial Board of Class Book. Never absent, never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School. Weylister Junior College.

Rose Mary certainly worked hard for many school clubs, but that's just what she would do. She is the young lady who helped to keep the "Torch" editors supplied with witty remarks, especially the ones about "teeth."

Muriel Eleanor Crawford

"Jesse"

"It is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School.

Muriel is that friendly girl who has a bright smile and cheery hello for everybody. If you are a friend of Muriel's, you know what a pleasing personality she has.

Helen Catherine Dalenta

"Seek and you shall find."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

Helen was the only one who ever did her chemistry homework in 209, it seems, and everyone depended on her for it. She should make a good nurse with that chemistry knowledge.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Rita Laura D'Angelo

"Ree"

"Quiet of mien and movement."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Girls' League Room Representative 1, 3, 4; Swimming Club 3. No demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Ri possesses a genuine sophistication, that vague something which all of us would like to have, but few actually achieve. Her flashing smile which lighted up many a dull corner will be sorely missed.

Isabel Evah Denerich

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4, Room Representative 3; Literary Club 2, 3; Agora 4; Girls' Glee Club 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

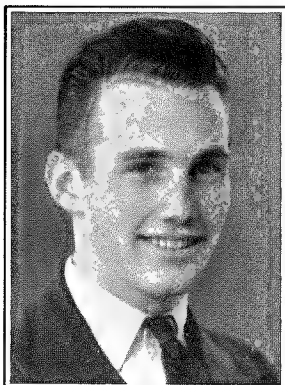

Isabel's brains were the envy of all the girls, but we can't all have everything. Isabel was one of our efficient typists for the Class Book.

Rose Marie DePhillips

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Circulation Board of the "Torch" 4; Girls' Leaders Corps; Commercial Club; Swimming Club. Alfred E. Burr School.

Rose has been one of the busy members of the "Torch" Business Board. Her favorite expression, "Take the 'Torch'," haunts the class each semester. But the old story, "I've promised," never stops her; she always gets her subscriptions.

Martin John Desmond

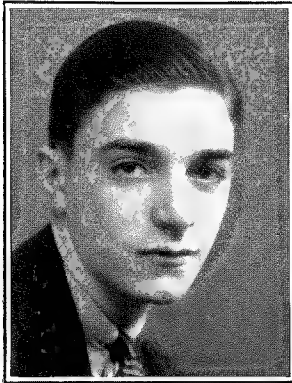

"Marty"

"I am monarch of all I survey."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3; History-Civics Club 3; Freshman Glee Club; Boys' Debating Club 4; Golf Squad 2, 3; Radio Club 4; Edison Club 3, 4; Junior-Senior Prom Committee 3; Senior Nominating Committee; Class Night Chairman; Freshman Football. Our Lady of Sorrows School. Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Marty is a man of the world although he does not reveal this fact to many. He is fond of attending dances, parties, and other similar activities where he can display his ability. No wonder he was voted Class Night Chairman!

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Joseph Anthony DeVito

"Joe"

"In company a very pleasant fellow."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club; Interclass Basketball 3. No demerits. Hartford High School.

Joe was a capable student and well-liked by all the fellows. Besides having the longest legs in the school, Joe set up a new record for getting "Babe's" make-up hours.

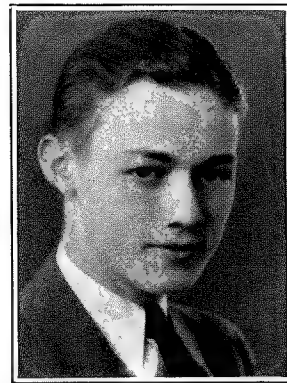

Thomas Robert Diesel

"Tommy"

"Gentle in method, resolute in action."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Boys' Club 2, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; "Dial" Business Board 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 4, Treasurer 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, President 4; Boys' Debating Club 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Junior Usher; Assistant Business Manager of Class Book; Track Team 3, 4. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

Not only his extra-curricular activities but also his high marks and sunny disposition have made Tommy prominent during his stay at Bulkeley. One could scarcely imagine that anybody so dreamy-looking as Tom could be so active.

Margaret Donahue

"Peg"

"I am here, here I remain."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 1; Swimming Club 2, 3. Never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

Peg was always willing to help everyone out in any way she could. Her amiability and persistent cheerfulness will make her a welcome sight to any patient when Peg becomes a nurse.

Eleanor Mary Donlon

"El"

"Ah, but what is life?"

Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Commercial Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. No demerits, never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

El may not have been the last word in sophistication, but who would want to be if they could be as cute as she? Always in a laughing mood, she was "tops" with all who knew her.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Ruth Dorman

"Ruthie"

"Do you think a woman's silence can be natural?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

Ruthie believed that this old world was meant for fun, and she devoted herself to entertaining all her friends. Whenever you saw a crowd and heard sounds of laughter, you knew that Ruthie was not far off.

William Allen Dowd

"Bill"

"—and take your time."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2. Washington Street School.

Bill never seemed in a hurry no matter where he was bound. He was one of the most easy-going youths that we knew.

Louis John Drakos

"Lou"

"I don't believe in principle, but oh, I do in interest."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 3, 4, President 4; Radio Club 3; Junior Orchestra 1, 2; Swimming Club 4. Southwest School. Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Lou is the young man so often seen driving the big Reo down New Britain Avenue to school. He took quite an interest in science and made himself very popular throughout his four years. He's going to M. I. T. to learn to take care of that Reo.

Mary Rita Driscoll

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Southwest School. Morse Business College.

Mary certainly is a determined and ambitious young lady. Besides attending Bulkeley she went to business college at the same time. With a cute way about her and personality to match we see no hurdle which she cannot surmount.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

James Joseph Drummond

"Jim"

"I always get the better when I argue alone."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4, Letter 4; Interclass Basketball 3. Saint Peter's School. Dartmouth College.

A boy with a strong right arm, Jim was one of our best pitchers on the baseball squad. There is a shortage of them in the major leagues, Jim.

Mary Ellen Drummond

"Mamie"

"For she's a jolly good fellow."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3. St. Peter's School.

Mary is the girl who is full of fun. She could always be found in a crowd of girls, and usually was the one offering the most entertainment.

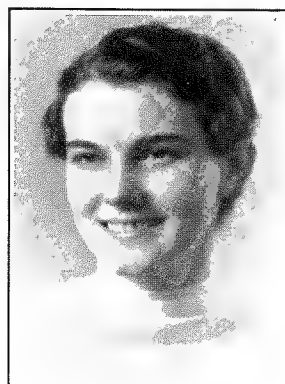

Doris Helene Duncan

"Dorie"

"A good laugh is sunshine in a house."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Assistant Librarian 2, Librarian 3, President 4; Girls' Golf Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; "Dial" Business Board 2; "Torch" Typing Staff 4; Class Book Typist; Gregg Transcription Test Award; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Naylor School. Connecticut State College.

No matter how serious the class, Dorie never could control her giggle. It generally popped out at the most unexpected moments and never failed to set the rest of the class off.

Catherine Jeanette Dunphy

"Rusty"

Girls' League 1, 2; Student Council 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club 1; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School.

Jeanette was another quiet member of our class. She played the piano divinely but never gave the Bulkeley audiences a treat. Just the same, we hear she would have been willing, but shyness overtook her.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Kathleen Eden

"Kay"

"A calm young woman."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4. Richard J. Kinsella School.

Helen of Troy caused quite a bit of trouble for some Greek fellows some years ago but during her four years' vacation (?) at Buikley, Kay caused almost as much havoc among the boys, too.

Geraldine Ann Edison

"Gerrie"

"The perfect bard is one Who chronicles the stages of all life."

Girls' League 3; French Club 3, 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 3, 4. Southwest School.

Gerrie is one of our most ardent followers of the muses of poetry, having done some excellent work for the "Dial." Notwithstanding this unusual habit she always had a surplus of admiring friends.

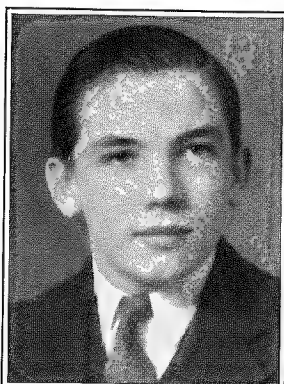

Jane Edwards

"Janie"

"A good pal for all times."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4, President 4; History-Civics Club 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4; Scribblers' Club 2; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4, Associate Editor 3, Assistant Editor 4; Editorial Board of Class Book. No demerits. Southwest School. Mount Holyoke College.

'Tis said that red hair is a token of temper, but Jane's red locks certainly contradict that old adage, for she is the acme of congeniality and good-fellowship. The "Torch" editors claim that she was indispensable around a newspaper office on "press day."

John B. Egan, Jr.

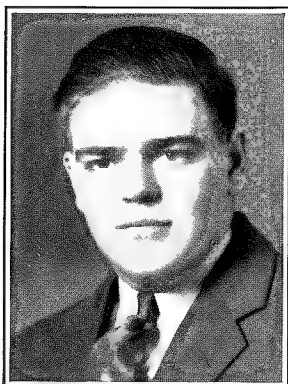

"Bud"

"Little man, what now?"

A. A. 4; History-Civics Club 4; Legislative Club 3, 4. Alfred Plant Junior High School.

Egan was a little man but, Oh, the boners he pulled out of the fog! It was real entertainment when the teacher called him out of a dream. But those were just incidental, for Bud could do plenty of capable stuff.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Robert Frederick Eggars

"Bob"

"What ho, Senator!"

A. A. 1, 2; Boys' Club 1, 2; Commercial Club 2. Washington Street School.

It's a wonder to us why Bob never went out for football. He certainly is big enough. Was it because you pitied the opposition, Bob?

Elizabeth Ensling

"Betty"

"They kept the even tenor of their ways."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's School.

Betty was a person whom everyone took to instantly. No one ever met her who didn't like her frank opinions and genial attitude toward the rest of the world.

Phyllis Ida Ertel

"Phil"

"One must be clever to hide one's cleverness."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3; Commercial Club 3, 4. Washington Street School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

With an infectious smile and gay spirits, Phil was never lacking for escorts to a dance. You get some idea of what she was like when you hear that she was voted the best-looking girl in her class.

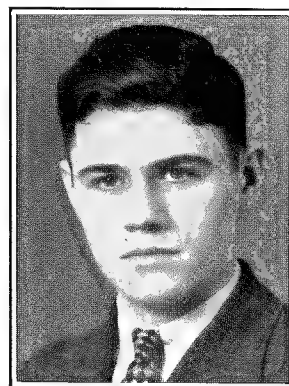

James Joseph Fagan

"Jimmy"

"Man's life is but a jest."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4, Executive Committee 4; "Torch" Sports Staff 2, 3; Junior Glee Club 1; Boys' Swimming Club 2; Track 3, 4; Interclass Baseball 1, 2. Bloomfield High School. Morse Business College.

Jimmy had plenty of Irish wit and couldn't be too serious. We never remember seeing him angry and that gives him plenty of credit.

Mary Farina

"Knowledge desires—wisdom applies."

Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4. No demerits. R. J. Kinsella School.

Mary is one of the few girls who saw in biology a subject worthy of deep investigation. Remember her exhibits in the third floor exhibition case?

Theo Wilson Faulkner

"Ted"

"Doing nothing with a great deal of skill."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Football 4; Basketball 4; Baseball 4. Washington Street School. Dean Academy. Stamford University.

Ted seems to draw girls in his direction like a magnet. Maybe this had something to do with your car and your dancing, Ted?

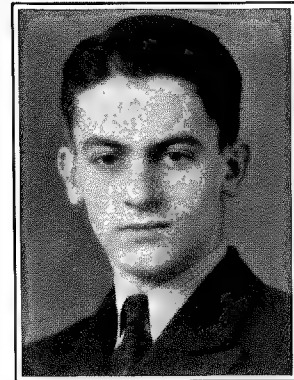

Walter Phillips Fay, Jr.

"Bud"

"Ambition has no rest."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 4; Interclass Golf 1, 2. Southwest School. Worcester Tech.

"Bud" professes to be a punster, but does equally well at devouring English passages. He is a physics fan, too—builds radios and other such gadgets.

Thomas Michael Fenton

"He is not dead, but sleepeth."

A. A. 2. St. Peter's School. Morse Business College.

Tom, "The Silent One," could lay good claim to the record for Bulkeley's briefest recitations. But he occasionally surprised us with eloquence, and pleasant occasions they were. In his silent way he was always friendly to all.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Angela Anna Ferrante

"A pleasing countenance is no slight advantage."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

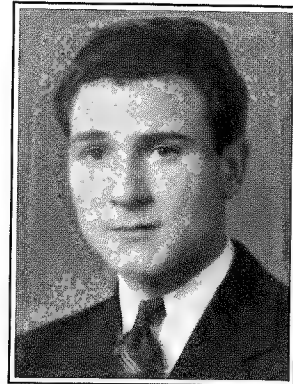

Angela's cheerful countenance was a "sight for sore eyes" to many of us tired and frazzled Bulkeleyites. No amount of worry and work could get her down.

Thomas Joseph Ferrante
"Don"

"I hitch my wagon to a star."

Commercial Club 4; "Dial" Business Board 4, Secretary 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Don always seemed to be hunting for an invisible fly on the skylight in 303 when Mr. Wilson was so unkind as to quiz him. Maybe the "Dial" creditors caused you just as much trouble when bills came due, Don?

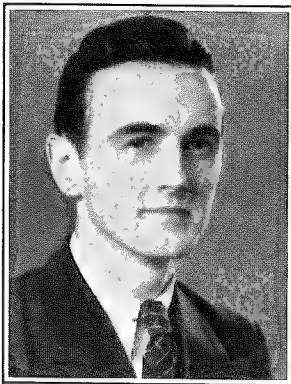

John William Fitzgerald, Jr.
"Jack"

"I always get the better when I argue alone."

A. A. 2, 3; Boys' Debating Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; "Dial" Business Board 2, 3; Upper Class Choir 2, 3; Legislative Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4. Hartford High School.

Jack is popular because he is a fine sport. Besides being a good student, Jack participated in many extra-curricular activities, and has become quite an eloquent debater.

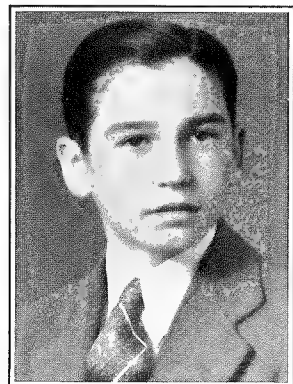

Paul Peter Fitzgerald
"Fitz"

"Youth is wholly experimental."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3; French Club 3, 4, President 4. Hartford High School. New Britain State Teachers' College.

Paul's most noticeable characteristic is his readiness to start an argument. We wouldn't be surprised to find him, fifteen years hence, a prominent lawyer.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Cecile Cornelia Fitzgibbons

"Cele"

"Too low they build who build beneath the stars."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4; Honor Society 3; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; French Club 4; Class Essayist. Mt. St. Joseph Academy.

Her wisecracks, her sudden giggles, and her ability to rate an A on homework which she had hardly prepared are qualities which only Cele could achieve.

Mary Rita Fitzpatrick

"Mutz"

"But oh! she dances such a way."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer for Afternoon Session; Student Council 1. Washington Street School.

This petite person with the winning smile and dancing feet would make an ideal partner for Fred Astaire. Keep it up, "Mutz"; you'll be there yet.

Barbara Ann Maria Flood

"Bobbie"

"On with the dance."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4. Commerce High School, Worcester, Massachusetts.

Bobbie's originality and droll wit were a delight to all who met her, and even teachers had to call time out when Bobbie sprang a joke.

John Joseph Foley

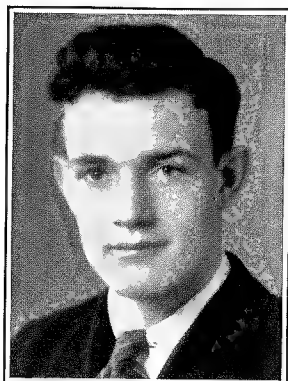

"Jack"

"Live to learn—and learn to live."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Debating Club 4. Washington Street School.

For all his good looks, Jack was very shy. He was tongue-tied in any girl's presence. Was this the reason you joined the Debating Club—to give vent to your suppressed feelings?

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Alfred Roland Joseph Forand

"Meow"

"Hang sorrow! Care will kill a cat; Therefore let's be merry."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Upper Class Choir; Radio Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

What's in a name? Al would be just as good a fellow if he had only one. Almost invariably he may be found in Mr. Swaye's room during the second recess.

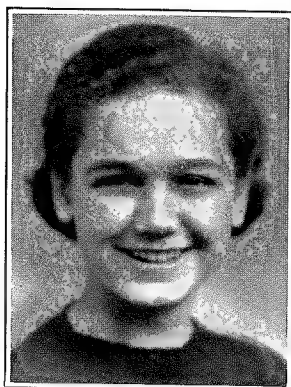

Marye Anne Ford

"Jackie"

"Did you ever see a dream walking?"

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; "Dial" Business Board 3; Upper Class Choir 3, 4. Washington Street School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

Marye is the girl with the dreamy eyes. When she looks at you, you don't know whether she is laughing with you or at you. Although she may have a dreamy look, she was always awake in Mr. Weaver's chemistry class.

Pauline Palmira Fornonzini

"Paulie"

"Always happy, always gay, glad to see her come our way."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; "Torch" Assistant Circulation Manager 3, Circulation Manager 3, Assistant Business Manager 4; Business Board Class Book; Gregg Certificate and Pin, 100 Word Gregg Transcription Test. East Hartford High School.

Pauline was that very efficient person on the "Torch" who looked incapable of being anything but very sweet. She always passed the Bulkeley fellows up for a certain person from East Hartford.

Andrew Woodrow Forte

"Andy"

"First in the fight and every graceful deed."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Nominating Committee 4; Reception Committee 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Varsity Football Letter 3, 4, Gold Football 3, Sweater 4, All-City Guard 1935. Never absent. Washington Street School. Stamford University.

Andy's fine work on the gridiron is shown by the fact that he was chosen all-city guard. But we think that his fondest ambition is to become a leading social lion.

Benjamin F. Francis "Benny"

"With a rattle and a bang."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Hartford Public High School.

When a great deal of noise is heard down the corridor, it is a fairly even chance that Benny is thereabouts. He may usually be found in the midst of a crowd of the fairer sex.

Celia Dorothy Marie Francoline "Toots"

"A cheerful look makes a dish a feast."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3. Alfred E. Burr School.

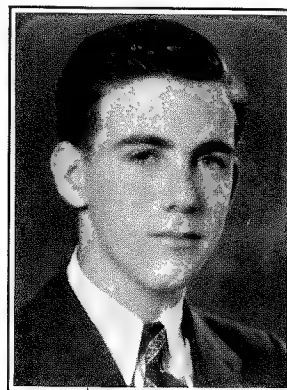

"Toots" was the girl with dark, sparkling eyes that seemed to smile even when she was serious. She was a good pal to everyone she knew.

Robert Stanley Frazier "Bob"

"Life is short, yet sweet."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3. Alfred E. Burr School. Alabama University.

Wherever Bob goes he always can find a way to have a good time. His actions show that he is truly a believer in Epicurean principles.

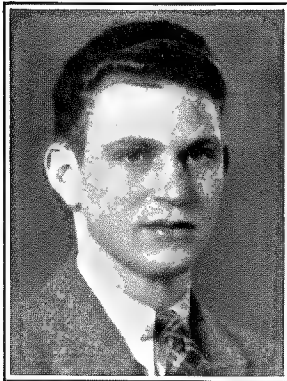

Florance Rosilda Frenette "Flo"

"Though I am always in haste, I am never in a hurry."

A. A. 2, 3. Washington Street School.

Flo was an optimist, always seeing the cheerful side of life. A good pal as well as an antidote for the blues was Flo.

George Jerome Fritze

"Lefty"

"Whatever is popular deserves attention."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Student Council 4, President 4; Varsity Football Letter 3, 4, Gold Football 3, Sweater 4; Varsity Basketball Letter 3, 4, Gold Basketball 3; Varsity Baseball Letters 3, 4. Southwest School. Dartmouth College.

George's athletic ability is one of the reasons why Bulkeley kept producing championship teams. He is popular with the boys because of his friendly nature and modesty, and with the girls because of his wavy hair.

Helen Mae Fuller

"Peanuts"

"This doth fit the time."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2; Commercial Club 3; "Dial" Typist 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School.

What "Peanuts" lacked in height she made up for in charm. With her business ability she should make someone an excellent secretary.

Eleanor Rita Galvin

"Rita"

"What! canst thou say all this and never blush?"

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; French Club 4. Immaculate Conception School.

Each succeeding year has brought more friends to Rita. Never known to criticise another, she was everybody's friend.

Gladys Eleanor Gartner

"Be silent and safe; silence never betrays."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4; History-Civics Club 4. No demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Gladys knew the secret of keeping one's friends. She let them do all the talking while she lent a sympathetic ear.

Elizabeth Mildred Gates

"Toots"

"Quiet of mien and manner."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 4; Upper Class Choir 4; Glee Club 4. Northwest School.

Small and petite, with a personality to fit, are the words which describe Betty best. She may have been a trifle quiet but the manner in which she wore her beautiful clothes gained for her the envy and admiration of her friends.

Isabelle Veronica Gaudiana

"Bella"

"But as for me—give me a good time."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Upper Choir 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Bella thrived on excitement and fun. Classes that she attended were never dull.

Roland Stephen Gauruder

"Crooner"

"When I can't talk sense, I talk metaphor."

Junior Glee Club 1; Senior Glee Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4. Southwest School.

Everyone wants to know just what sort of person "Crooner" is. He's successfully kept us guessing for four years. Perhaps in the dim, dim future he may write his memoirs and let us in on the secret.

Robert Irving Gero

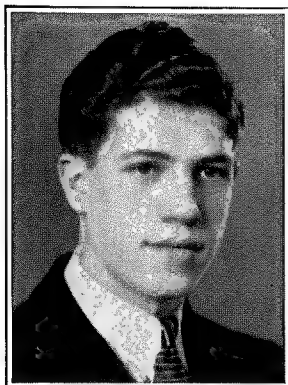

"Bob"

"Look, look, how his buttons shine."

Boys' Club 4; History-Civics Club 4; "Torch" 1, 2; "Dial" 1. Alfred E. Burr School.

Bob's chief interest was the National Guard. Perhaps he intends to be a general in the army—or is it just because girls always find a fatal fascination in a uniform?

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

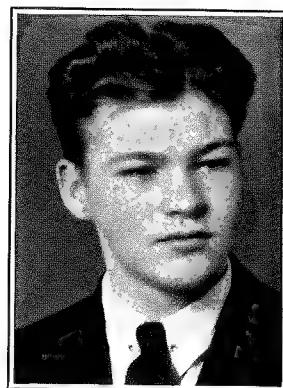

Dominick Francis Gianantonio
"Dom"

"They also serve who only stand and wait."

Boys' Club 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School. Notre Dame.

Dom is the fellow who always retained his composure and good nature—even when caught red-handed bluffing on his recitations. Self-possession is a valuable asset to have, Dom, even if gained in this manner.

Arthur Richard Godbout

"Loud roared the thunder."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Track Squad 3; Legislative Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Art is always in the throes of a questioning mania. He has his own opinion and theories, and to his misfortune they often differed considerably from the teacher's. Result—a heated argument ending with Art vanquished, but ready to try again.

Irwin Marchant Goodwin
"Early-Goodie"

A. A. 4; Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Edison Club 3, 4; Biological Repertory 4; Honor Society 4. Chauncey Harris School. Hartford Public High School.

Irwin certainly must be deeply interested in all things biological, judging from his club memberships. Dissecting frogs may not have entitled him to membership in the S. P. C. A., but he was after knowledge and he found it.

Margaret Ellen Gorry
"Miggie"

"Always happy, always gay."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Bay Path Institute.

Miggie was always a good pal. With her infinite store of amusing tales and her irresistible giggles she turned every class into a good time.

Marjorie Frances Gosselin

"Marge"

"A pleasant association of comrades."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Marge's father is a policeman, we hear, so don't belittle the minions of the law in her presence. Can you get a ticket "fixed", Marge?

Grayce Arlien Gotis

"Gaye"

"He that nothing questioneth, nothing learneth."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Art Club 2; Glee Club 3; Honor Society 1, 2, 3; Dramatic Club 1. Never tardy. Bryant High School, New York. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

In the short time Gaye has been here she has become well known for her tempestuous manner of rushing down the corridors. We wish you the best of luck in your nursing career, Gaye.

Genevieve Cullen Grady

"Gen"

"Good breeding is the blossom of good sense."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4. No demerits, never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. St. Joseph College.

Gen is the girl with the bright eyes and the spontaneous laugh. She was an asset to any group, club, or classroom. Truly, she is a fine example of a "good sport."

Margery Elizabeth Graves

"Marge"

"Life is short and sweet."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 3. Hartford Public High School.

Here's a girl who is a friend of everyone. Yes, it's Marge, with her winsome smile and merry greeting.

Doris Mae Graywacz

"Dor"

"There is nothing like fun, is there?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 2, 3. Washington Street School. St. Joseph College.

Everyone likes Doris's genial personality. She lives for sports and has had an active career in Bulkeley's athletic clubs. Let us in on your secret of being so proficient in all sports, Dor.

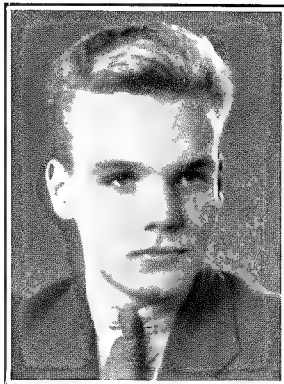

Beatrice Julia Griffin

"Bea"

"Quiet of mien and movement."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Southwest School.

Bea was always surprising us. Usually she was rather quiet and reserved, but suddenly she would startle us with a remark showing her clever, dry wit.

Louis Ritch Griffin

"Bud"

"Better the feet slip than the tongue."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1; Boys' Glee Club 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; "Dial" Board 4. Southwest School.

"Bud's" good natured manner of accepting whatever came up certainly made life easy. He was always willing to drive people home, especially from the History-Civics Club meetings.

Marguerite Ann Grosch

"Peg"

"The way to gain friends is to be one."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Reception Committee. Alfred E. Burr School. Arnold College.

Peg always has a bit of interesting news about something or someone. She is very sympathetic and never seems to tire of listening to other people's troubles.

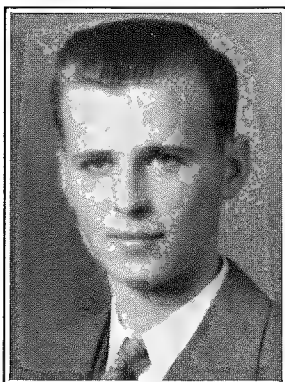

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Wally Louise Guelsdorf

"To laugh, to lie, to flatter, to face
Four ways in court to win men's grace."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2; Glee Club 4; History-Civics Club 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School.

Wally was the belle of all the Bulkeley dances. The boys always rush a good dancer—especially when she's a blonde. The girls always watched Wally's clothes for examples of the latest styles.

Adam Walter Guzik "Sparks"

"In patience there is safety."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 3; Boys' Club 4; Track 4. Never absent, never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

Adam is a conscientious student who aspires to be a track star. He doesn't make much noise in school, but was one of the group who always surrounded the fountain outside 215.

Charles Joseph Hadden

"My life is like a stroll."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. St. Peter's School.

Charles came to us from St. Peter's School. Besides having a keen sense of humor, he showed unusual literary talent, especially in one of his contributions to the "Dial."

Arline Patricia Hagarty "Arlie"

"I'm not quiet—but bashful."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 1, 2; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Arlie is the sweet, silent young lady who is renowned for her quiet courtesy. She was in the background of our class—but who could ask for a better background?

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Margaret Eileen Hagarty
"Eileen"

"Her talents were of the more silent class."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4. Southwest School.

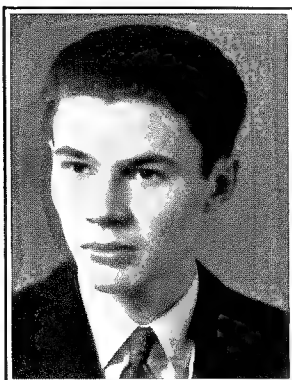

Eileen was rather retiring, but her pleasant friendly manner was always noticeable.

Nesbitt Ward Hagood, Jr.
"Rebel"

"Let come what may."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 4; Biology Club 3, 4; Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Freshman Football 1, 2; Varsity Football 3, 4, Sweater and Letter Football 4. Washington Street School. Georgia Tech.

He may be a "Rebel" to some but he's always seemed a pleasant, easy-going person to the rest of the world. However, "Rebel" has high aspirations and we wish him the very best of luck.

Robert Eugene Haley
"Bud"

"The style is the man himself."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Edison Club 4; Swimming Club 3. St. Peter's School. Trinity College.

"Bud" was Bulkeley's example of what the well-dressed young man will wear. His private office was the "Torch" room. Office hours—anytime classes weren't going on.

Harold Valentine Hansen
"Hank"

"His trick of doing nothing with an air."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Librarian 4; Freshman Football 1, 2; Varsity Football 3, 4; Class Basketball 1, 2; Class Baseball 1, 2. Washington Street School. Dean Academy.

"Hank" is considered by some to be quite a "lady-killer." Perhaps it all dates back to the time he got on the football squad.

William Bey Harrison

"Bill"

"Every man has his fault, and honesty is his."

A. A. 3, 4; Nominating Committee 4; Honor Society 4; Radio Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4. No demerits. William Hall High School. Trinity College.

Easy going, that's Bill. He was noted for his silent ways. But he was right in there with what it takes to get along.

John Francis Hayes

"Blessed be the man that invented sleep!"

Boys' Club 4. Hartford Public High School.

It seems that he was noted for finding ways to lean against the corridor wall during recess, watching all his neighbors go by. But if there was any excitement going on, John was always right there.

Helen Marie Healey

"Peanuts"

"I'm sure care is an enemy to life."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1. Never tardy, no demerits. St. Peter's School.

"Peanuts" self-assured air has carried her through many a difficult situation: for instance, the times when she has had no homework done. This is a trait which all of us envy.

Patricia Heidacker

"Pat"

"Your wit ambles well; it goes easily."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Art Club 3, 4; Tennis Club 2; Literary Club 3; "Dial" Business Board 3; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee. No demerits. Southwest School.

Pat's scandal sheets were the worry of many teachers. Her jokes (?) and caricatures could turn any class into a riot. Surprising as it seems, she always knew the right answers, too. We know because we were in her Law class.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Henry Martin Heldman

"His smile is sweetened by his gravity."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. Washington Street School.

Harry always seemed rather serious until he flashed that friendly grin of his, and then you knew he had plenty of fun in his make-up for a good time.

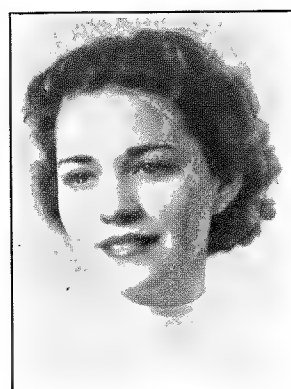

Myrtle Harriet Henderling

"Myrt"

"Dance, laugh, and be merry."

Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Weaver High School.

Myrt is the happy-go-lucky member of our class. Everything is O. K. by her. She always looked happy—even on the Thursdays when report cards came out.

Doris Mae Hepp

"Dot"

"For she was jes' the quiet kind whose natures never vary."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 1; Swimming Club 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 3; Commercial Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Gregg Shorthand Certificate and Pin. No demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Dot is usually a quiet, rather demure young lady, but she possesses a magnetic charm which makes her many friends. We shall all miss her sweet smile.

Robert Victor Hermann

"Bob"

"A calm young man."

Boys' Club 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Bob is a student whose voice is seldom heard except perhaps during choir practice. There is a saying that "gentlemen prefer blondes," but with Bob it's "Girls prefer them, too."

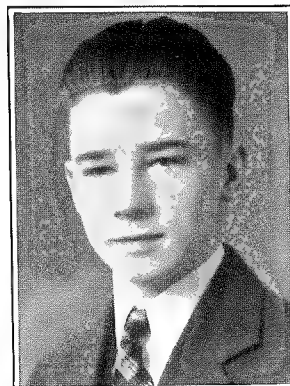

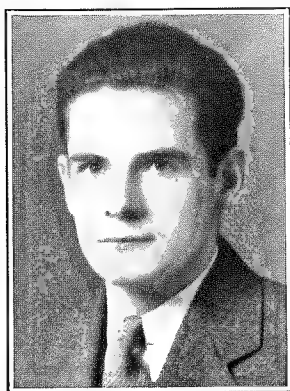

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

John Daniel Hickey "Hick"

"Inwardness, mildness, and self-renouncement do make for man's happiness."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club 1; Commercial Club 3. Washington Street School.

Daniel went into the lions' den, but Hick was almost as daring and went to all the dances. He too came out unscathed, but with sundry feminine hearts on his sleeve.

Joseph J. Hillen "Joe"

"The best part of school is between classes."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

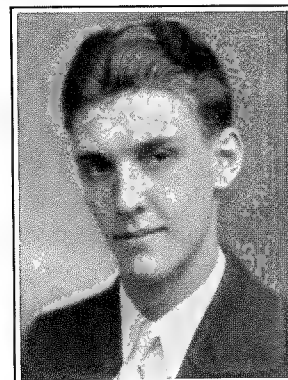

It is not laziness that makes Joe move so slowly -it's just an acute attack of nonchalance. It took what he considered a sprint to reach classes in the three minutes allowed.

Donald Greenough Hofferth "Donie"

"A man's but what he knoweth."

Art Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 4; Dramatic Club 3. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Donie is the dark-haired chap who wanders around as if in a daze. We can't decide whether it's due to his latest artistic achievement (?) or whether he's just too wrapped up in himself.

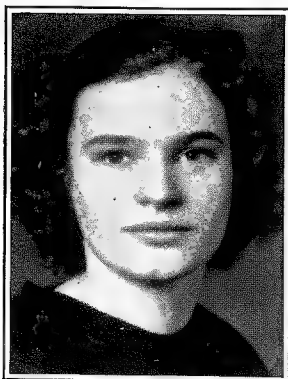

Ruth Frances Holland "Ruthie"

"Stillness of person and steadiness of features are marks of good breeding."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2; "Torch" Editorial Board 2, Humor Staff 2, Exchange Editor 3, 4. Never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Katherine Gibbs Secretarial School.

Ruthie's cultured charm has endeared her to many. She was an asset to any gathering. We might add that she also had the ability to wear smart clothes.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Lillian Virginia Hopley

"Bunny"

"A good sport makes a good friend."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3; Tennis Club 2; Girls' Golf Club 4; Second Prize Winner, Rotary Club Contest. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School. Business College.

"Bunny" knows how to have and impart fun. She is very congenial and is everybody's friend. Can it be that her driver's license has something to do with it?

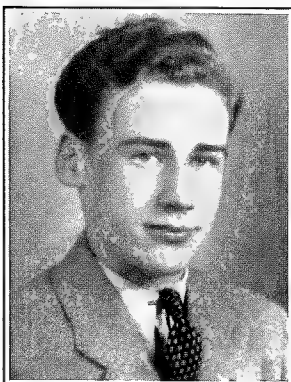

Viola Mae Hopley

"Via"

"Life without laughing is a dreary blank."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3; Golf Club 2, 3, 4; Tennis Club 2; Student Council 1; American Legion Prize; Class Treasurer; Senior Nominating Committee; Business Board of Class Book. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School.

Via is always smiling. She made a great many friends during her four years at Bulkeley. Sports are her pet enthusiasm, and you can always find her down at Goodwin Park skiing, skating, golfing, or playing tennis.

Richard Joseph Horan

"Horn"

"Aim only to seek pleasure."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

Tall, dark, and handsome are the three words that describe Horn. From what we observed in four years, these characteristics certainly were of value to him at the dances.

Jeanie Thompson Howat

"Jean"

"Joyance that gladdens the heart."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2. Frank A. Brackett School.

We hear Jeanie plans to go to Morse Business College. We wonder if she'll be able to rein in those gay spirits enough to become a sedate secretary.

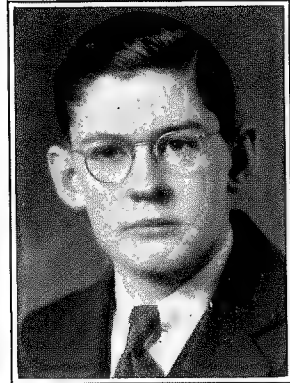

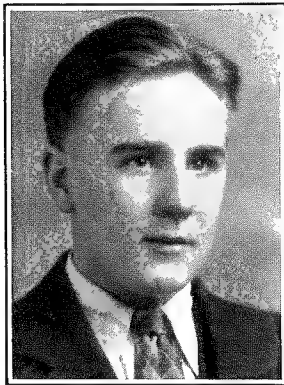

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

William Mansur Hoyt

"Like a spark from an anvil."

A. A. 3; Boys' Club 4; Junior Usher; Honor Society 4. Newington Junior High School.

Bill's bound to be a famous man, for nobody can read his signature, or any of his writing, for that matter. Aside from that we hand him the palm for repartee.

Philip Hurley, Jr.

"Pinky"

"But to go to school on a bright new morn, Oh, it drives all the joy away."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. Stratford High School.

The search for knowledge, according to Phil, was, "It's a tough life, boys." Comment: Don't we know it!

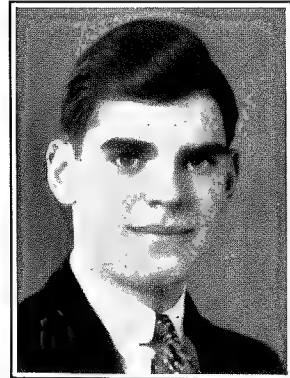

Joseph Andre Jalbert

"Andy"

"Words are easy, like the wind; Faithful friends are hard to find."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; French Club 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Andy's quietness in school is over-balanced tenfold by his pep when he is out with his "gang." When he drives a golf ball, it seems to trade its cover for wings.

Henry Floyd Jarvis

"A gentleman makes no noise."

A. A. 2; Boys' Club 2; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Henry is another of those "quiet fellows" who never say much, but he is renowned for his ability to tell all the dirt about geology. He's a woman hater, but we think he will change as time goes on.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

William A. Jenks

"Bill"

"Art needs no spur beyond itself."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Art Club 2; Freshman Glee Club 1; Track 2, 3; Honorable Mention for drawings at Hartford Art Club and Mark Twain Poster Contests. Southwest School. Pratt Institute.

Bill showed his ability at drawing in grammar school days, and at Bulkeley he has found expression for his talent in illustrating our school publications, and in walking off with art contests.

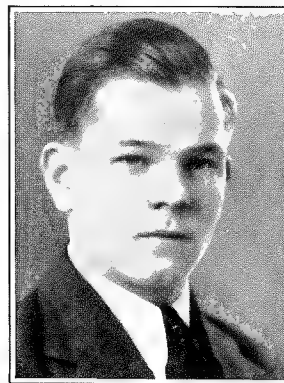

Adolph Elmer Johnson

"Swede"

"On with the dance."

A. A. 3; Boys' Club 1; Legislative Club 3; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3; Radio Club 3, Vice-President 3. Alfred E. Burr School. Northeastern University.

Where is Elmer? Why, he's been at Bulkeley these past four years. He could always be found around the lobby during the first recess—but no one ever discovered why.

Audrey Johnson

"Little Audrey"

"Her very frowns are fairer far Than smiles of other maidens are."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4; Junior Orchestra; Senior Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; Junior Glee Club 2; Tennis Club 4; Honor Society 4; Reception Committee. No demerits. Southwest School. Bay Path Institute.

Little Audrey is no joke on the tennis court—we've all noticed that she swings a racquet in rather neat form. She's a girl who's nice to meet in a match, or anywhere else, for that matter.

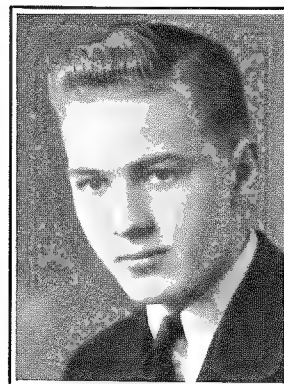

Evert Martinus Johnson

"My only books are women's looks and how I love to study!"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 3, 4; Edison Club 4. Hillside Avenue School. Pratt Institute.

Maybe he didn't exactly like it—but with his catching smile, good looks, and curly blonde hair, the girls thought Evert was the cutest and best-looking boy in the class. He certainly never lacked their company.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

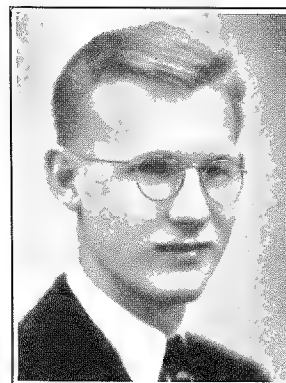

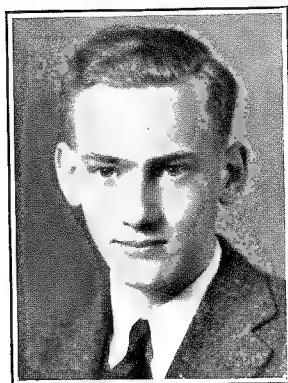

Howard Martin Johnson

"Howie"

"If I rest I rust."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Fifth Member 4; Parnassus Club 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Junior Orchestra 1; Senior Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 3, 4; "Torch" Sports Staff 3, Associate Editor 4; Business Board of Class Book. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Howie's motto in school is "Why worry?" In romance it's "Why not?" At any rate he makes it short and sweet.

Robert Martin Johnson

"Bob"

"For knowledge, too, is itself a power."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Radio Club 3, 4, Fifth Member 4; Junior Usher. Hartford Public High School. Pratt Institute.

Bob has done very well in scholastics, as was apparent to all. You've started splendidly, Bob; we're all for you.

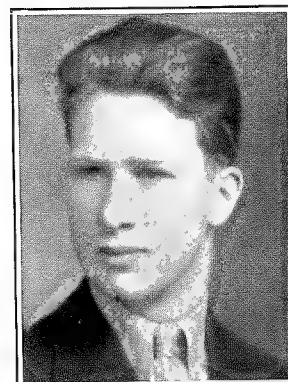

George Gilmore Jones

"Rusty"

"He seemed to wear one universal grin."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Boys' Glee Club 1. Southwest School.

Gil is the stocky redhead that claims he's no Roman, but still walks off with the gals the other boys are after. We wish he'd tell us the trick. Anyway, he's a cheerful fellow and you can't help but like him.

Marjorie Elizabeth Jones

"Marge"

"I am silent and steady."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; Student Council 1. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School.

Marjorie will be as well liked everywhere as she was at Bulkeley, we predict. An easy-going disposition and sunny manner make a wonderful combination.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Julia Mary Juda
"Judy"

"How far that little candle throws its beams!"

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Saints Cyril and Methodius School.

Judy is the little girl who always seems to be going somewhere in a great hurry. She certainly wields a mean tennis racquet in the summer down at Colt's Park.

Frank J. Kalafut
"Flash"

"It is quiet people who accomplish much."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. Hartford Public High School.

"Flash" is one of the strong, silent type, with many secret admirers. He would undoubtedly have become a basketball player of no mean ability if only he had stuck to it.

Elizabeth Jane Kase
"Betty"

"She's pretty to walk with
And witty to talk with."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2; Student Council 2; Commercial Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Girls' Swimming Club 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 2; Girls' Golf Club 1, 2, 3, 4, President 4; Upper Class Choir 4; 100 Word Gregg Transcription Test; Class Book Editorial Board. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Betty has spent a glorious, carefree four years with us. The boys did all they could to make it so—at least "Desperate D" did.

Elizabeth Kasparian
"Betty"

"Have patience while shuffling the cards of life."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Choir 2, 3, 4; Art Club 1, 2; Commercial Club 3, 4. Southwest School.

Interest in extra-curricular activities is a very valuable asset to a high school career. Betty is the type that takes an active interest in all the things about her.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

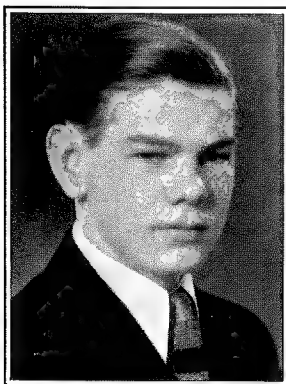

George Kazarian

"Koz"

"Slow and steady wins the race."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1; History-Civics Club 4. Never absent, never tardy. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

Koz is slow and ponderous, and never seems to be in a hurry. The number of his nicknames mounts to the teens, but he doesn't seem to like any of them.

Walter Elwood Keduk

"Russian"

"One cannot know everything."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Walt always wore a happy and carefree expression, even if the teachers seemed to forget about his good work when the end of a marking period came. His pet aversion is the whole female sex.

Katherine Josephine Kelleher

"Kay"

"She is a jolly good sport."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Swimming Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Bay Path Institute.

Kay is just about the best sport in our class. Her constant smile and cheery hello are enough to put us in a good mood at any time of day.

Francis William Kelly

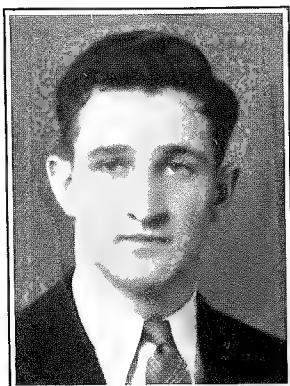

"Red"

"The thirst to know and understand."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4. Washington Street School. Bentley School of Accounting.

Red's idea of life corresponds to that of the ancient Epicureans—eat, drink, and be merry. He may be detected in the corridors by his confident stroll and nonchalant expression.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

James Robert Kelley

"Kel"

"A light heart lives long."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 3, 4. Southwest School. Ohio State University.

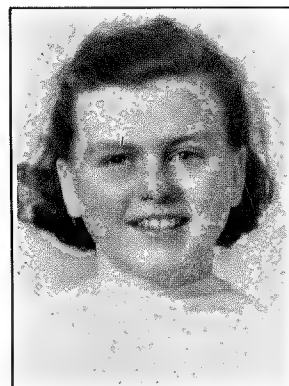

Wherever Kel is, there are heard sounds of talk and laughter. He has a mind of his own and is frank in expressing his opinions.

Mary Elizabeth Kelly

"The twinkle in her eyes never fails."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Hillside Avenue School.

Mary is that vivacious bit of humanity who never fails to keep the conversational ball rolling. Her good humor and congeniality have brightened Bulkeley for all who knew her.

M. Winifred Kerin

"Winnie"

"Hitch your wagon to a star."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 1, 2, Secretary 3, President 4; Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club 1; Literary Club 2, 3, 4, President 3; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 2; Girls' Tennis Club 2, 3, 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 2, 3, Business Board 3, Typing Staff 3; Pin and Ring Committee 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, Typing Staff 4; Scribblers' Club 4; Gregg Shorthand Award. No demerits. Immaculate Conception School. Mt. St. Joseph College.

Winnie's career at Bulkeley has been a bright one. Her brilliance and vivacity have made her one of the leaders of the class.

Satnick Elizabeth Kirkorian

"Sally"

"Of all the girls that are so smart, There's none like witty Sally."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Classical Club 2; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Literary Club 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Honor Society 4; Chairman Play Committee 4; Class Prophetess. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Pembroke College.

Sally has an endless supply of saucy wit and good humor. Although she was tops with the football team, she still found time to brighten the lives of a few others.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

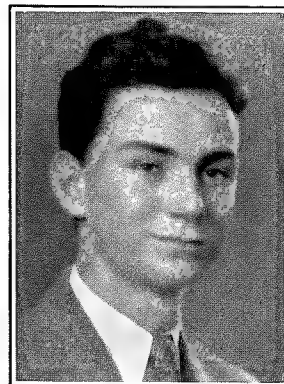

James Christopher Kitson

"Jimmy"

"A light heart lives long."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1, 2. Never tardy. Washington Street School. St. Mary's College.

Jimmy is noted for his amicable personality and sunny disposition. He is always ready to lend a helping hand, especially to football players who haven't had "time" to do their studying.

Isabella Madaline Koch

"Ep"

"Nothing's so popular as kindness."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4. Manchester High School.

Isabella didn't have much of a chance to join many clubs, for she was here only a short time, but during that time she made many lasting friends.

Edward Andrew Korisky

"Chop"

"This man is made of solid stuff."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4, Gold Football 3, Sweater 4, All-City Center 1935; Track 3, 4, Co-Captain 4, Gold Wingfoot 4; City Javelin Record 1935. Washington Street School. Rutgers University.

"Chop" is not only a stellar athlete but a fine fellow as well. After the form he displayed in football and track, none of Bulkeley's opponents will regret his graduating.

Irene Theresa Kozlowski

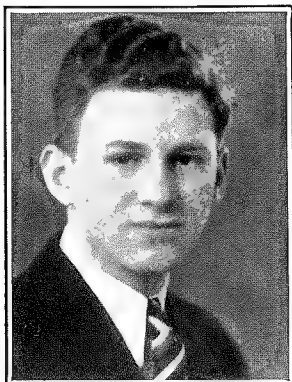

"Renee"

"Genteel in personage, conduct, and equipage."

A. A. 1, 4; Girls' League 1, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Saints Cyril and Methodius School.

Renee is a blonde girl with a trait that her sister blondes certainly do not have—she is quiet. But it is that kind that acquires knowledge first.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Milton Kramer

"Mickey"

"Care to our coffin adds a nail, no doubt,
And every grin, so merry, draws one out."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Commercial Club 3; Edison Club 4. Washington Street School.

Mickey is constantly being kidded because of his very business-like attitude, but he shows that he can take it by always replying with one of his infectious smiles.

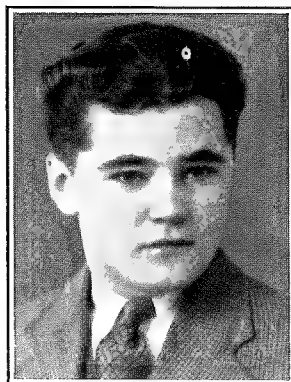

Mary Agnes LaCava

"Fortune follows the industrious."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4. Chauncey Harris School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

Mary certainly will look refreshing decked out in a nurse's white uniform. You must have patience to be a nurse, Mary, and let's hope you have good-natured patients also.

Arthur Joseph Laliberty

"Snix"

"Men are not measured by inches."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 3, 4; Legislative Club 3; Assistant Basketball Manager 3; Football Manager 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

It can never be said that "Snix" hates the fairer sex, for he may almost always be found joking with one of the girls. "Snix" has the distinction of being Bulkeley's smallest football manager.

Justine Dolores Langrish

"Refined, quiet, and kind."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4, Secretary 4. Never tardy, no demerits. St. Peter's School.

Justine is the quiet but sophisticated type of person one rarely meets today. Her charming manners are, indeed, an asset to our class.

Eleanor Theresa Laraia

"El"

"The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure, and pleasure my business."

Girls' League 1, 2, 4. Chauncey Harris School.

A smiling face and a cheery word were El's biggest assets, but not many could ask for more. Always happy, she was one of the most likable members of our class.

Triestina Helen Laraia

"Chris"

"I do but sing, because I must."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Chris has a talent for singing—with "blues" songs as her specialty. We hope to hear your voice coming from our loud-speaker some day, Chris.

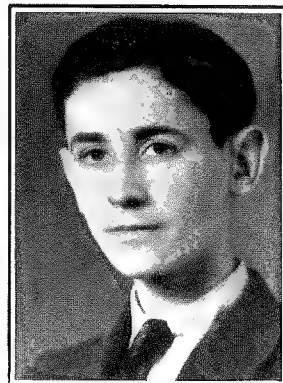

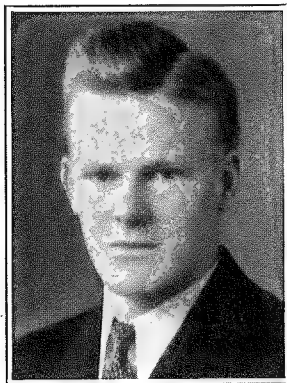

Thomas Joseph Lavine

"Prince"

"It is better to wear out than rust out."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

If you should happen to see something coming down the street that looks halfway between a Canadian trapper and a Russian soldier, don't be alarmed, for usually it will be Tommy in his brother's CCC coat and hunting cap. Tommy thinks that some day he will make the fans forget about Bobby Jones.

John Alfred Lawrence

"Al"

"A good man happy is a common good."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2. Hillside Avenue School.

Al was one of the altitude men of the class, you know, the ones you have to crane your neck to talk to. His pleasant ways made him well liked among his classmates.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Carmela Rita Leggio

"Nellie"

"Silence hides many good things."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Chauncey Harris School. Trinity College.

Carmella wasn't active in school activities, except for swimming. She excels at that, and enjoyed St. Joseph Cathedral pool quite often.

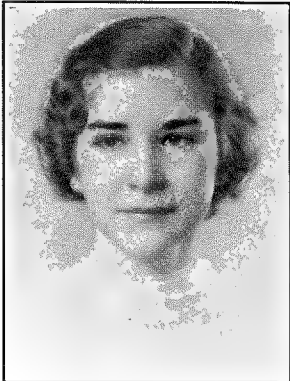

Richard Drake Lindner

"Richie"

"Popularity is power."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 3; Edison Club 4; Pin and Ring Committee; Basketball 3, 4, Letter 4; Yale Tournament Medal 3, 4; Football 4, Letter 4, Sweater 4; Junior Usher; Honor Society 4. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Richie was the "all-round" boy of our class. A two-letter man in sports, he was not averse to the company of young ladies. Will he ever live down that write-up in the "Torch"?

Doris Mae Lingsweiler

"Dot"

"A cheery word, a cheery smile, That's what makes life worth-while."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 3; History-Civics Club 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School. Cambridge Secretarial School.

Dot is quite enthusiastic about all sports—especially swimming. We hear from reliable sources (guess) that she is also an accomplished dancer and pianist.

Helen Dolores Lombardo

"Billie"

"She shall have music."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Although Helen doesn't display her talent at school, we understand that she has a real future in music. Maybe she will be starred in a musical hit some day.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Victoria Elizabeth Lombruno

"Vickie"

"Just what the doctor ordered."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1. Washington Street School.

Vickie is one young lady who was the spearhead of a laughing group of friends on the second floor corridor—and those friends weren't always of her own gender.

Geraldine Jane Loschiavo

"Jerry"

"Who ever perseveres shall be crowned."

No demerits. Commercial High, Springfield, Mass.

Jerry comes to us from Springfield. We can safely put her name down in blue ink on the right side of our class ledger. What's another's loss is our gain, Jerry.

Helen Gladys Luniewsky

"Linny"

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4. Never absent, never tardy. Chauncey Harris School.

Linny was one of the most active members of Bulkeley's Girls' Leaders Corps. There was no game she couldn't play and no stunt she couldn't do. We hear she was quite good in stenography, too.

Stacia Edith Mackiewicz

"Honey"

"A tender heart—a will inflexible."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 3. Newington Home.

That name that her friends picked to nickname Stacia couldn't have been better chosen. Honey is the index of her content.

Josephine Mary Madden

"Jo-Jo"

"You will profit—for you have learned to please."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4, President 4; History-Civics Club 3. St. Peter's School. St. Agnes Nursing School.

Jo-Jo must be about the best cook in school to be chosen President of the Ni-No-Van Club. One thing, Jo, use nature's foods at all times and don't try to wear out the can opener.

Margaret Ann Magaldi

"Marge"

"Much is she worth."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School. Comptometer School.

Marge is always willing to lend a helping hand. Her favorite was to act as room banking treasurer. Don't forget there are women bankers, Marge.

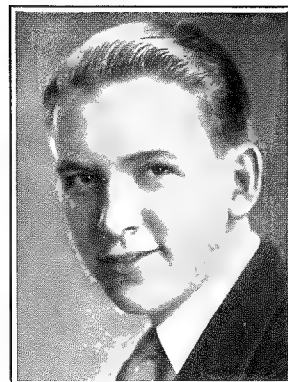

Paul Arthur Mailett

"Pert"

"And lo, his car rattles down the street."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Paul was our master mechanic. He had to be to keep his master machine in shape—a Lizzie with four cylinders, rheumatic springs, and plenty of thrills. But he won't be satisfied with a Lizzie all his life because he has plenty of ability. Take nothing less than a Cadillac, Paulie.

George Adam Manke

"Slim"

"If he ever worried, he hid it."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1; Edison Club 4; Radio Club 4. Southwest School.

Slim's nonchalance and man-of-the-world air were conspicuous. School didn't faze him, studies didn't worry him; he just kept going along.

Marie D. Manion

"Ree"

"Wit is the food of conversation."

A. A. 1, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2, 3; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; "Dial" Business Board 2, 3; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Southwest School.

Marie is the young lady who always has a witty remark to make about something or other. She is quite an actress. Remember her as one of the mothers in "It Never Rains"?

Francis Alfred Massa

"Chic"

"And unremitting energy pervades him."

Boys' Club 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Boys' Glee Club 4; History-Civics Club 4; Business Board of "Dial" 3, 4, Advertising Manager 3, Assistant Business Manager 4. St. Peter's School.

"Chic" was one of our high-pressure salesmen—always trying to sell you a "Dial" or something. When not nailing a subscription he was a very quiet fellow, but when he started to make a sale—Zowie! He has plenty of energy, and we think he can sell himself to the world cash down.

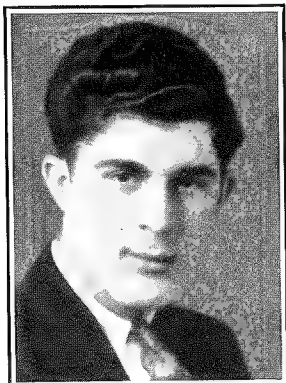

Peter Daniel Mattas

"Russian"

"The Man on the Flying Trapeze."

Hartford Public High School.

Pete is the boy who lives on food and "tumbling." He is an ardent enthusiast at this acrobatic practice and claims it will be his profession. Best of tumbling, Pete.

James Phathon Matthews, Jr.

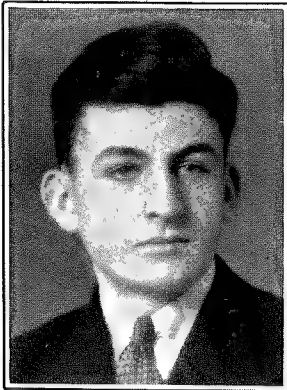

"Fezzy"

"The deed is everything, the fame nothing."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; "Torch" 3, 4, Associate Editor 4, Managing Editor 4, Co-Editor 4; Debating Club 4, Secretary 4, Vice-President 4; Art Club 4, Secretary 4; Dramatic Club 4; Legislative Club 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Choir 1, 2, 3; Freshman Football. Alfred E. Burr School. Siebel Baking Institute, Chicago.

Jimmie, with his many club activities and careful management of the "Torch", has most assuredly made a success of his high school career. His witty remarks and helpful hints have made him a most popular member of our class.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

William Joseph McCarthy

"Mac"

"His mind is his kingdom and his will his law."

A. A. 1; Boys' Club 4; Boys' Debating Club 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 4; Legislative Club 4; Honor Society 4; Junior Usher; Senior Nominating Committee; Editorial Board of Class Book; First Scholarship Prize Freshman Year. Latin Contest Prize. Hillside Avenue School. Trinity College.

Mac was outstanding in scholastics and popular with his classmates. Our sincerest wishes for success, Mac.

Elizabeth Marie McCue

"Betty"

"But oh! she dances such a way!"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, President 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Representative 1, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 2, 3, 4; Tennis Club 2, 3; Student Council 1; Color and Motto Committee. Southwest School. New Rochelle College.

Betty is the pretty young girl who is so fond of dancing. Besides being a good dancer, she is a capable student, a good sport, and can always be found in the midst of a group.

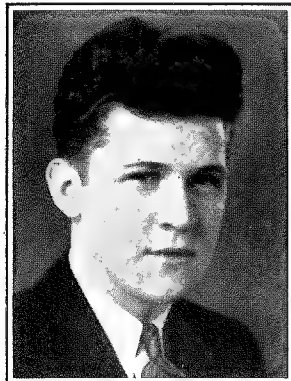

William James McCurry

"Mac"

"He capers, he dances, he has the eyes of youth."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Chairman of Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Chairman of Reception Committee; Freshman Football 1; Interclass Baseball 1, 2, 3; Interclass Basketball 2, 3, 4; Class Numerals 4; Basketball Squad 3. Alfred E. Burr School.

Mac is one of our crack dancers, as well as being a prime favorite with both girls and boys. He has that quaint little habit of blushing when a teacher calls on him.

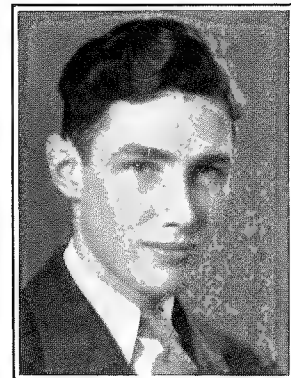

Paul Dennis McGinnis

"Mac"

"Let me wahoo, wahoo, wahoo."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Chess Club 3; Track Team. Weaver High School. St. Peter's School.

Mac was always the suave young gentleman. He had the personality that somehow singled him out for all the odd session-room jobs. Better watch that when you get in the office, old boy!

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Mary Margaret McGrath

"She walks in silence."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School. Connecticut State Teachers College.

Mary is one of the quieter students of our class, but this was due to her modesty, not to any lack of ability.

George Donald McKay

"Lank"

"He hath a stern look, but a gentle heart."

A. A. 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Most of us have our hands full trying to graduate in four years. Lank did it in 3½. Despite all his good marks in mathematics, he still can't seem to add up his golf score-card correctly, and mistakes a plus sign for a minus.

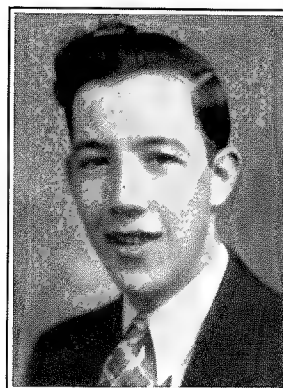

John Francis McKiernan

"Mac"

"As proper a man as one shall see on a summer's day."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 4; Upper Class Choir 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, Sports Board 4; Swimming Club 4; Varsity Football 4; Interclass Baseball 2, 3; Interclass Basketball 1, 2. Never tardy. Southwest School. Connecticut State College.

Mac possesses one of the best and most easy-going natures in the class. He makes friends with almost everyone. It is too bad he couldn't have been a Junior Usher, though; it would have given him such good training for his present calling.

Frances Josephine Meheran

"Fran"

"Quiet persons are welcome everywhere."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Though quiet in her classes and around school, Fran can be enthusiastic when aroused. Her intimate friends tell us she is an ideal companion.

Stanley Alexander Merski

"Sam"

"He did bold things in a quiet way."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Edison Club 4. No demerits. St. Peter's School. Trinity College.

Stan is a quiet, unobtrusive fellow, but the records show that he was right in there all the time. And in his quiet way he built up many friends in Bulkeley.

Barbara Evelyn Mesite

"Bob"

"A stitch in time saves nine."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 1. Southwest School.

With her mind set on a business career, Bob has certainly started off on the right foot with her perfect conduct and attendance records.

Louise Esther Milco

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Never absent, never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Louise seems to be immune from doing wrong. She was a model of perfect behavior—a good one to follow, too.

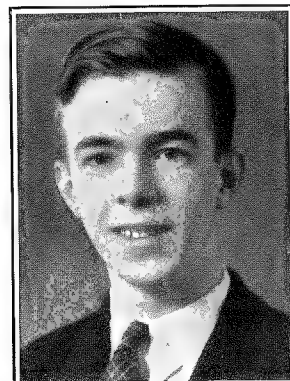

Adolphus Herbert Miles, Jr.

"Pokey"

"Oh, the music goes round and round."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School.

"Pokey" and his band were well-known among Bulkeleyites. He plays a mean trumpet, but our advice is to leave the tuba alone. You see, "Pokey's" built more in proportion to the trumpet and proportion should be remembered.

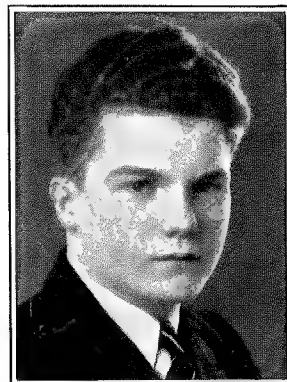

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Andrew Francis Milikowski

"An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Chauncey Harris School.

If you wanted to find Andy you merely looked for the bushiest head in the corridor and there he was. And where he was the blues weren't.

Peter Anthony Mobilia

"Pete"

"I do but sing because I must."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club 1; Glee Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; "Dial" Advertising Board 4, Assistant Publicity Manager 4. Southwest School.

Pete worked faithfully on his homework and his car—and made the car work better. A member of the famous Bulkeley Quartet, he was sometimes known as the "end man" because he stood last in line.

Alan Brendan Mooney

"Moon"

"With a rattle and a bang."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Senior Nominating Committee 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4, Letter 2, 3, 4; Football 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4, Letter 3, 4, Gold Basketball 3; Gold Football 3; Yale Tournament Medal 3, 4; Master of Ceremonies Senior Stunt Night. Washington Street School. Notre Dame University.

Moon has the unique honor of being a member of no less than seven city championship Bulkeley teams in baseball, basketball, and football—and he was a stand-out on every one. A heart-breaker, too, is Alan.

Yolanda Florence Monacchio

"Mackie"

"Let thy words be few."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3. Alfred E. Burr School.

Mackie was an industrious girl who went ahead and got things done in her own quiet way. We hope that she keeps on getting things done and we know she can.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Rose Marie Morello

"Zizi"

"Pleasure is far sweeter as a recreation than as a business."

A. A. 1, 3; Girls' League 1, 2; "Torch" Business Board 3; Golf Club 3; Ni-No-Van Club 3. St. Peter's School. New Rochelle College.

Full of fun and with lots of what it takes to make friends, "Zizi" never lacked admirers. Her few years have been just one good time after another, as many will willingly testify.

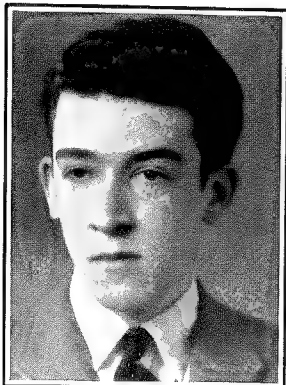

Helen Augusta Morhardt

"Mowie"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Washington Street School. New Britain Teachers College.

Helen always impressed us as a sturdy gal, the kind that would stay on her feet if she saw a mouse. She was very popular with her classmates, too.

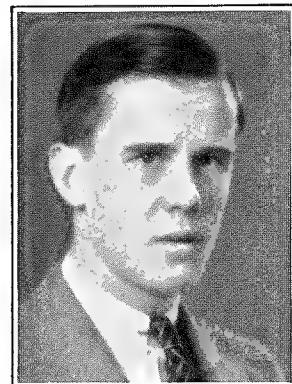

John Joseph Motto

"Jack"

"To sing, to dance, to dress."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Glee Club 2, 3; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 4; Legislative Club 4; "Torch" Business Board 4, Assistant Circulation Manager 4, Assistant Business Manager 4; Swimming Club 3. Alfred E. Burr School. Trinity College.

The "Beau Brummel" of our class, Jack is the leading member of that rollicking trio, the "Three Musketeers"—all notable for their affinity for the opposite sex.

William Allan Muirhead, Jr.

"Al"

"Silence is the herald of joy."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2; Class Historian. Southwest School.

Al holds a somewhat unique record in Bulkeley. A member of Mr. Costello's English class a whole semester, he didn't even dimple at his jokes!

Edward S. Mull

"Ed"

"Slow and sure."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Eddie is a silent fellow ordinarily, but when he has a gang in his car there is always plenty of noise—from the motor.

Florence Mildred Newcomb

"Dolly"

"Sing an old-fashioned song to a young sophisticated lady."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

Dolly is one of our most entertaining students. She has a good word for everyone and her greeting of "Hi!" is very familiar to most of us.

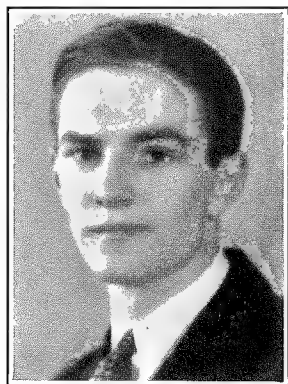

Laura Helen Niehay

"Laurie"

"In the midst of things."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Richard J. Kinsella School.

Laura has certainly had a difficult senior year with that accident she was in. When she was in the hospital all her friends felt unhappy, but when she came back a dark corner was bright again.

Edwin Francis Nolan

"Kingfish"

"He was so good he would pour water on a toad."

Art Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Biological Repertory 2, 3; Baseball 2, 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

Eddie is a scientist with a fine sense of equilibrium. He was a marvel at upsetting the teacher's poise by balancing his chair perilously on two legs while he was talking.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Maleada Eleanor Nykils

"A gentle nature, kind to all alike."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy, no demerits, never absent. Washington Street School.

Maleada is the poised intelligent girl who can always be relied on to help in any difficulty. She is a good student in Commercial studies, and should make an efficient secretary.

Catherine Marie O'Brien

"Kay"

"When Irish eyes are smiling."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4, Vice-President; Senior Orchestra 3, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. St. Peter's School. St. Joseph College.

Kay is Bulkeley's own Colleen. She might be the reason why Irish fellows stay in this country instead of "Erin Go Braugh."

Jane Marie O'Brien

"Janie"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School. Morse Business College.

Janie is a walking ad for "Pep"—a cute, curly-headed cut-up—she was the epitome of gay spirits.

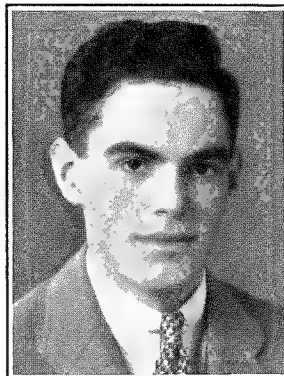

Matthew J. O'Brien

"OB"

"A friend to everyone."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

"OB" is forever laughing, either at himself or others. What the others would like to know is why he spent his recess period sitting demurely in 226.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

June Marye O'Connor

"Junie"

"She had a tongue with a tang."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

Junie, a very entertaining member of our class, willingly supported many school activities, and brightened up every social group.

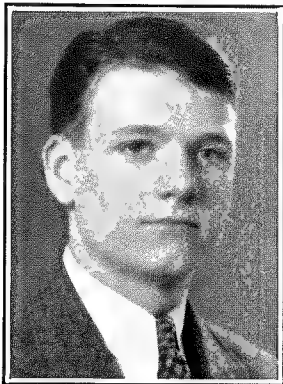

Alexander Olenick

"Sonny"

"One ear it heard—at the other out it went."

Art Club 2, 3, 4. Arsenal School. Weaver High School.

Coming from Weaver, Sonny certainly didn't resent the change. He became an ardent rooter for his new alma mater at the B. H. S.-W. H. S. clashes.

Louise Anne O'Neil

"Lou"

"Mingle your cares with pleasure now and then."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 3; Commercial Club 4; Girls' Tennis Club 2. Alfred E. Burr School. Cornell University.

Through thick and thin, Lou was one of the liveliest rooters for our team. She was active in one sport or another all the time.

Daniel Francis Orsine

"Flip"

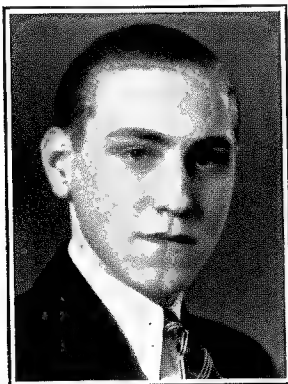

"If it's all the same to you, I'll take my time."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. Hartford Public High School. Morse Business College.

Ordinarily a down-to-earth fellow, Dan never did get down to it in Geology, for some unaccountable reason.

Ferdinand LeRoy Parmelee

"Slim"

"No man is so tall that he need not stretch."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Biology Club 2; Chess Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. Southwest School.

We don't know how "Slim" did such diversified jobs as biology, chess, and singing, but he did them well and survived the ordeal.

Irene Josephine Pastick

"I"

"Things are not always what they seem."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; History-Civics Club 4. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Irene has a fondness for athletes. At least we saw her wearing a major "B" which she didn't earn playing volley ball.

Jacquelyn Marie Peltier

"Jackie"

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest men."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 3; History-Civics Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4. Never absent, never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

If you hear a lot of noise in the corridors, you know it is only Jackie entertaining, or probably teaching the girls football. Well, maybe she is training to be a nurse.

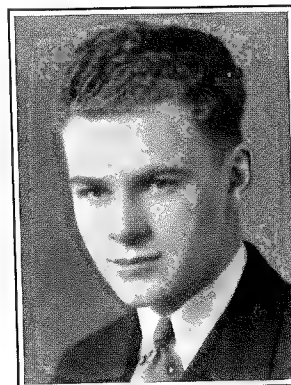

Francis Thomas Perkins

"Pepper"

"Rome was not built in a day."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Washington Street School.

According to statistics compiled by an interested spectator, "Pepper" spoke about ten pertinent words in Astronomy during a whole semester. He was star-gazing elsewhere!

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

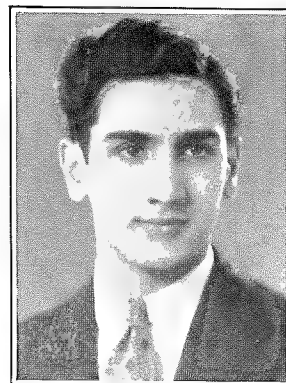

Paul Joseph Perrotta

"P. J."

"I work laboriously at doing nothing."

Freshman Choir 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 2, 3, President 3, 4; "Dial" Circulation Manager 3, Business Manager 4; Junior Usher 3. Alfred E. Burr School.

Here is another member of the Bulkeley Quartet who took part in the "Mikado" last February. We hear P. J. is a song writer of promise also.

Mario Albert Pettinella

"Pet"

"Let come what may."

A. A. 4. Washington Street School.

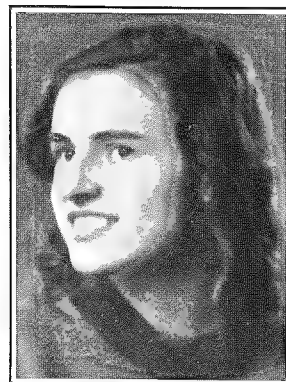

Room 226 was Pet's home roost. He is a supporter of the "Students' Union"—shorter hours—less homework. In the meantime, however, he meekly follows the prescribed rules.

Evelyn Pearl Philbrick

"Free speech is to people what waves are to oceans."

Washington Street School.

French may have been a Waterloo to some but Evelyn passed it, to the envy of everyone else. She generally knew the answer to the most unusual question, and so was perfectly justified in ignoring the rest.

Carmela Teresa Pinchera

"Molly"

"But oh, she dances such a way!"

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 3, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

Carmela—there is music in that name, and have you ever seen her dance? Perhaps you haven't noticed, for she was always surrounded with good dancing partners.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Frances Julia Pirog

"Fran"

"Taste is the next gift to genius."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4, Room Representative 1, 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Saints Cyril and Methodius School.

Fran certainly attracts attention wherever she goes. She has become one of the most important members of her Commercial Law class, supplying the back of the room with much-needed knowledge.

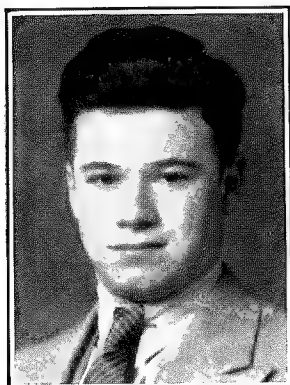

Frances Catherine Piszchata

"Giggles"

"A light heart lives long."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4. No demerits. Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Morse Business College.

Frances certainly earned the name of Giggles. Her pleasant laugh is often heard in the corridors, and sometimes pursued by "Doc" Mahoney.

Howard Leon Plant

"Shorty"

"All my work is kept a secret."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Chess Club 3, 4. Saugerties High School.

"Shorty" is a man of parts. Quiet and resourceful, he plays baseball in the afternoon and then comes to school next morning to speak eloquent French. We suspect him of hidden depths, however.

Beatrice Pollock

"Bea"

"I have a heart with room for every joy."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1; Junior Glee Club; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. Connecticut State College.

Bea has a charming personality and is a very gracious person. She is a singer of note, having had a leading part in the presentation of the "Mikado" last February.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Elinor Lucille Poreda

"El"

"How hard it is for woman to keep counsel."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; French Club 4; History-Givies Club 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Saints Cyril and Methodius School. St. Joseph College.

El is a young lady of variable moods and changing personality. Her cheerful smile, however, usually acts on people as a magnet does on steel.

Sarah Portney

"Sally"

"Art needs no spur beyond itself."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Commercial Club 3; Art Club 4; Swimming Club 2, 3. Alfred E. Burr School. Pratt Institute.

Sally, we see, aspires to become an artist. Bulkeley has produced some very good ones so far and we hope you're another, Sally.

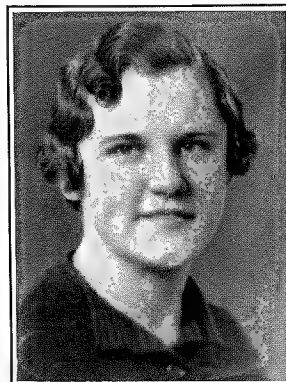

Elsie Martha Potz

"Mitzi"

"Purpose is what gives life a meaning."

Girls' League 1; Commercial Club 3. Never tardy, never absent, no demerits. Southwest School.

"Mitzi" must have a very accurate clock at home, as her attendance record shows. It will certainly be an asset in a business career.

Frieda Hilda Potz

"Free"

"Be thou of good cheer."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4; Student Council 4; Agora 2. Alfred E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

Free is one of those two-complex girls. She is quiet in school, but once outside of that institution it is an entirely different matter. Then she is seen at many parties enjoying herself immensely.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

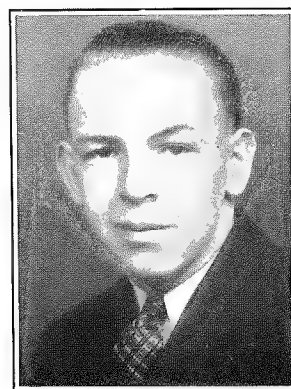

Marjorie Elizabeth Prentice

"Marge"

"The mirror of all courtesy."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; Swimming Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Upper Class Choir 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Marge has a charming way and sunny smile. She has gained the friendship of the girls and the admiration of the boys. A very nice person to have about is our Marge.

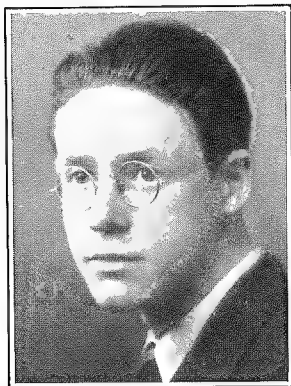

Robert William Prentice

"Scotty"

"Four years—four drops of time."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

A symphony of perpetual motion, "Scotty" is always bouncing around. Also he gained the distinction of being the first to translate Mr. Swaye's trig explanations.

Matthew H. Press

"Red"

"Not much talk—a great sweet silence."

A. A. 1; Boys' Club 1; Edison Club 4, Vice-President 4; Radio Club 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

"Red" is an amateur chemist both in school and out. In him, also, Mr. Hart discovered that rare species—an excellent business student.

Elizabeth Daisy Pressey

"Betty"

"Serene amidst the savage waves."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, President 4; Inter-High Orchestra 4; Senior Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Junior Orchestra 1; "Dial" Business Board 3, 4; Honor Society 4. Washington Street School. Boston University.

Betty is a girl of great endurance. She amply proved it when she convinced all her friends that it was their solemn duty to buy the "Dial."

Constance Maclure Rae

"Bun"

"Happiness is a rare cosmetic."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4, Secretary 4; Agora 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Rockville High School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

A very vivacious friend is our "Bun". Her girl friends are longing to know the secret of her perpetual cheerfulness and pep.

Rosalie Mary Rafferty

"Ro"

"Eyes too expressive to be blue
Too lovely to be gray."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 4; Junior-Senior Prom Committee 3; "Torch" Editorial Board 4. No demerits. Washington Street School. St. Francis Training School.

Rosalie has certainly made her senior year a successful one as well as a joyful one. She is the young lady who helped to cheer up the members of the class when everything seemed to go wrong. By the way, Rosalie, wouldn't some movie actress love to have your beautiful gray-green eyes?

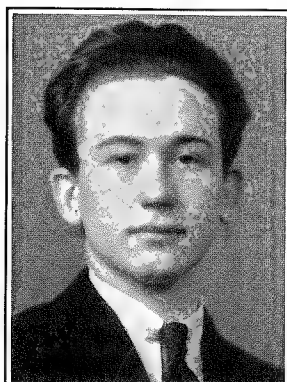

Josephine Elizabeth Ragonese

"Jo"

"Silence is a friend that will never betray."

Girls' League. Never tardy, no demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Jo's closest friends never quite understood her quiet mysterious ways. She takes life seriously, and we hear she intends to enter an impressive business school.

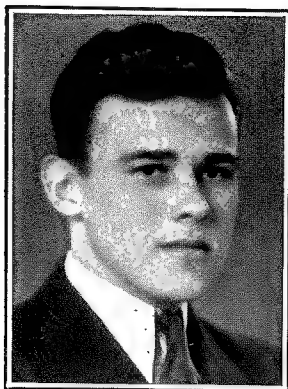

G. Julius Reale

"Time never lies heavy on his hands."

Radio Club 3, 4, President 4; Edison Club 3, 4, Fifth Member 4. Bloomfield High School, New Jersey.

You will probably hear of Julius later on the technical side of the radio field. He carries about unassumingly an amazing amount of knowledge on this subject.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

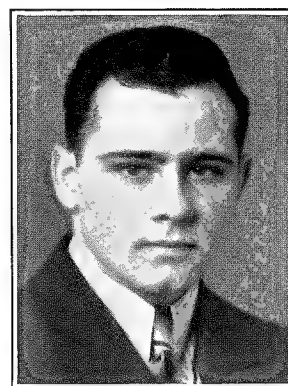

John Joseph Redys "Punjab"

"The long and short of it."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 4; A Cappella Choir 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Edison Club 4; History-Civics Club 4; Football 3, 4, Letter 4, Sweater 4; Basketball 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4, Co-Captain 4, Letters 3, 4, Gold Wingfoot 3; Class Marshal. Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Rutgers University.

Punjab is as big as his nickname indicates. A member of this year's championship football team, he also set a new school record in the discus throw as a member of the track team. His voice and his talent as a comedian made him the sensation of "The Mikado."

Salvatore Anthony Regina

"Sal"

"All is not gold that glitters."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3; Golf Team 2, 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School. Rider College.

Sal is a great one for exercising his voice. A smart dresser, he has a penchant for flashy ties and white sweaters.

Concetta Felicia Renna

"Connie"

"There are no rules for felicity."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Junior Glee Club 1; Commercial Club 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4. Washington Street School.

Connie would make the perfect secretary for any business man. She is one of those rare persons who know what to do and when to do it.

Louise Rita Resony

"Lou"

"He that hath knowledge spareth his word."

Girls' League 1, 2; French Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President-Secretary 4; Typing Staff of "Dial" 4; Commercial Club 4; Second Scholarship Prize in 1935. Never tardy, no demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Lou is one of our honor students. Although she stands high in her studies, she always has time for other activities. Tell us the secret, Lou.

Letitia Rettie

"Tish"

"Happy-go-lucky, fair and free, nothing there is that bothers me."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 2, 3, 4, Advertising Manager 3, Assistant Business Manager 4; Girls' Golf Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School. State Teachers College.

Tish is one of the golf champs of the school—but just the same don't mention the water hole at Goodwin Park to her. She was the one who kept M— busy in 226 during recess.

Benjamin Davis Reynolds "Doc Pepys"

"A man of letters and wit."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Parnassus Club 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4, Secretary 3; Debating Club 4, Treasurer 4; History-Civics Club 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4, Humor Staff 4, Associate Editor 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 4, Associate Editor 4; Tennis 3; Track Squad 3; "Dial" Christmas Story Prize 2; Senior Nominating Committee; Class Treasurer; Editor-in-Chief of Class Book. Alfred E. Burr School. Lafayette University.

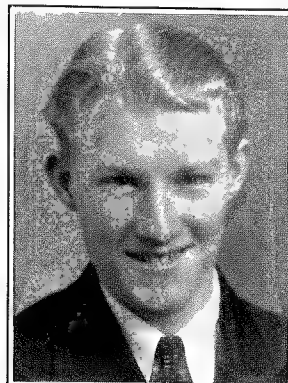

Ben showed his literary ability throughout his high school career in both our Bulkeley publications and then, of course, as editor of this Class Book. Don't forget, Ben, "the pen is mightier than the sword."

Ray Palmer Reynolds

"He pleases all the world but cannot please himself."

Boys' Club 4; Debating Club 3, 4; Parnassus Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3; Legislative Club 3, 4, Speaker 4, Treasurer 4; "Dial" 1, 2, 3, 4, Freshman Editor 1, Sports Editor 3, 4, Assistant Editor 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; Tennis 3, 4; Student Council 1; Junior Usher 3; Honor Society 4; Class Testator. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Wesleyan University.

Gifted with a literary touch, Ray has turned out some marvelously clever poems and short stories for the "Dial." What the girls would like to know is why he blushes so easily.

William Edward Reynolds, Jr.

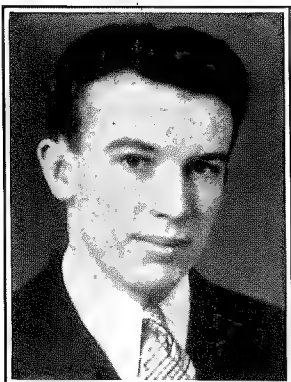

"Bud"

"Good humor is always a success."

A. A. 1, 2, 3. Alfred E. Burr School.

"Bud" is an exceptionally cheerful fellow. His profuse puns had varying success, but we think his final scholarship average is pretty high.

Leland Francis Rhode

"Lee"

"He's a sure card."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; "Dial" Business Board 4; Assistant Football Manager 4; Track 3, 4. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Trinity College.

That man backstage at the Dramatic Club performances carrying a hammer and wearing a pair of overalls and a gloomy expression was Lee Rhode. He used the hammer to repair scenery and the gloomy expression to scare the actors still more.

Julia Adele Righetto

"Jul"

"The days that make us happy make us wise."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 2, 3; French Club 3, 4; "Dial" Business Board 3. Never absent, never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School. Saint Joseph College.

Jul is one young lady who is always busy. We don't know whether the "Fifty Million Frenchmen" would understand her French, but it was good enough for us.

Patricia Ann Rita

"Patty"

"Beauty without grace is the hook without the bait."

Girls' League 1. Dr. James H. Naylor School. School of American Ballet.

We often wonder how such a tiny person as Patty could do such a multitude of things so well. Besides school work, she taught classes in all kinds of dancing. Her own dancing ability made her the stellar attraction of any program.

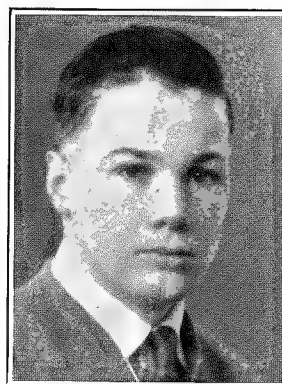

Laurence T. Roath

"Larry"

"I do as I please."

A. A. 1, 2. Southwest School.

"Babe" Allen has an almost unending supply of make-up hours to hand out to deserving ones, but Larry taxed his supply to the utmost without once displaying any annoyance.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Joseph W. Roberts, Jr.

"Joe"

"What's the use of worrying?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

One of the best dancers in the class, Joe is more at home on a dance floor with a good partner than at his desk in school.

Helen Anne Rode

"Let your own discretion be your tutor."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. West Middle School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

Helen always seemed to us to be a little bored with school. We think, though, that most of the boredom was assumed to hide something. What about it, Helen?

J. Edward Roehl

"Ed"

"Nothing is known without proof."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2; Dramatic Club 4; Radio Club 4, Vice-President 4; Junior Usher 3; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Washington Street School. R. C. A. Institute.

Science is Eddie's "piece de resistance." His favorite remark is "Aw, go smash an atom." Maybe he will do it some day.

Cecilia Mary Ryan

"Cel"

"Friendliness is the wine of life."

Girls' League 1; Ni-No-Van Club 2, 3, Secretary 3. No demerits. St. Peter's School.

Cel is one of the busier members of the Ni-No-Van Club. A good cook commands many things, so Cel is already a half-way success.

Anne Elizabeth Scott

"She needs no eulogy—she speaks for herself."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 3; History-Civics Club 4. No demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School. Wheaton College.

This sweet diminutive person with the laughing Irish eyes and a little bit of blarney from the same isle is one of Bulkeley's best tap dancers. Who knows—Anne may be one of the bright stars over Broadway by and by.

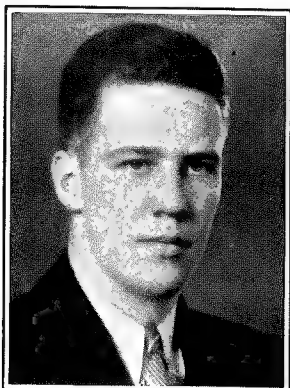

Frances Elizabeth Schiavone

"Funzi"

"Pleasure and action make the hours seem short."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

"Funzi" is one young lady with a "way" with her—a way that gets her plenty of friends and admirers of both sexes.

George Henry Selig

"Bob"

"The man that speaks but never talks."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Track 3, 4. Southwest School. Notre Dame University.

One of our dressy Romeos, he damaged feminine hearts as well as the desks in Mr. O'Leary's law class.

John Michael Sena

"Johnny"

"It is the ace that wins."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Freshman Football 1; Varsity Football 3, 4, Letter 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

That flash of the Bulkeley grid-arena
And an all-right fellow is Johnny Sena.

James William Shannon

"Jim"

"Tall oaks from little acorns grow."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 4. St. Peter's School. Fordham University.

Jimmy is neat and capable both in the classroom and between second and third base. A "broth of a bye," to be sure.

Anne Marie Shea

"Her talent is to serve."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4, Assistant Director 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Executive Committee 3, Vice-President 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Agora 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4. No demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Anne has a perfect mania for directing everything and everyone. She does it well, however, and has ably seconded Mr. Costello in the production of the last two Dramatic Club plays. A very useful person is our Anne.

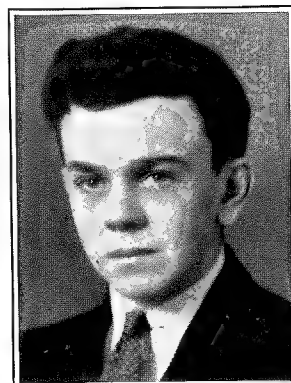

Clare Joseph Sheehan

"Joe"

"You are wholly experimental."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 2, 3; Legislative Club 4; Tennis 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School. Holy Cross College.

Even back in grammar school, Clare was drawing "les femmes." Bulkeley has greatly improved his technique in this field.

Raffaella Marie Josephine Sica

"Whatever anyone else does or says I must be good."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Raffaella's presence is felt rather than heard. The smile which she uses to attract her friends has become popular among all her classmates.

Angela Emelia Sidor

"Nellie"

"Study to be quiet."

Girls' League 3. Never tardy, no demerits. Saints Cyril and Methodius School.

Nellie was the quiet element in Mr. Weaver's chem class. We always thought that she expected something to explode. When she was called upon, she usually knew the answer, however.

Anna Marie Skelley

"Skel"

"A good pal for all times."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 4; Student Council 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4; Agora 4. Alfred E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

Skel is quiet in school, but we doubt her lack of fluency outside of classes. She is sure to be seen at the school entertainments.

Alice Gertrude Skinner

"Al"

"Not much talk—a great sweet silence."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2; Commercial Club 3; Honor Society 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Washington Street School.

Al is a girl who seldom speaks first, but when addressed she has a smile and an encouraging word for the shorthand and typing students, especially. Her quiet ways have made her a flock of friends.

Stephanie Teresa Skwara

"Stella"

"A good conscience speaks out."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; History-Civics Club 3; Commercial Club 3, 4. Never absent, never tardy. Washington Street School.

Stella was a pal to many, for she always came to school with her homework prepared and ready to lend. Her art of balance is also well known in the gym.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Alice M. Smith

"A light heart lives long."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. Alfred Plant Junior High School.

Alice is one of the girls classed as "good sports." She is popular—and not only among the girls. Her pet hobby is writing whenever she is able.

Euphemia Forsyth Smith

"Effie"

"Such joy ambition finds."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 1, 2; French Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; History-Civics Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Effie takes her studies rather seriously but she's a good pal, always willing to help anyone. Her Scotch twang was often heard answering many of the difficult Democracy questions.

Janet Veronica Smith

"Smitty"

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

Girls' League 4; History-Civics Club 2; Tennis Club 3; Swimming Club 3, 4. East Hartford High School.

"Smitty" has a smile that makes you stop and want to talk to her. Our thanks to East Hartford for sending you to Bulkeley, Janet.

Louise Madeline Sobol

"Lulu"

"In listening mood she seems to understand."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4; Commercial Club 4; History-Civics Club 4. Hartford Public High School.

Lulu is one of the reserved girls who impressed us as doing lots of thinking and little talking. Anyone with these two unmistakably fine qualities should go far.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

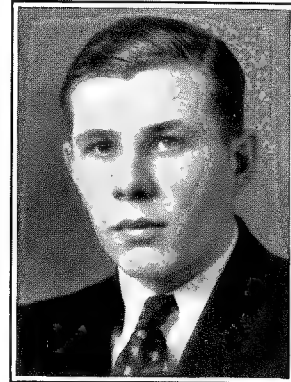

Florence E. Sonnenberg

"Fluffy"

"She needs no eulogy—she speaks for herself."

Scribblers' Magazine 1, 2, Essay Editor 2; Glee Club 1, 2; Orchestra 1, 2; Editorial Board, School Paper 1, 2 (Berlin High); Girls' League 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 4. No demerits. Berlin High School.

"Fluffy" comes to us from Berlin High where she was a literary light on the school paper. Full of pep, vim, and vigor, she is indeed a welcome addition to our class.

Julius Michael Sopelak

"He that hath knowledge spareth his words."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. Never absent, never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Sopelak possessed to a degree the valuable assets of gravity and earnestness. He seldom talked much but when he had to, he could do it well.

Josephine Maria Speck

"Toots"

"Happiness is a habit—cultivate it."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Immaculate Conception School. Bay Path Institute.

Jo is very full of school spirit. She went to all the school dances and games seeking subscriptions to the "Torch" and "Dial." A person to warm the cockles of a canvasser's heart was Jo.

Mary Helen Spera

"Red"

"—and her hair is red."

Girls' League 2. St. Peter's School.

"Red" is indeed a suitable nickname for Mary, for her hair is truly her crowning glory, and the envy of every other girl in the class. We shall always remember you, "Red."

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Rose Marie Sposito "Ro"

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Swimming Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

That rattle and bang in the corridor outside 232 wasn't the janitor cleaning up—it was just Rose. Rose went in for all sports in a big way and was very adept at them all.

Lucille Marie Stapleton "Lu"

"Vivacity is the gift of women."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4. No demerits. Mamaroneck High School. Morse Business College.

Lu was always in demand at dances. Not only was she a nifty dancer, but she also possessed a vivacious personality more commonly called "a gift of gab."

Beatrice Louise Starace "Bee"

"For the good are always the merry."

Girls' League 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Hartford Public High School.

Although Bee joined our class only recently, she soon became known as a good sport and a cheerful friend.

Ruth Elizabeth Starbuck "Woffie"

"She is a jolly good sport in everything."

Glee Club 3; Home Economics Club 2, 3, 4; Nature Club 1; Chester A. A. 1, 2, 3. Chester High School, Chester, Virginia.

Although "Woffie" has been with us less than a year, she has gained many friends. Our only regret is that you didn't come earlier, "Woffie."

Ingeborg Hildegard Steding
"Inge"

"Let come what may."

Commercial Club 4. Richard J. Kinsella School.

For some unknown reason Ingeborg never could get a certain subject. Her appearance was always heralded with, "Let me take your Business."

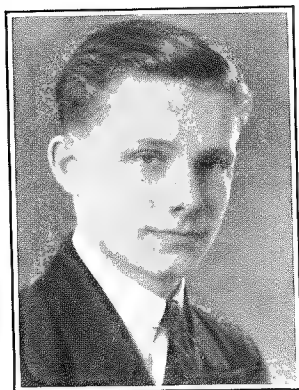

Mary Alice Stella

"Better the last smile than the first laughter."

Girls' League 1; Tennis Club 2, 3; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. Washington Street School.

Mary never did understand those things called angles in geometry—but nevertheless she kept her composure and emerged with a better sense of humor than before.

Milton Eugene Stewart
"Stewey"

"Difficulties are things that show what men are."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Junior Usher; Honor Society 4. Never absent, never tardy. Chauncey Harris School.

"Stewey" is merely a contraction of Stewart, not a description. An honor man, you see, may be Stewey, but certainly not stewey.

Rena Josephine Stockwell
"Jo"

"Small, but oh my!"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club; Girls' Swimming Club 3; Upper Class Choir 3; Commercial Club 3, President 4; "Dial" Advertising Board 4; Scribblers' Club 4; Agora 4; History-Civics Club 3; Class Banker 2, 3; "Torch" Editorial Board 4, Secretary 4; Class Book Typist; Gregg Transcription Test; Color and Motto Committee. Southwest School.

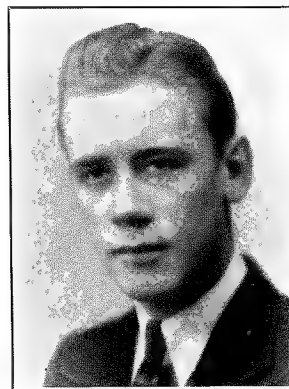

Jo packed more sparkling wit and vivacity into her scant five feet than many a six-footer. Her voice will echo for a long time in Bulkeley when she is gone.

Whitney David Stromberg

"Let each man have the wit to go his own way."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 3, 4; Boys' Golf Club 3. Washington Street School.

Hitting a golf ball across the fairways is Whitney's recreation and hobby all rolled up in one. When the golfing season wasn't on, he could generally be found at the dances.

Marguerite Virginia Strong

"Peggy"

"It is tranquil people who accomplish much."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4; Classical Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Honor Society; Tennis Club 3; "Torch" Business Board 2, Advertising Manager 3, Assistant Business Manager 3, 4, Business Manager 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's School.

Peggy has a pleasing personality and an enviable ability to sell ads for the "Torch." She can give lessons to that fellow who wrote "Salesmanship in Ten Easy Lessons."

H. Anita Sullivan

"Love's labor lost, but—"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4, President 4; Swimming Club 3; History-Civics Club 4. Never tardy, no demerits. St. Peter's School.

Anita is a rare kind of girl—one whom everyone wants to know—and once knowing her considers himself lucky. At the dances Anita never lacked for escorts.

John Augustine Sullivan

"Sully"

"Come and get it!"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Track Team 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

Sully's middle initial may not be "L" but he certainly was very pugnacious. Once, however, he received a shock which shook him to his very foundations—he made a 97 in a Business test!

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Doris Mae Sweet

"Dot"

"Still water runs deep."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Student Council 1. Never tardy, no demerits. Southwest School.

Dot never had to look far for a motto to guide herself by. She had it in her own name.

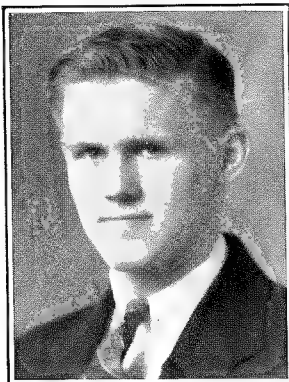

Helen Angela Sycz

"Peggy"

"The secret of success is constancy to purpose."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Saints Cyril and Methodius School.

Helen is a girl who never failed to have her lessons prepared. Her scholastic standing is ample reward for her efforts.

Edward John Szelc

"Eddie"

"A good mind possesses a kingdom."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. Saints Cyril and Methodius School.

Eddie had the knack of losing himself in a classroom. He was a reliable student and a good fellow everywhere. Here's our wish for success, Eddie!

Ellison Elizabeth Tasillo

"Billie"

"Life is what you make it."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3. Never tardy. Southwest School. Bryant Business College.

Billie is the girl who always carries a sunny smile with her. She seems just chock full of reckless exuberance. Wherever you find laughter, you find Billie.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

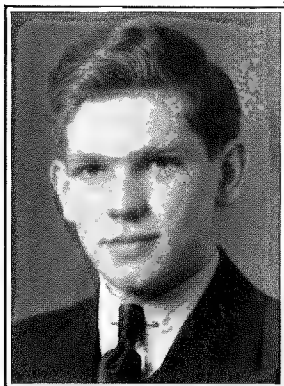

Elizabeth Marie Theriault

"Betty"

"As merry as the day is long."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 3, 4. Never tardy, no demerits. St. Ann's School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

Betty's most important achievement was to keep session room 233 in an uproar. We hear she succeeded in her classes, too. We can't help but admire her friendliness and call her a good pal.

Irving Burton Torgan

"Irv"

"My only books are women's looks,
And, believe me, I just love to study!"

A. A. 1, 4; Boys' Club 4. Southwest School. Army Air School.

Irving made more than one feminine heart go pitter-patter. He's one of the "Beau Brummels" of our class.

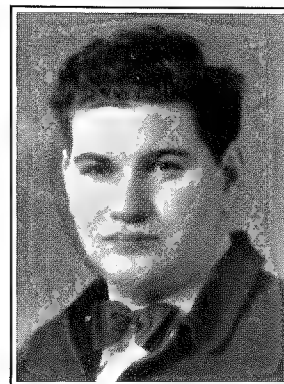

William S. Toubman

"Will"

"Then he will talk—ye gods, how he will talk."

History-Civics Club 2, 3; Legislative Club 3, 4, Secretary 4, Charter Member; "Torch" Editorial Board 3. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Worcester Tech.

Undoubtedly we have been harboring a future big business man in our midst. Will has all the appearance of a Wall Street broker.

Loretta Ann Tracey

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Literary Club 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Loretta's bright smile and sparkling eyes made her everybody's friend—a real friend, too. As for fun, she can't be surpassed.

Lucille Anne Tremblay

"Lu"

"Always happy, always gay, glad to see her come our way."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1; Girls' Leaders Corps 3; French Club 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Boston University.

Lu may be a quiet girl but she must have had a powerful magnet somewhere about her, for members of the football squad (and others too) were attracted to her in large numbers.

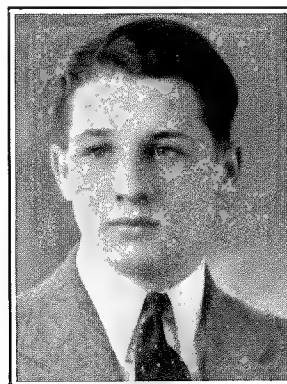

Roland Edwin Tubbs

"Ronnie"

"What's the use of worrying?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Senior Nominating Committee; Football 3, 4. Bennett High School. University of Buffalo.

Ronnie was never one of the deciding forces at a football game, but the crowd always yelled, "We want Tubbs!" Maybe it's that thing called personality.

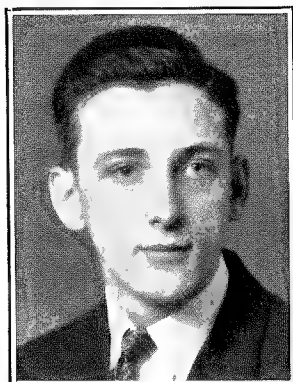

George A. Turner

"The smile that was child-like and bland."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Basketball 3; Interclass Basketball 4. St. Peter's School.

George is a useful player to have about a chalked court. He had a habit of obstructing aisle traffic with his long legs. We have yet to see the person who can see over his head at assemblies.

Mary Louise Urban

"Silence is the sanctuary of truth."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4. Never tardy. Saints Cyril and Methodius School. Hartford Secretarial School.

Mary has a certain poise and dignity which is admirable. Although she looks like a typical home girl, her appearance tells only half the story. We know for a fact that she has a very good head for business.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

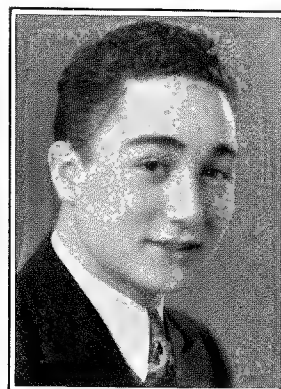

Leo A. Ventimiglio

"Venty"

"Practice makes perfect."

Track 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Leo is one of our star trackmen—with the "100" as his specialty. He almost made a rut in the cinder path this spring with his constant practicing. We hope you become a "ten second" man, Leo.

Hildegard Charlotte Wagline

"Hilda"

"The hand that follows intellect can achieve."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Executive Committee 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1; Honor Society 4; "Torch" Business Board 2, 3, 4, Circulation Manager 3, Assistant Advertising Manager. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Outstanding in classrooms, Hilda was also outstanding in clubrooms. We never found her wanting in any task set for her. Her whole personality spells success.

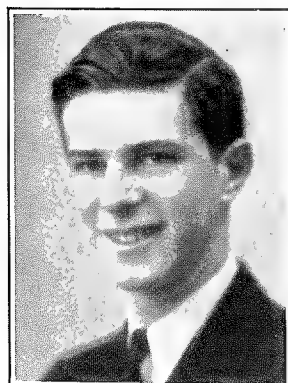

Dorothy Waldman

"Dot"

"The very pink of perfection."

Girls' League 1, 2; Agora 2, 3, 4; French Club 2, 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; Member of Order of Gregg Artists. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Dot presented a very composed appearance but we doubt if it went very far beneath the surface. To have so many friends, she certainly must be vivacious.

Harold Frederick Walz, Jr.

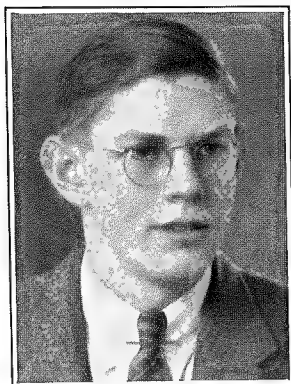

"Jim"

"The present fashion is always handsome."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Radio Club 2, 3. Southwest School. Holy Cross College.

Although Jim was taller than a great many at Bulkeley, he never gave any indication of feeling above us. Neither did he ever seem to worry. Perhaps that is the secret of his success.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

William Carter Weeks

"Modesty is the color of virtue."

A. A. 1, 2; Boys' Club 1. Southwest School.

Biff is one of those fellows with his head in the clouds, but not because his head doesn't fit his hat. You see he stands six feet plus!

Charles Scott Whalen

"Smile, darn you, smile!"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Biological Repertory 2, 3, Secretary 2; Edison Club 4. St. Peter's School.

Charley is the great big man with the great big frown. But don't let that fool you; it's just surface (maybe to scare the ladies). He's a nice fellow, and he can smile.

Donald Webster Wheeler

"Don"

"His cares are now all ended."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Biological Repertory 2, 3, 4, Editor of Biological Paper 4; Art Club 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

"East is east and west is west"—but not to Don in commercial geography. He never could understand why soy beans grew in Louisiana when anyone should have known they came from China. He also had a monopoly on the correcting of Mr. Swaye's Trig papers.

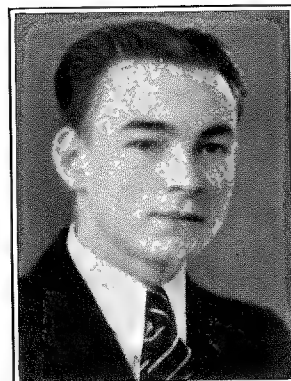

John George Whinnem

"Red"

"Truly he is a genius."

Art Club 4; Boys' Club 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; Co-Art Editor of Class Book. Never absent, never tardy. Washington Street School.

"Red" has gained quite a reputation as an artist while at Bulkeley. His quiet manner conceals a very active dry sense of humor.

William H. White

"Billy"

"Merit is worthier than fame."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Honor Society 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Reserve and quiet characterize this lad, but in a crowd Billy can hold his own. He is a great favorite with both his classmates and the faculty.

Ethel Marguerite Whittaker

"Marg"

"Industry in study paves the way to a successful career."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 2, 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; French Club 4; Honor Society 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Agora 2. Never tardy, no demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Connecticut College.

We can't help but admire Marguerite's industry. There seems to be no limit to her desire for knowledge. But with all her extra subjects, Marguerite still found time for an active social career.

Hope Whittingham

"Hopie"

"She's witty to talk with and pretty to walk with."

A. A. 1, 3; Girls' League 4. New Park Avenue School.

Our "Girl with the Dreamy Eyes". Hope is intensely interested in tennis—or it is your partner, Hope?

Helen Jane Wilkin

"Didd"

"Art needs no spur beyond itself."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 3. Alfred E. Burr School. Pratt Institute.

As genius will have it, this talented young lady will surely succeed. Her artistic endeavors always provoked the admiration and envy of her fellow Bulkeleyites.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Marcia Rebecca Williams

"Marsh"

"Sweet reasonableness."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3; French Club 3, 4, Treasurer 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 3. Never tardy, no demerits. Arsenal School. Talledega.

Marsh has a winning personality and gay smile. Her dark brown curls and big brown eyes were the envy of all the other girls at Bulkeley. In speaking of Marsh one always says, "Nice girl."

Frances Ellen Wilsberg

"Frannie"

"Mind cannot follow it, nor words express
Her infinite sweetness."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4; "Torch" Typist 4; Class Book Typist; Honor Society 4. No demerits, never tardy. Dr. James H. Naylor School. St. Joseph College.

Those people who say that sweetness isn't natural nowadays have the denial right here. Frannie is that rare kind of person who can make a friend today and still have him tomorrow.

Barbara Jean Wilson

"Skipper"

"Light hearts breed good cheer."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. William H. Hall High School. Cambridge Secretarial School.

"Skipper" is one of Bulkeley's fairest golfers. For that matter, she's tops in everything. She was quite an asset to any school dance. Ask the boys.

Hubert James Wilson

"Hube"

"Music is the poetry of the air."

Glee Club 1; Legislative Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Hube is an accomplished musician, playing both the piano and the xylophone. He used to flourish some "dictionary" words in class, too.

Roma Sharp Wilson

"Anything but a quiet life."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Classical Club 3, 4; Literary Club 4; Dramatic Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4, Treasurer 4. Southwest School. Lasell College.

Roma is a nonchalant sort of person who doesn't care for many people. Just the same she had plenty of friends, and we all know she will be a great sport at Lasell next year.

Irene Marie Winalski

"I"

"Dress is the index of your content."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Literary Club 4, Secretary 4; Scribblers' Club 3, 4, President 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Honor Society 4, Secretary 4; Editorial Board of Class Book. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

Irene never attempted to make a list of her friends, for they were too numerous to get on paper. Even writing "grinds" for the Class Book failed to dampen her spirits. The Board will never forget that quotation she picked for a certain classmate.

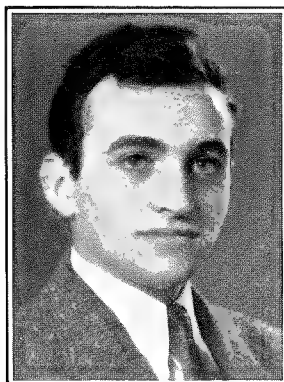

Natalie Joan Yedzinak

"Nat"

"Good things should be praised."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 1, 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4, President 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Agora 3; Senior Nominating Committee; "Torch" Editorial Board 3; Business Board of Class Book. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's School.

With sparkling personality that made her the friend and confidante of everyone, Nat was one of the most prominent girls of our class in extra-curricular activities. She had that enviable "knack" of doing and saying the right thing.

Charles Duncan Yetman

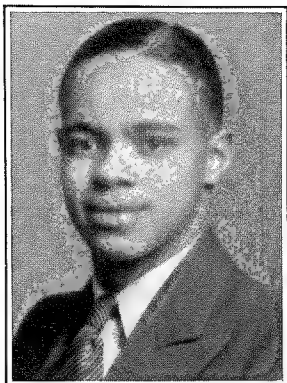

"Dunc"

"The mind is the man."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Parnassus Club 3, 4; Junior Usher. No demerits. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

Dunc is probably the most studious chap in our large class. A's to him were monotonous affairs—something to be taken as a matter of course. He was a friendly fellow, though, and the rest of us weren't envious.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

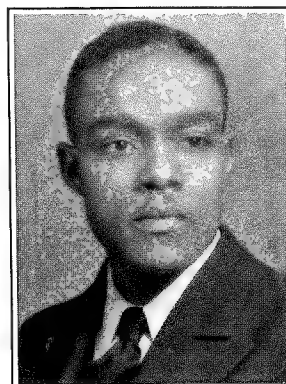

Aubert Maurice Young

"Aurbie"

"Get thee behind me, Satan and push!"

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Football Squad 3; Basketball Squad 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Captain Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 4, Numerals 1, 2, 3, 4. Dr. James H. Naylor School. Hampton Institute.

Aurbie early appointed himself official class devil, and how he deviled the teachers! He's a swell fellow, though.

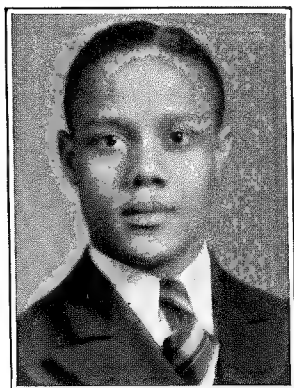

James Logan Young

"Jim"

"His smile is sweetened by his gravity."

Boys' Club 4; Upper Class Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, Assistant Librarian; Art Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Track 2, 4; Tennis Squad 1; Interclass Basketball 1, 2; Letter for Track 4. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Jim participated in school activities and athletics, but we'll remember him for his fine voice.

Virgil J. Young

"Virge"

"Enthusiasm is the genius of sincerity."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Legislative Club 4, President-Speaker 4; Boys' Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Glee Club 1; "Torch" Business Board 2, Editorial Board 4; "Dial" Business Board 4; Honor Society 4; Edison Club 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Varsity Track 2, 3, 4; Football Squad 4; Interclass Basketball 2, 3; Tennis Squad 1. Dr. James H. Naylor School. Chicago University.

One of the busiest in the class, Virge always had plenty of time to make friends. He was a regular fellow and had the knack of getting along with everybody. Virge is a capable man and should do very well in later life.

Max Sidney Zaretsky

"Chub"

"How firm a foundation."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Parnassus Club 3, 4, President 4; Legislative Club 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; Honor Society 4, Treasurer 4; Business Manager of Class Book 4; Tennis Squad 3, 4; Junior Usher 3; Chemistry Medal 4. Alfred E. Burr School. Trinity College.

Max is well known to his fellow classmates for his infectious smile. Terrific puns, and four A's regularly on every report card. He seems to be one of those lucky people who are bound to succeed in whatever they undertake.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Helen Irene Zembroski "Jeanie"

"Softly speak and sweetly smile."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1. Hartford Public High School. Morse Business College.

Jeanie seems to be a living example of the sweet and charming heroine the novelists write pages about. We are sure she helps Mother with the housework. If so, it makes us like her better.

Josephine Anna Rose Zito "Dolly"

"A gentle spirit makes the lady."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; French Club 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy, no demerits. Dr. James H. Naylor School. Boston University.

Joe is our feminine counterpart of Eddie Duchin. Whenever there was a call for an excellent musician, one always thought of "Dolly." She accompanied Patty Ann Rita, our famous dancer.

Anna Ethel Zwick "Ann"

"May the smile on the face be a reflection of the feeling in the heart."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Biology Club 2; Commercial Club 3. Washington Street School.

Ann was noted in Bulkeley for her nice clothes, blond hair, and irresistible smile. Her smile was for everyone, although we know of someone who wishes it were for him alone. Only once have we seen Ann without a smile, during one of Mr. Wilson's monthly geology tests.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

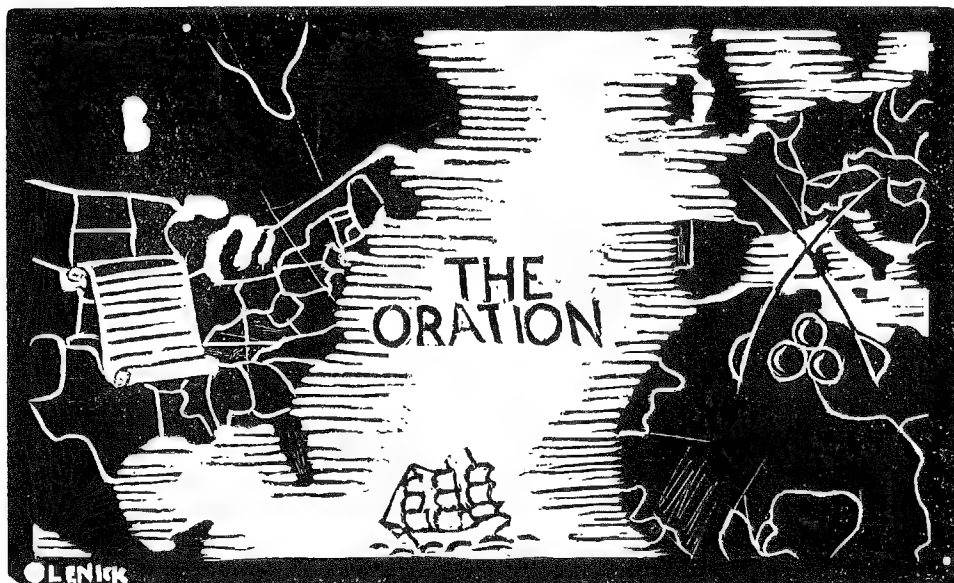

Parents, Teachers, and Friends:

In the fulfillment of a traditional policy established in the early years of Bulkeley High School, we are met here tonight to bring to an appropriate close, our eventful years spent in this institution. We believe that your presence here is an indication of your sustained interest in our welfare. For our own part, this evening is one which we have long since awaited anxiously, and one which we shall long remember.

Our days here were spent not alone in the pursuit of learning and truth, but also in sports and extra-curricular activities which mean so much to the American high school youth. Here the fundamental principles of self-control and obedience to authority were instilled in our life. Here we formed priceless friendships which found their wellsprings in our common problems and their permanency in our abiding loyalty to each other.

Tonight we meet to celebrate informally the end of our high school career, and in a serio-comic effort, to re-live our past and to delve into our future. We would also honor our Alma Mater on this, her Tenth Anniversary. Catching our inspiration from her splendid and sympathetic faculty, we wish to leave behind us all petty, narrow and selfish thoughts, and to be animated this evening by the ideals and indomitable spirit with which our teachers have inspired us. And so, on behalf of the largest class to be graduated from Bulkeley High School, distinguished also for having retained 78 percent of its original membership, I bid you parents, teachers, and friends a most cordial welcome to our Class Night Exercises.

MARTIN J. DESMOND

Democracy vs. Dictatorship

ONE of the most striking and deplorable occurrences of recent history has been the decline of democracy. It is, in truth, a sad thought that people have allowed themselves to be seized in the firm grip of dictatorship, while the liberty for which their fathers fought and died dwindles away. Contrast the youth of Europe after the Napoleonic Wars and the youth of Europe today. In that stormy period more than a century ago which gave new birth to tyranny and mismanagement, a cry rose for freedom, freedom for the nation and hence for the individual. Today, in Italy young Fascists submit whole-heartedly to Mussolini, obeying his dictates without hesitation or question; in Germany the Nazi youth surrender their bodies and souls to Hitler that he may use them as puppets to establish a Nordic empire; in Russia the very lives of all are in the hands of Stalin and a half dozen leaders of the Communist party. This is indeed a striking deterioration, especially when one naturally believes that the last thing youth will do is submit to infringement upon their natural rights. Is democracy then abortive? I do not believe it is. Witness the advance of America in one hundred and fifty years, an advance made possible through democracy, in respect to her standards of living, her education, her religion, her industry and commerce, and all forms of art, science, and culture. Could such improvement have taken place under a dictatorship where the common people are practically powerless?

The totalitarian state, that is, the state in which extreme absolutism is practiced by a dictator or a party, is obnoxious to the general name of Americans. In a dictatorship emphasis is laid upon strength and power, autocratic discipline, and slavish obedience. Witness the recent drive in Germany against the Jews which culminated in an anti-Semitic outburst. Freedom of speech, press, and assembly, the hard-won rights of man, have been compelled to conform to Nazi dictates and ideals. Both the Lutheran and Catholic churches have also felt the heavy pressure of Nazi control.

From an entirely different point of view, we may inquire how safe a dictatorship is for any nation in the long run. This form of government usually hinges upon a single dominant personality—as, for instance, Mussolini, who finds delight in facing the camera, displaying his imperial grandeur; or Hitler, who thinks he alone is destined to lift Germany from the disgrace of the last war; or Stalin, whose promise of a Utopian Russia always seems to be five years away. What if one of these dictators should die? Even these mighty are mortal, so mortal indeed that Hitler and Mussolini, like the typical American gangster, are never seen without a group of bodyguards trailing their steps like faithful dogs. If one of these supermen should die, what would happen? Why, his government would go toppling down like a child's pile of blocks, for the dictator is so dominant that there is no chance for a successor to emerge.

The common fallacy exists that citizens in a dictatorship are allowed to vote for whomever they please. On the contrary, voting "has been reduced to the possibility of approving deputies selected by a small group of powerful men." View the corruptness of the elections in Germany held in April of this year. Hitler received a vote of confidence from almost 99 percent of the people. Why? Because Hitler was the only one for whom the people were voting, and those who did not cast their ballot for der Fuehrer risked their lives!

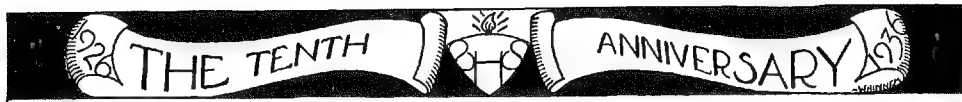

To be sure, many are the cries that democracy is corrupt. Perhaps it is, but does it follow, therefore, that one man entrusted with the superhuman responsibility of a dictator and responsible to no superior power is less corrupt? I grant that we can find many mistakes in democracy, as in any form of government, but we do not make the mistake of settling disputes, such as the recent strike in New York, by bloodshed and loss of life. We do not compel youths of ten to don uniform and seize gun. It takes a Fascist regime to do that. You mothers, think of the horror of having your sons taught almost from the cradle the rules of the most destructive game on earth—war; of having inculcated in them a desire to kill their own brothers! We can truly be thankful we are living in a democracy where such fears do not exist. In England, certainly one of the most democratic nations on earth, in Hyde Park a person may talk about anything under the sun with full protection of the government. The reason is thus: if he talks himself out, he is not dangerous. We have often seen such orators on our own street corners. How far would they get, or rather, how long would they live, in Rome denouncing Il Duce, in Berlin criticising der Fuehrer, or in Moscow speaking against the evils of Communism? In such places I could not even be delivering this speech.

As I have previously implied, despotism is a blight on all forms of culture, on industry and commerce, on literature and philosophy, on religion and morals. Do we wish to have the progress of civilization along all these lines, as well as free speech, free press, free action, and free right to assemble for public discussions, sacrificed by adopting a dictatorial form of government? I hope we are not foolish enough to renounce our democratic rights, those rights which make it possible for us, the people, to direct the destinies of our government. I make my final plea, therefore, that we may not be caught in the tentacles of dictatorship, but rather keep our democratic form of government so heroically established by our forefathers—a government “of the people, for the people, and by the people.”

People We Remember

EVERY day through the medium of newspapers, magazines, and radios, we read and hear of people who hold the limelight for the minute, personalities who are vivid and interesting, but who fade as quickly as they come. Products are named after them, spectacular publicity is spread about them, and everything possible is done to create around them an aura of glamour and color. But have you ever stopped to think how many of these we remember? Their popularity hangs on a thread, and one day other celebrities flame before our eyes and the old ones are obscured and forgotten.

If we were to analyze the character and personality of those people we remember, we should find that they possess many different qualities, beauty, ability, deftness in conversation, wit, and all the things that, together or alone, appeal to us. But without fail, I think, we should find two characteristics that make them real and human to us, sincerity and simplicity.

Those who really had these gifts inherent in them, those two great historical figures, Washington and Lincoln, and a few people famous in other fields such as

Will Rogers, Sarah Bernhardt, Louis Pasteur, Mark Twain, Nathaniel Hawthorne, and Edwin Arlington Robinson, sought no publicity. They were great in themselves and had no need to feed their ego by hysterically forcing themselves into the limelight.

As presidents of the United States, we have had many great men, men who loved their country and were willing to sacrifice themselves and to bear the burden of criticism and opposition in order to do what they thought right. Yet many of them are only names to us, connected with certain policies and acts, not human people that we may know, but Washington and Lincoln will never be forgotten.

George Washington, of whom it was once said, "He is the only man in fact, upon whom the epithet 'great' may be justly bestowed", was one of the greatest leaders of men. He was fearless and daring, yet quiet and unassuming, and for eight years he served as President with such simplicity and unselfishness that he has gone into history as America's mightiest man.

In spite of the lowliness of his origin and the unattractiveness of his body, something in the soul of Abraham Lincoln proclaimed him a great man, a man who was to become glorified among all Americans. He was never jealous of his power or afraid that a man mightier than he might wrest it from him. When he was told that his Secretary of War considered himself greater than he, Lincoln answered, "I wish I knew all the men who believe that they are greater than I, so that I might put them in my cabinet." There was never a man more fitted to lead than Lincoln, simple in his life and speech, broad-minded, unassuming, just and true and, as time goes on, the fame of Abraham Lincoln will increase and mark him as one of the greatest, noblest, best, and wisest men the world has known.

Will Rogers, "with malice toward none, with charity to all", always spoke of himself as "just an entertainer". He used to say, "I ain't for anything. I ain't selling anything. I ain't got a remedy for anything." Yet with the unconscious simplicity of genius, he had all these things, and everyone believed and trusted in the things he said. He was frank, generous, democratic, and sincere. He was a friend of famous people in all walks of life, yet he made no distinction between classes; he was as congenial with a brakeman as with a railroad magnate, and could truly say, "I never met a man I didn't like."

The great scientists, such as Louis Pasteur, who have done more for our health and well-being than any other group of men, were simple and even humble. When the school children of France were asked to choose the man they considered the greatest of their country, they chose not Napoleon, but Louis Pasteur. He was kindly, modest, and warm-hearted and, although he was paralyzed on one side of his body, he plodded along, year after year in obscurity, working for his fellowmen. Even when he had attained fame and was hailed everywhere as a benefactor of mankind, he never forgot that he had been a humble peasant. When he was offered the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor, he refused it unless the Red Ribbon was also given to his two associates, who, he claimed, deserved credit as well as he.

has known and yet when she was at the height of her fame, when thousands applauded her, she was simple and unassuming. During a tour of the smaller cities, she played at a theater where a new star, who had risen with breath-taking speed from obscurity to fame, had played the week before. Nothing was right for the upstart. Her dressing-room was a disgrace, the stage cramped her style, the lighting did not bring out her exotic beauty. Then Sarah Bernhardt came to the theater. The youthful manager was frantic. If a cheap little actress caused such an uproar, what would the great Bernhardt do? Then he learned what made Sarah Bernhardt the great celebrity she was. In the midst of his almost tearful apologies she said simply, "My dear boy, don't you think that I have played in worse places than this?"

Among our authors we have Mark Twain, Nathaniel Hawthorne, and Edwin Arlington Robinson. Mark Twain, styled "The Prince of Humor", was the closest observer of human nature, institutions, places and things that ever lived, and all this accumulated knowledge he poured into his books, especially those classics of boyhood, Tom Sawyer, and Huckleberry Finn. Mark Twain became one of the most famous men on earth and yet he was never conceited and was a bitter foe of insincerity and shams of every sort. "Printer, pilot, reporter, humorist, novelist, philosopher—Mark Twain is safely embalmed to enduring fame."

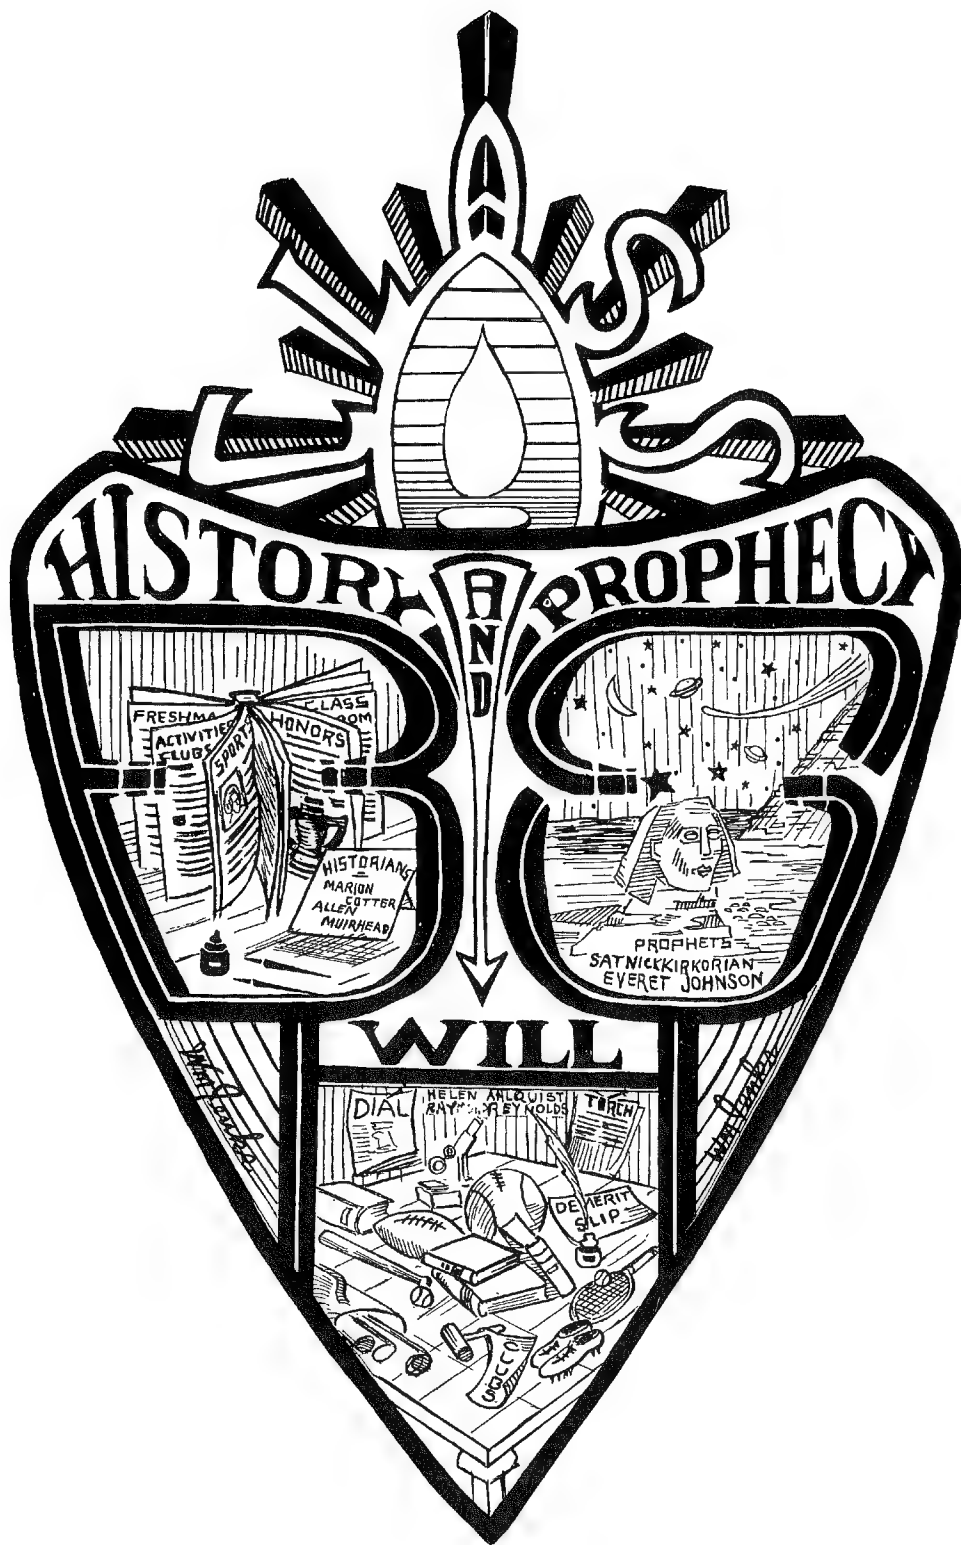

No author ever wrote under greater discouragement than Nathaniel Hawthorne, yet he won the admiration and love of posterity. When a publisher asked him to submit a book, Hawthorne said, "Who would risk publishing a book for me, the most unpopular writer in America?" and he was sincere in his simplicity, although the book that was published was The Scarlet Letter, of which five thousand copies were sold within five days. Throughout all his books, genuineness, honesty of spirit, and sympathy with all human sufferings and weaknesses have proclaimed Nathaniel Hawthorne as a great man.

Edwin Arlington Robinson wrote many vivid and interesting poems which will last forever in people's minds and hearts, not only because of their forceful and picturesque language but because of the simple straightforwardness which reflects his personality. He alone has had the honor of winning the Pulitzer Prize three times, for his "Collected Poems", "The Man Who Died Twice", and "Tristram". He never talked about his own poetry, never criticized other people's, and never read his own in public. The greatest knowledge we can gain of his character is from his own words. "I don't know whether I am a great poet or not. Time alone can tell about that. But I do know that I have never consciously injured anyone. And that at least is something."

Celebrities may come and go, and conditions and customs of the world may change, but those people who are really great in themselves will live forever.

*"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn;
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them."*

.. PROPHECY

Date—1946.

Scene—Evening, in a Gypsy Camp in the middle of a wood. (Curtain is drawn and the stage is empty. Sputterings of an old “tin lizzie” are heard off stage, and then abruptly stop. Feminine voice off stage.)

“Well, now what?” (Enter Sally and Evert.)

Sally—“Look, a camp!”

Evert—“Maybe there is someone here who can help us. I’ll go and look in that tent.”

Sally—“Oh, no! You don’t leave me here alone. We’ll both look. (Both go into tent and come out carrying papers and magazines.) Well, I can read these while you try to get the car going again.” (Evert starts to leave the stage, but is called back by Sally, who exclaims—)

Sally—“Look, here’s a picture of Jimmie Matthews. Do you remember him? He’s introducing a Walter Winchell column in The Hartford Times. Listen to this—Clare Sheehan is going around with his chin in his lap since he lost the Miss America title to Helen Ahlquist. *Flash—*Matthew O’Brien and Letitia Rettie were seen coming out of Bud Fay’s ‘Play More Club’. Old friends are always the best, eh, ‘Tish’? *Flash—*Speaking of flashes—Hollywood has finally persuaded Ed Korisky to play the lead in the forthcoming picture ‘Flash Gordon’. (Puts down paper.) Do you realize that all those people were in our class of 1936B?”

Evert—“That was a nice class. Do you remember ‘Snix’ Laliberty? He’s calling for Philip Morris now instead of ‘Johnny’. I saw him this afternoon in Joe Robert’s restaurant, ‘The Greasy Spoon’. Andy Forte was there feverishly washing dishes.”

Sally—“I hear Professor Toubman won the Noble Prize in Chemistry. George Kazarian has gone into the real estate business. He claims he got the idea from Helen Morhardt’s ‘Monopoly Club’.”

Evert—“Chief of Police McKiernan likes her place. He claims it keeps people out of the police court and gives him more time to see Winnie Kerin. It seems she’s still eluding him.”

Sally—“Talk about eluding. Did you see the fight last night? Jacqueline Peltier won the world championship from Jack Berman. Bill McCurry was acting as referee. When Berman was carried from the ring, Reverend Laurence Roath got up and offered a prayer for his speedy recovery.”

Evert—“He was taken to the Hartford Hospital where Myrt Carlson is the head nurse. She recommends to all people who are rushed the Wilsberg Concentrated Food. Dr. Redys aided Fanny Wilsberg in getting out these tablets which completely satisfy the appetite if taken three times a day. They triple leisure time. That is why Max Zaretsky is a regular consumer! He claims he spends the saved time practicing for the tennis Olympics."

Sally—"Either that or making new puns—I was browsing around the Cowing and White book shop the other day. I picked up the books: 'Puns Can't be Dunked and Why?' by Pat Heidacker, 'How to Grow Curly Hair', by George Fritze, 'The Horrors of Shaving', by Paul Perrotta, and a marvelous Cook Book by Anne Shea. I looked around for Ronnie Tubbs' book, 'What, No More Ladies?', but Tommy Diesel, the head clerk, said they were all sold out. I gave him a ten dollar bill and he gave me one of the new dollar bills in change. You know, the one having Ray Bieth's picture on it."

Evert—"I saw Dot Chandler's picture beside an article on 'How to Develop Dimples' in the Pressey and Tracey magazine. I also read about Viola Colangelo's opening a school which teaches bashful young people to be bold and conquering. 'Speak Up and Express Yourself' is the name of the course."

(Picks up magazine.)

Sally—"It brings back old times to speak of our old friends like this. I wish the gypsies were here to tell us about the rest of the class of 1936B."

Evert (Looking through magazine)—"Look here, an advertisement of Stromberg's Shoe Store. He has revolutionized the shoe industry. Here it says, 'Any shoe is shown on the foot of our beautiful models, Mary Andrian, Nester Cerasole, Janet Coops, and Doris Sweet. While you are waiting for our salesman to serve you, our great violinist, James Chrisoulous, will entertain you. Your children will be amused by Grayce Gotis—the snake charmer from the Butler and Child Circus'."

Sally—"June O'Connor is thinking of suing Bill Ballard for divorce. Says he spends too much time buying shoes there."

Evert—"Say, let's get the gypsies' crystal globe and see if we can see anything in it. I know a few magical words. Let's try it."

Sally—"All right." (Evert goes into tent and brings out crystal and two old coats.)

Evert—"Here, put this on first. These are the magical coats designed by Evelyn Philbrick. (Sally and Evert put on the coats.) All right, here goes—Abracadabra and zish boom bah! ! ! I can't see anything."

Sally—"Let me try it. Pooch Bah 36 Bah, B-u-l-k-e-l-e-y—I see smoke—no, it's dust. I see a car—Oh, it's Ben Francis racing down the avenue in his car."

Evert—"New York must be welcoming Mayor Gustave Andrian by the looks of all that paper flying. Oh, it's only Bill Jenks drawing his cartoon, 'Bringing up a Bulkeleyite'."

Sally—"There is Bob Kelley asking Frank Perkins to promote him from delivery boy to manager of the fruit counter in his A. & P. store."

Evert—"Johnny Cavanaugh is helping Hollywood in the new three-dimension project. He always was good in Solid Geometry."

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Sally—"The crystal is taking us to Paris—I see a big fashion house and a big sign, 'Mme. D'Angelo's First Fashions'. See how carefully Lily Chrysanthom is sewing away in the fitting room."

Evert—"What's Martin Desmond doing in there?"

Sally (Looking up)—"He's probably waiting for the models, Rose Coyne and Doris Duncan, to come out. (Looks in crystal.) Marie Manion is taking Europe by storm with her acting in 'Melancholy Baby'. Her leading man is Henry Heldman, who has put Barrymore's profile in the shade."

Evert—"Oh, it's getting cloudy again; the vision is fading! No, it's clearing up. I see clouds of smoke, debris, hunks of concrete falling to the earth. It's John Shea, the president of the Hartford Wrecking Company, pulling down the old Fitzgerald Brothers Cradle Factory. He's using bombs furnished by the Hagood and Burkholder Company. They were just made famous by developing the new hot air Hofferth gas!"

Sally—"What are those people doing? Seems as if they were putting statues in the Hall of Fame. I can see some of the inscriptions:

'Anne Scott—the twinkling toes of America';

'Betty Kase—the original Kellogg Pep ad';

'Marion Cotter—inventor of glass covers on books';

'Howard Johnson—latest political boss of Tammany Hall'."

Evert—"Looks as if Margaret Magaldi is having a hard time buying more Hepp hair-clips. There is such a demand for them, especially from Alan Mooney, Gertrude Begley, Doris Arnold, and Peter Mobilia."

Sally—"We're being transported to Vienna! I see Pauline Fornonzini and Audrey Johnson going into Grace Buchstane's School of Music."

Evert—"Bea Pollock is doing very well in Italy with her singing. The critics, Harry Blythe, Regina Adajian, Connie Renna, and Walter Borin, rave about her."

Sally—"I see Roma Wilson and 'Red' Kelly going into Connie Rae's 'Sunshine' Tea room. See how flustered Alan Muirhead looks cooking over that stove. Well, look who is waiting on the tables—Isabel Denerich and Rose DePhillips!"

Evert—"Leonard Bartone is making a go of his tailor business. He owes most of his success to Jack Motto, who stands in the front window displaying the latest fashions in men's clothing."

Sally—"Slim' Parmelee is doubling for Stepin Fetchit in the more ambitious scenes in his latest pictures. Mrs. Walz, wife of the president of the Harold Walz-Benjamin Reynolds Cinema Production Company, was formerly his secretary, Rena Stockwell. They've given Jane Edwards a five-year contract. In two of her pictures each year her leading man must be Dominick Cataldo, a rising star of the Montgomery type."

Evert—"James Fagan, another matinee idol, goes to Kathleen Eden's Beauty Salon to have his hair shampooed and waved by expert operators. He usually asks for Ruth Dorman, Peg Donahue, or Betty Ensling."

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Sally—"I hear Barbara Flood is making a go as a writer of feminine topics in the Hollywood Gazette." (Enter Helen, Ray, Marion, and Alan. They start to say something but are motioned into silence. They stand still and listen.)

Evert (Continues)—"Well, we're back in Hartford again and there goes Louis Drakos driving the truck from Lindner's Greenhouse. He's stopping in front of Gil Jones's private Broadcasting Studio."

Sally—"Look, Officer 'Tiny' Weeks just pulled along beside him. Drakos is making a mad rush for the elevator."

Evert—"He makes it. Pat Cherry, the elevator boy, takes him up to the 19th floor. There Louis upsets Jean Howat on his way to studio 36B. There he finds Bernadette Chamberlain just finishing her broadcast of the 'Mother Goose Hour'."

Sally—"Announcer Fitzgibbons is just introducing that melodious trio, the Young Brothers, Aubert, James and Virgil! It must be the Burridge Cheese Variety Hour. There is quite an audience, among whom are Julius Reale, the mad scientist; Arthur Godbout, the Communist Candidate for Mayor; Barbara Wilson, the big game hunter; and Ray Reynolds, the famous attorney-at-law. Gen Grady, Hilda Wagline, and Elinor Bride are presenting the skit, 'Why Boys Leave Home'."

Evert—"Look, there's the flood. Phil Hurley, as commanding officer, does not seem to have it under control because the visionary water has clouded the crystal and I can see no more."

EVERT M. JOHNSON

(They finish reading the Prophecy.)

Johnson—"What do you want?"

Reynolds—"We're having a class reunion tonight and the stolen Class History and Will haven't been found yet. This seems to be the only clue left. Help us look for it, will you?"

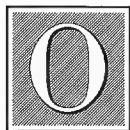

Sally—"We saw some papers in that corner over there. Maybe they're the ones."

(They find the History.)

Marian—"I'll start to read it. Perhaps it's the right one."

HISTORY

ON our first day of school at Bulkeley High, we went to an assembly where Doctor Feingold addressed our class. He made us realize how serious these four years were going to be, and he also told us that we were the largest class ever to enter the school, since we numbered some four hundred. We had to attend the afternoon session, and we soon began to wish that our school day was all over at one o'clock as was the day of the upper classmen.

We began to take a bigger part in extra-curricular activity when we entered our sophomore year. We were eligible to try out for the Torch boards, an opportunity which made us feel very important. Another advantage which gave us quite an air of superiority was the fact that, being upper sophomores, we were now attending the morning session. We could now exult as we passed the lower classmen about to begin the long afternoon. This lasted until September, 1935, when the school returned to the single session plan, and accordingly everyone attended classes in the morning. Another change which went into effect at this time was the abolishing of examinations. According to many members of Bulkeley, homework, also, might have been done away with.

By this time our class had made itself prominent in the different clubs. Winifred Kerin was elected president of the Girls' League, one of the leading clubs of the school. Winifred has always been popular and has done a great deal for the Girls' League. Later on George Fritze became president of the Student Council. James Matthews attained the position of co-editor of the Torch, while Marguerite Strong reached her long-striven-for goal of business manager. Raymond Bieth edited the Dial very capably, while Paul Perrotta managed the business side.

The stage also attracted many members of our class. Among those who stood out were James Matthews, Roma Wilson, James Fagan, Thomas Diesel, Jane Edwards, Marie Manion, Concetta Renna, and Sally Kirkorian.

Raymond Bieth, our valedictorian, has won many honors, and has certainly made a success of his four years in high school. He has been awarded several scholarships, won a book prize in the Harvard Club of Connecticut Contest, was elected president of the Honor Society, was assistant editor of the Class Book, and was a junior usher.

William McCarthy, the salutatorian, also has won scholarships, is a member of the Honor Society, was a junior usher, was on the editorial board of the Class Book, and has held various offices in clubs.

In the fall of 1932, the boys in our class proved their athletic interest when some forty of them reported for freshman football. A number of these boys were substitutes when Bob Grosch, Bill Kelly, Jackson Taylor, and the Grasso, Cottone, and Garneau brothers were beginning to pile up city championship titles.

Gradually the members of our class took their places on the first teams and boosted the Greater Hartford Championship titles to eight consecutively, an all-time city record. Our last two basketball teams were the only ones from Hartford to qualify for the Yale Tournament. Edward Korisky, a member of our class, holds the city record in the javelin throw.

About fifty major letters were awarded to our class, Alan Mooney taking seven of them. Dominick Cataldo, Patrick Cherry, George Fritze, and Alan Mooney all participated in three major sports. Richard Lindner and Dominick Cataldo also won social and scholarship honors.

In the years to come, Babe Allen will surely remember with pride the performances of his teams between 1932 and 1936.

Among the outstanding events of our four years was the founding of the Legislative Club of which Mr. Coons is the faculty adviser. In a contest sponsored by the Dial, Helen Ahlquist was elected "Miss Bulkeley." Incidentally, while we are speaking of the Dial, Mr. Russell became the faculty adviser of the business board at the resignation of Mr. Daly, while Mr. Stoddard took over the editorial board in place of Miss Elmendorf.

While in school, too, we have had the good fortune to enjoy many thoroughly interesting and educational assemblies. Perhaps the one which stands out clearly in the minds of all of us was that at which Mr. Willard Van Der Veer, the official photographer of the Byrd Expedition to the South Pole, spoke. He certainly captured the interest of every person in his audience.

We shall always remember 1936 as the year of our graduation, but it will go down in history as the year of the great flood. Some will associate it only with curious sights, while others will sadly remember the loss of their homes and possessions.

For eleven days during March, Hartford stepped back almost one hundred years to the days of fireplace cooking, oil lamps, and a curfew. Hartford looked like a seaport with boats and sailors in places where they had never been seen before. Hundreds of people crowded close to the water to witness sights they will never forget. Few people realized the true tragedy until the thirty-seven and a half foot crest had subsided.

Several Bulkeley boys were called from school when the National Guard and Naval Reserves were mobilized for duty. Everyone had excuses for not doing homework, and many had to be excused from gymnasium because of sore arms caused by inoculation for typhoid fever. Some of our classmates were more seriously affected and had to leave their homes for several days.

The graduation of our class marks the end of ten successful years for Bulkeley; of these ten, we have enjoyed four happy ones—perhaps four of the happiest years we shall ever know. We are now ready to "face the world" and time alone can tell what will become of each of us in the future. Our class is the nineteenth to graduate since the opening of the school in 1926. It is the largest, comprising 365 members, and constitutes 78 percent of our original number who entered four years ago.

MARION A. COTTER

WILLIAM A. MUIRHEAD, JR.

(While the History is being read, the Testators look for the Will. When the History is finished—)

Muirhead—"Have you found the Will yet?"

Helen—"This looks like it. Shall I open it and see?"

Reynolds—"Yes. We'll take a chance, for I've forgotten most of it."

(Helen starts to read the Will.)

WILL

E, the Class of 1936B, Bulkeley High School, being of sound mind and body, even though our teachers may think differently, do leave, bestow, transmit, and bequeath the following possessions and oddities to those lower classmen who will best profit by them. Hear ye then our Last Will and Testament.

To Dr. Feingold we leave our sincere gratitude for his ever-willing helpfulness and inspiration during our years at Bulkeley.

To Miss Dargan we leave our earnest thanks for her fine spirit of friendliness during our four years here.

To Bob Daly we leave a lavender gravy spot for that sky blue cravat.

To Miss McSherry we leave a book on etiquette for Babe Allen to teach his squad a few manners.

To Mr. Weaver we leave a bucket to bail out his house.

To Miss Garvin, the girls of the class leave their thanks for making them good talkers and helping them to show up the boys each year.

To Mr. Swaye we leave our congratulations on the tenth anniversary of his raccoon coat.

To Miss Edith Plumb, in place of her late lamented turtle, we leave Professor Pease.

To the incoming seniors we leave the faculty in a very good mood.

To each junior we leave an empty bank-book with a note that it is expensive to be seniors.

To the sophomores we leave a bell to put around Tiller's neck to let them know he's coming.

To the freshmen we leave the "curfew" hour so they may be healthy, wealthy, and healthy.

The following members of the class wish to make personal bequests:

Charles Bradshaw leaves his privilege to sleep during class to any lower classman who can get away with it.

Rosanna Bartone and Jacqueline Peltier leave their racket to the cheering section at the Bulkeley games.

Mary Fitzpatrick leaves her four-day week plan to Marion Anderson.

Billy Hoyt bequeaths his homework to Miss Neal to be used for exhibition of a neat paper.

June O'Connor leaves her little box of pills to any lower classman who needs to calm her nerves to stand the strain of shorthand.

Mac McCurry and Julius Reale leave their formulas to raise excessive hair to Mr. Jenkins—just in case.

Claire Burns leaves a tall fair male in Dr. Mahoney's care to see that he gets into no trouble.

Walter Elliott leaves himself in place of Bing Crosby.

Grace Anderson bequeaths her makeup kit to Mrs. Johnson for girls who have left their compacts at home.

George Fritze leaves his drag with the women faculty to some fortunate lower classman.

Louise O'Neil leaves her collection of college emblems and banners to the University Club.

Doris Graywacz and Marjorie Jones leave to give the McDermott sisters a little freedom.

Whitney Stromberg leaves the cafeteria exhausted.

Letitia Rettie leaves with Matthew O'Brien.

Anne Shea and Marguerite Strong bequeath their Johnny-on-the-spot energy to the Dyno Company.

Marguerite Whittaker leaves her brains to Bill Kelly.

Clare Sheehan leaves a hint about girls to Blair Rigby—Keep 'em walking, keep 'em talking, keep 'em squawking, but keep 'em!

Anne Scott and Patty Ann Rita leave their twenty twinkling tootsies to all Hartford business men who still have flood jitters.

Viola Banas wishes to leave the emergency room to any lower classman who would like to learn the art of knitting.

William McCarthy leaves his method of squeezing as much juice out of teachers' words as possible to all students who like to exasperate teachers, too.

Muriel Crawford, Mary Ford, and Fran Schiavone leave their dancing feet to shorten the stag line.

Betty Pressy leaves her flute to anyone who wants it.

Marjorie Brainard bequeaths her supply of pins to 116 to keep future law students amused.

Gus Andrian—Ray. Good old Gus! He was one of the most popular fellows in our class. Let me read what it says about him: "Gus Andrian leaves his reputation for mixing brains with personality to any lower classman who thinks he can attain the honor."

Don't ask us which is happier when we say that William Toubman leaves the Legislative Club.

Justine Langrish leaves her sophistication to Barbara Lamkins, who needs a little.

THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Pat Heidacker leaves her sports ability to the Girls' Leaders Corps to keep it going.

Phil Capobianco leaves all his stolen bases in the Dial Box where no one will find them.

Doris Sweet leaves her size 11 dresses to anyone who can wear them.

Rena Stockwell bequeaths her book on "How to Make Noise and Stop It" to the library.

Rose Coyne leaves fifty cents to Marjorie Luscomb for Torch Room Curtains.

Donald Hofferth leaves his blackboard artistry to Ellis Parker as an example of an unsolved crime.

Manners in which some of our classmates leave Bulkeley:

Arthur Laliberty—under the door;

Cecile Fitzgibbons—on Mrs. FitzGerald's toe;

Howard Johnson—with his shoes off; and

Max Zaretsky—like a feather in the breeze.

Kay Kelleher has been persuaded to leave her red jacket. We hope she doesn't get lonesome.

Marion Cotter and Winifred Kerin leave their charming personalities to Mary Meaney and Mary Lynch.

Bud Haley and Johnny Motto leave their collective "it" to Bernie Bucior.

Natalie Yedzinak and Peggy Grosch leave to keep the home fires burning for the football squad any night of the week.

Hübert Wilson leaves his musical ability and his honor of being the "Forgotten Man" at Bulkeley's musical festivities to Roger Wheeler.

Rosalie Rafferty and Phyllis Ertel leave 184 Bond Street, the half-way mark, to future students who absent-mindedly hurry to school an hour early.

Ger Grady leaves her bag of milk crackers to all lower freshmen called Polly.

The Class of 1936B leaves four new commandments to the freshmen:

1—Thou shalt stick to the tried and true method of choosing class officers.
Beware of Nominating Committees!

2—Thou shalt not smoke Camels. Let Doctor Feingold give you the lift.

3—Thou shalt not be deaf to Mr. Cocks' chastisement, but thou shalt surely be dumb.

4—Thou shalt start Bulkeley's eleventh year off with as much glory as the Class of 1936B leaves it.

Roma Wilson leaves her childish ways behind as she steps out into the grown-up world.

Harry Blythe leaves for the Automat.

Audrey Johnson leaves the timid tones of a demure but devastatingly-dimpled damsel to Marjorie Fay.

Paul Fitzgerald leaves his technique at bluffing a homework assignment to Albert Euliano.

Ruth Dorman leaves her quiet wit to the writers of next year's will.

Theodore Faulkner leaves his hot, if not overcharged line to the Hartford Electric Light Company.

Raymond J. Bieth, Jr., leaves his haunted look to the ghost of Banquo.

Hilda Wagline bequeaths her distinct taste in designing clothes to Vogue.

Doris Duncan bequeaths her freckles to anyone who wants 'em.

Martin Desmond leaves the pen and pencil set he won from Colonel Tall Story to Colonel Tall Story—the darn thing leaks.

Sally Kirkorian leaves to seek the stage, with an eye on Hollywood also.

Douglas Brown and Thomas Burkholder leave their harmlessness to Joseph Spillane and Corbit Provost.

Thomas Diesel leaves his nonchalance to his sister at Bulkeley to be used when she trips.

Dot Chandler leaves her dimples to any poor Juliet who is minus a Romeo.

Our senior Dial subscribers leave the Dial Humor Page to Richard Phillips.

Jane Edwards leaves a suggestion to the Dramatic Club that "The Face on the Barroom Floor" be its next presentation, and that Henry Kaplan play the title role.

Alan Mooney leaves his broad shoulders to support club treasuries when Class Book ads come due.

Anne Beckwith leaves her many flames to keep the lobby fireplace going.

Andrew Forte leaves all his little "fortes" in the Faculty's marking books.

Eddy Reynolds and Stanley Merski leave their questionable puns to Al Jolson and Eddie Cantor.

Lenny Conners leaves her "wiggles" to Charlotte Stedman.

Jimmy Matthews leaves his appendix to the Hartford Hospital.

Elinor Bride leaves a future football star despondent.

Teddy Child leaves some of his sophistication to that part of the faculty who have followed him about for such a purpose.

To settle any arguments to the contrary, we leave Benjamin Reynolds out.

We hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, and affix our hands and seal of the 1936B anniversary class of Bulkeley High School, this seventeenth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six.

HELEN AHLQUIST

Our school days have been al-ways bright with clubs and Where e'er we go on life's high-way We'll not for-get our dances too. Our teams have met with great suc-cess. De-feats there were but friends. Our hap-py days to-gether here we'll cher-ish 'till life ends.

few. The stu-dies we've pur-sued with vim, Kind tea-chers as our guides, Will Each time we meet our thoughts will turn Back to those high school days, When help us meet our prob-lems And smile at for-tune's tides, Oh--

We were young and care free And hearts were light al-ways, Oh--

Nine-teen thir-ty six B now we must part. In dear Bulk-eley's class-rooms

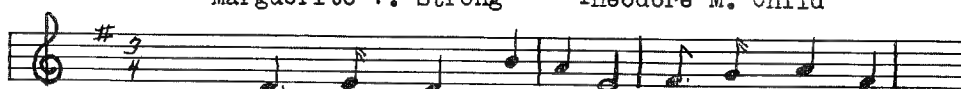

We have made our start. What e'er life holds in store As a-lum-ni we shall try to be a cre-dit to our selves and Bulk-eley High.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

1926-36

BASEBALL

BASEBALL prospects seemed slim for the 1936 season, as Coach Babe Allen started with only four lettermen back to build another city championship team. These men, Alan Mooney, George Fritze, Pat Cherry, and Philip (Sonny) Capobianco, supplied a great deal of strength, but the all-important factor, the battery, was completely a blank. None of the men who had been tested last year seemed to measure up to the standard demanded. Added to all these hindrances was the fact that the flood hampered an early beginning of practice sessions by taking Babe away for relief duty, and cancelling all chances of using Colt Park for either practice or games.

But hard work will show results and when the first game of the season against Hartford Trade—was played, the fighting spirit of the team would not be downed, and the team triumphed for the first step towards a perhaps successful—perhaps mediocre season.

The lineup as presented for the first game was as follows:

LF, Lynch; CF, Fritze; RF, Mooney; 1B, Pryor; 2B, Shannon; SS, Cherry; 3B, Capobianco; C, Gustafson; P, Drummond and Beattie.

The schedule with scores filled in as to the date of going to press follows:

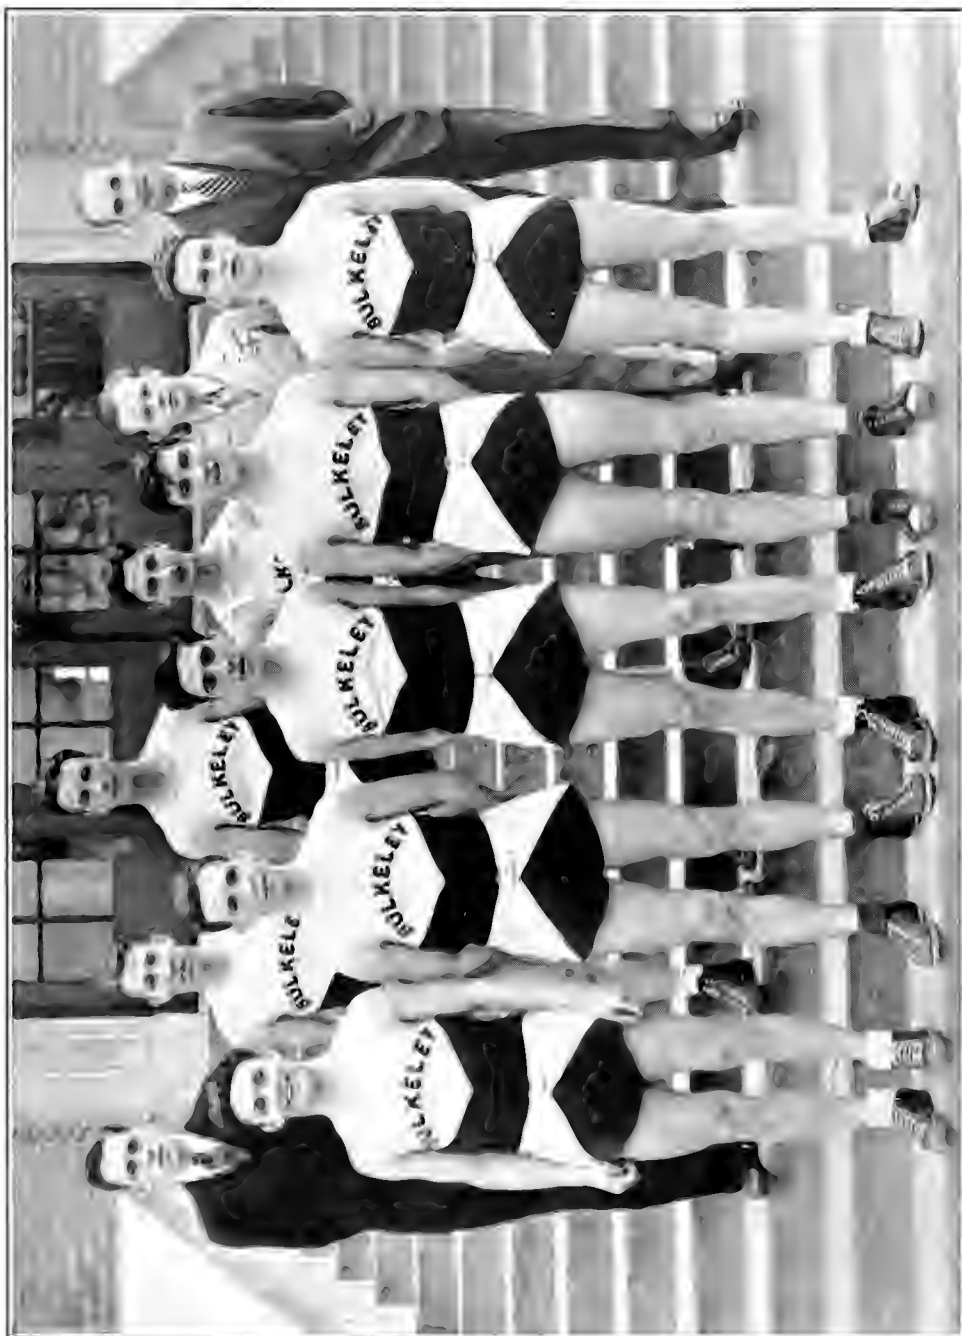

April 24	Bulkeley.....13	Hartford Trade 8
May 2	Weaver Game Postponed
May 8	Bulkeley..... 6	New Britain11
May 12	Bulkeley.....12	Hartford Trade14
May 16	Bulkeley..... 4	Hartford High 5
May 18	Bulkeley..... 9	West Hartford 0
May 22	Bulkeley..... 4	Weaver 8
May 23	Bulkeley..... 6	Hartford High11
May 26	Bulkeley.....12	New Britain.....4
May 28	Bulkeley.....0	Norwich Free Academy. 23

TENNIS TEAM

TENNIS prospects appeared good, as the racquets were taken out and tested for the 1936 season. Although Ray Bieth was lost to the team because of pressure of duties, Don Day took over the managership, and the leadership of the squad.

Others rated in the first ten, who could be called veterans, were Ray Reynolds, Max Zaretsky, Jack Motto, and Tommy Diesel. The schedule:

Bulkeley.....3	Morse3
Bulkeley.....1	St. Thomas6
Bulkeley.....0	New Britain6
Bulkeley.....1	Hartford5
Bulkeley.....4	Simsbury2
Bulkeley.....0	West Hartford0

THE BASKETBALL TEAM

BASKETBALL

ONCE again a Bulkeley basketball team has tasted the fruits of a glorious season, but this time there was an acid tang to the cup of joy. Although once more qualifying for the Yale Tournament, one of the highest honors a schoolboy team can attain, the Maroons lost possession of the City Championship which they had held for two years running.

The season started gloriously with a victory over the Trade School team. Getting up full steam, the team was derailed by East Hartford High, 48 to 45. Determining not to take this lying down, the Allenmen came back to score a second victory over the Trade School quintet, which went on despite these two defeats to qualify in the Class B tournament. Following this game, the Allenmen journeyed to Norwich to emerge victorious from a hot battle with the Red and White. With these victories under their belt, the Bulkeley five naturally looked forward to meeting the Meriden quintet, defending State Champions, and testing their mettle under heavy fire. With one of the most amazing exhibitions of poor basketball ever seen, they were trampled on by Meriden by the score of 33 to 4.

Up to this time, the quintet had been wearing brand-new maroon outfits. After the Meriden game, Coach Allen recalled those suits and issued the old white suits. With this rebuke, the team woke up, and meeting a stronger West Haven aggregation, took them into camp to the tune of 27 to 17. From this point until almost a month later, the squad did not lose a game.

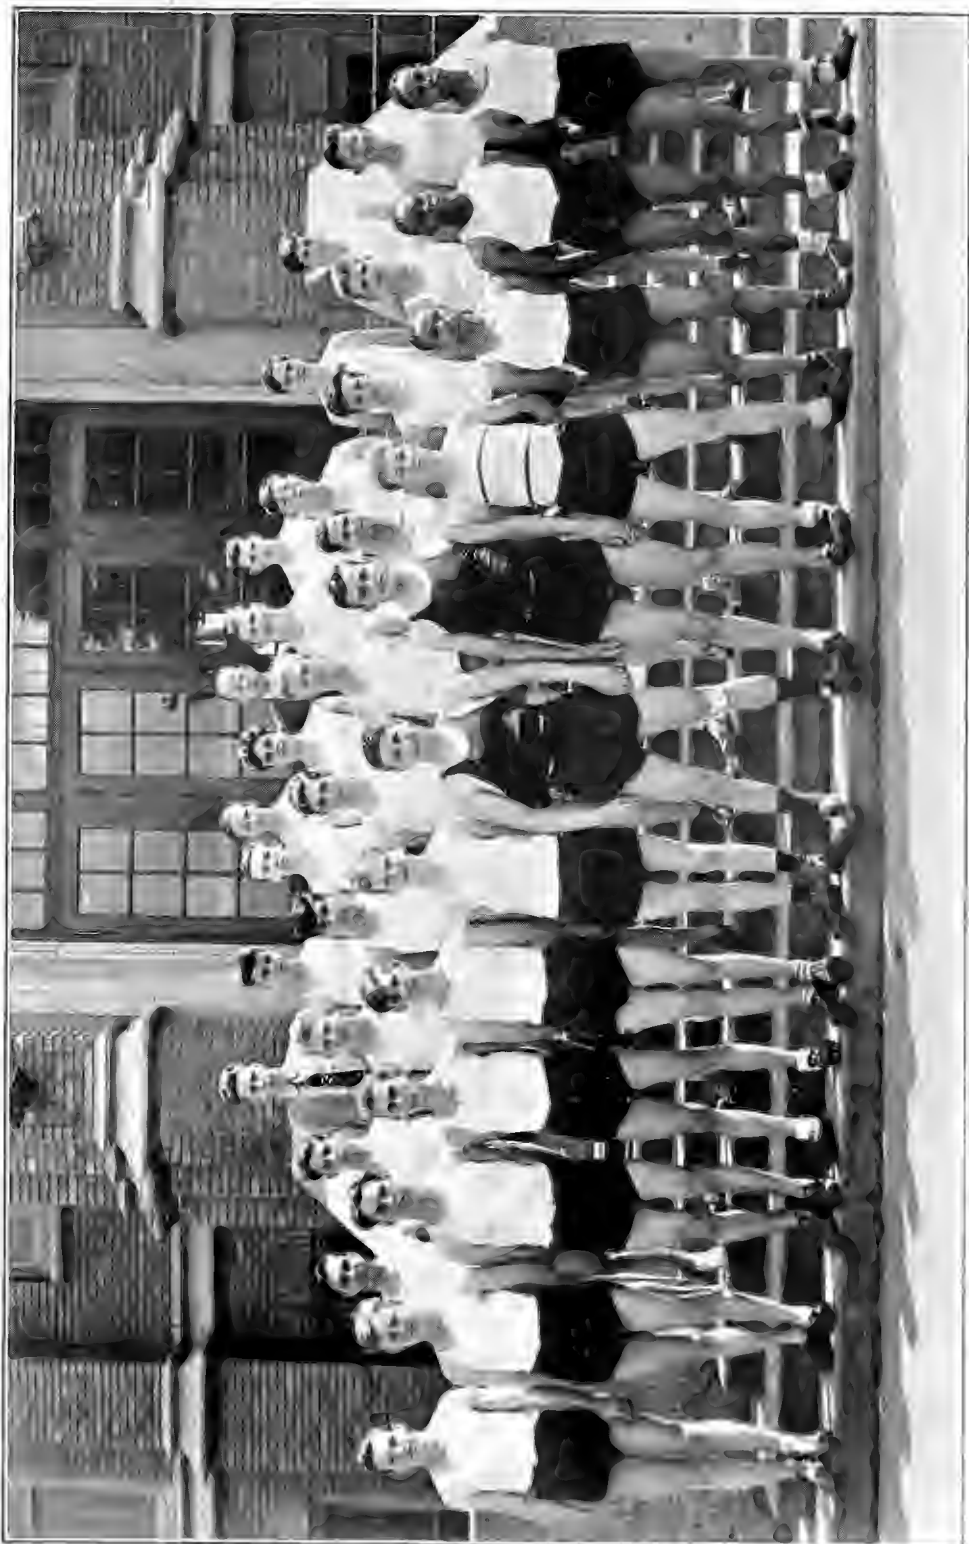

Rockville came to town, Bulkeley went to town, and Rockville went back home with a 33 to 16 black mark on its record. The next game was Bulkeley's first in the intra-city series. Playing Weaver there, Larry Bernabeo led the team to a 28-21 victory. In his last game for Bulkeley, Larry single-handedly gave Bulkeley a good lead in this series by defeating Hartford High 32 to 16. Bernabeo scored 16 of the team's points, with Ed Miller, graduating with him, adding the two winning points.

With the prospects dark for the rest of the season, the Allenmen went to West Haven to engage in one of the most thrilling basketball games on the schedule. With two minutes to go, the team was seven points behind. In one minute and five seconds, the five had made up this deficit, and went on to score a basket and a foul shot to win, 25 to 24. With this game as a starter, the Allenmen defeated Rockville 23 to 14, before succumbing for the first time in three years to Weaver, 34 to 28. One more game was played, with West Hartford, before the tournament ratings closed, with Bulkeley winning 43 to 17. The following Monday, Bulkeley lost the City Championship to Hartford High, 27 to 17. On Friday, the regular season ended when Meriden once again defeated them, 34 to 21.

Faced with the undefeated Hillhouse team in the tournament game, Bulkeley put up a plucky fight before going down to defeat, 42-31. It must be stated that Bulkeley scored the most points on Hillhouse that any team had scored.

Four men who went to New Haven remained as veterans; no lettermen were back.

THE TRACK TEAM

TRACK TEAM

ONLY fair hope was held out to Coach Bob Daly when he looked over the prospects for his 1936 track team. The co-captains, Redys and Korisky, were, of course, the best material he had for the duals, but their points would not count much in the Triangular and City meets and no one else seemed to be in sight who would be reliable.

But he had not counted on the Young brothers. James was again eligible after having been lost for the 1935 season, and Aubert and Virgil were both back. Altogether in the first meet, the Young brothers scored 21 points between them, with James garnering 13 of them, in the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, and the broad jump. In this meet also, John Redys surpassed expectations by breaking the school shot put record of 42 feet, 10 inches and the discus record of 110 feet, 9 inches, by tosses of 44 feet, $7\frac{3}{4}$ inches and 121 feet, 2 inches, respectively. Other people, mostly newcomers, uncovered talent to score points.

This track squad rose to its greatest heights on May 30, when it raced home first in the Greater Hartford Meet.

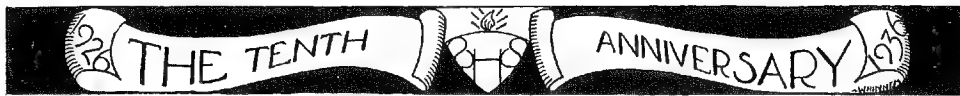

In this meet Bulkeley was conceded but little chance to win by everyone except Coach Daly. It was the first Greater Hartford Meet that Bulkeley has ever won in inter-city competition. Bulkeley retains permanent possession of the Cup and will hold the huge Courant Plaque until next year, when we hope to see them win it for the second year.

The stars of the day were Ed Korisky, who set a new city record in the javelin throw with 163 feet, John Redys, with a first in the shot put and second in the discus, James Young, winner of 220, second in the 100, and anchor man on the winning 880 relay team, Aubert Young, third in the 880 and on 880 relay team, and Johnny Sullivan who took second in the mile with a new school record.

At this writing Bulkeley is also undefeated in dual meets.

The schedule follows:

Bulkeley.....	53 $\frac{1}{2}$	Middletown	41 $\frac{1}{2}$
Bulkeley.....	57 $\frac{1}{2}$	Weaver	47 $\frac{1}{2}$
Triangular:
Bulkeley.....	35 $\frac{1}{2}$	Hartford	59 $\frac{1}{2}$
		Weaver	35 $\frac{1}{3}$
City Meet:
Bulkeley.....	36 $\frac{1}{2}$	West Hartford.....	26
Wethersfield...	12 $\frac{1}{2}$	Hartford	31
East Hartford..	4	Weaver	22
Bulkeley.....		Norwich	Postponed
Bulkeley.....	61 $\frac{1}{2}$	East Hartford.....	42 $\frac{1}{2}$
Bulkeley.....	62 $\frac{1}{2}$	West Hartford	41 $\frac{1}{2}$

1926—1936

IN one decade, Bulkeley football has risen from a poorly-attended, poorly-played affair to a well-played sport before many people. In 1926, the first game was played before a very slight crowd, with the Bulkeley team in ill-matched uniforms being defeated by Stonington High, 13 to 0. The next week a strong Westminster squad trod the team into the ground by a 33 to 0 score, and soon after, Weaver defeated us 28 to 0. The one victory of the four-game schedule came over East Hartford, when we defeated them 7 to 6. Hartford High, then at the top of the heap, did not even deign to schedule us.

Soon, however, things changed. With more of a chance of being grounded in Coach Babe Allen's system, and with veterans returning who could form a nucleus for each succeeding team, the won and lost columns began to even up.

There were always, of course, Hartford and Weaver. These two teams were waging battles every year for the city championship, ignoring Bulkeley. The first notice served upon them that we were in the fight was in 1928 when, under the captaincy of Joseph Cerasole, the team defeated Weaver, 6 to 0. In 1929 the cup of happiness was full. We defeated Hartford High 6 to 0, tied Weaver 0 to 0, and became City Champions when Hartford High defeated Weaver.

But this was not the end. Up until then the seasons were bad because the material was mediocre. Although defeating Hartford and Weaver, the rest of the season was usually pretty bad. Now the stage was set for our teams to aspire to the State Championship.

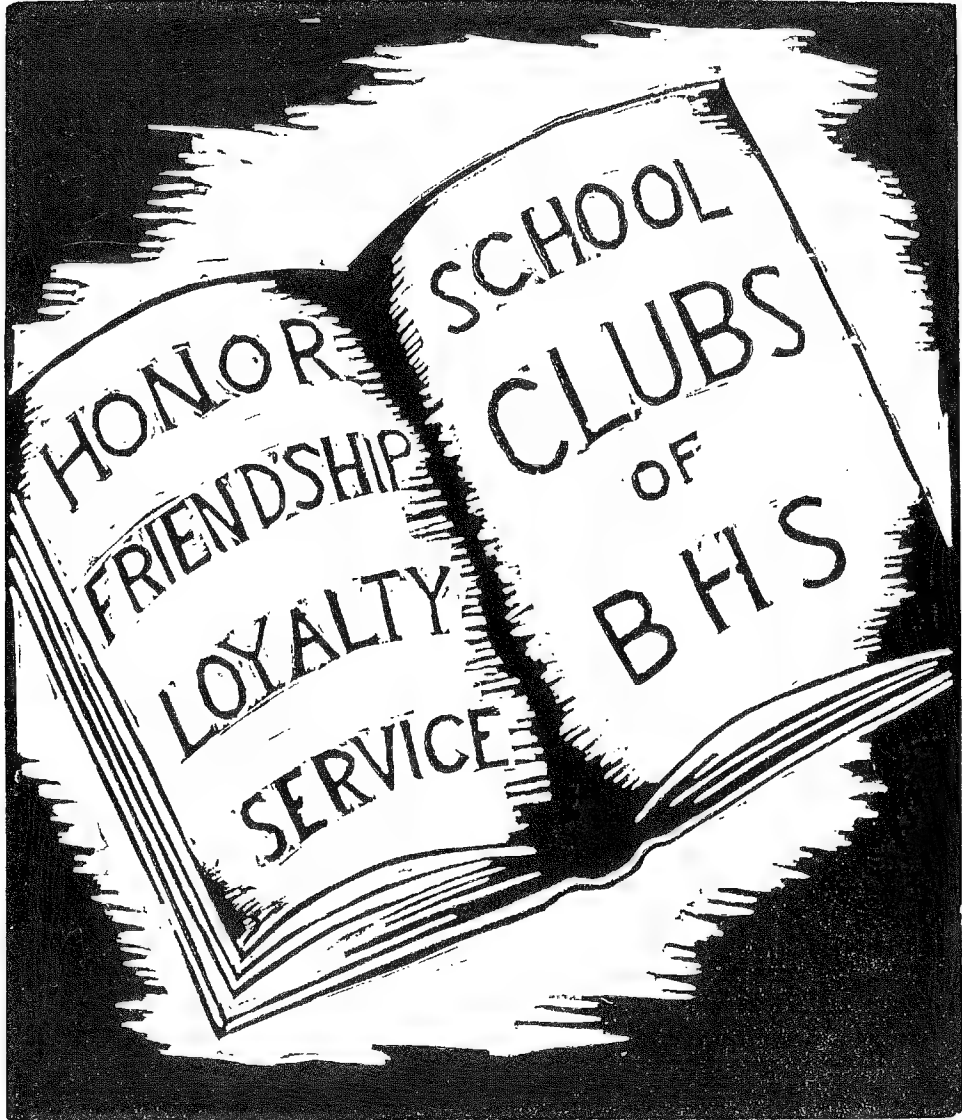

In 1933, under Robert Grosch, Bulkeley's greatest team was built. Winning five, tying two, and losing one—to Worcester High—the squad trampled on all opposition and was rated third in the State Championship race. Such individuals as Bob Grosch and Joe Cottone were given places on the All-State Team for their work throughout the season. The only team which has even approached that record is the 1935 squad. This team, composed of members of our class for the most part, won five games and lost two, climaxing its season with the great New Britain team, State Champions, before a crowd of 10,000. The scores marked up by this team are as follows: Bulkeley 33, Naugatuck 0; Bulkeley 0, West Haven 12; Bulkeley 14, Chapman Tech 0; Bulkeley 14, Hartford 6; Bulkeley 6, West Hartford 0; Bulkeley 20, Weaver 0; Bulkeley 6, New Britain 27.

Squads chosen by Coach Babe Allen consisting of the stars of the first five years on the first squad, and the last five years on the other, are as follows:

1926-1930 Squad; 1927—Paterno, Carella, and Landeen; 1928—Taksar, Cerasole, Mondon, and Bonadies; 1929—McDermott, Farrell, and Crowley; 1930—Sylvester, Devery, Martin, and Charles Repass.

1931-1935 Squad; 1931 — Ronald Garneau; 1933 — William Kelly, Robert Grosch, Joseph Cottone, and Ernest Grasso; 1934—Lester Garneau, Yacavone, and Minagil; 1935, Forte, Bernabeo, Flood, Mooney, Fritze, and Asklar.

These stars have aided the course of Bulkeley football in the past; new ones must come forth for the future. The stage is set; only time will reveal the play.

THE HONOR SOCIETY

HONOR SOCIETY

The Bulkeley Chapter of the National Honor Society was chartered January 21, 1927—six months after the school was founded. It consists of pupils from the junior and senior classes. Membership is based on scholarship, service, character, and leadership. Only those who rank in the highest third of their class are eligible, and not more than 15 percent from any class are elected. This year the Honor Society took the lead in celebrating Bulkeley's tenth anniversary and they also contributed largely to the social service fund of the school to aid flood sufferers.

OFFICERS

President—Raymond J. Bieth, Jr.
Vice-President—Gustave W. Andrian

Secretary—Irene M. Winalski
Treasurer—Max Zaretsky

Faculty Adviser—Dr. Feingold

SENIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

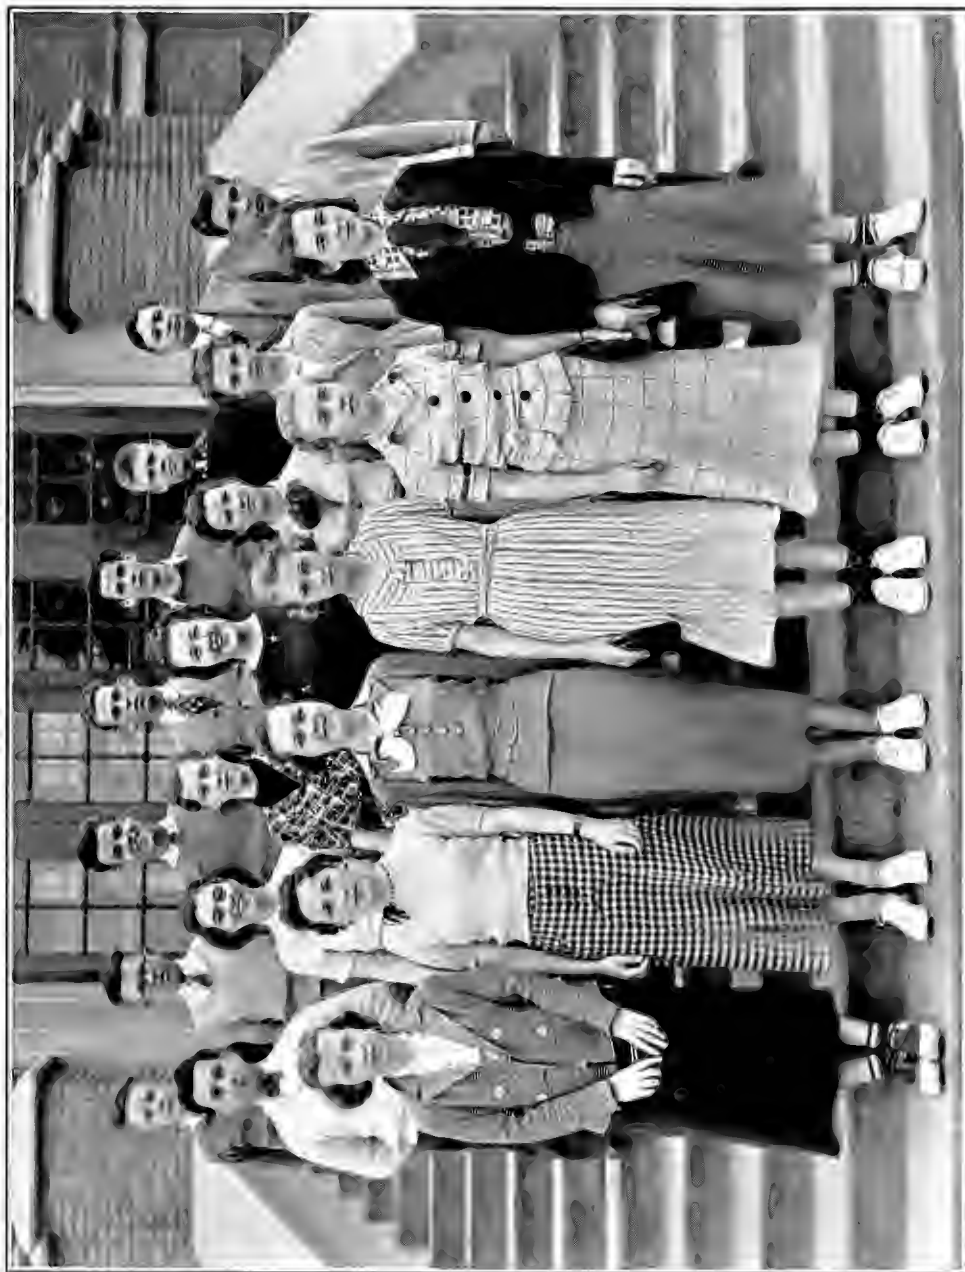

The Senior Dramatic Club gave "Fly Away Home", April 17, 1936, as its semi-annual presentation. A number of short plays were given at the business meetings of the club for the purpose of study.

OFFICERS

President—Jane Edwards
Vice-President—Sally Kirkorian
Secretary—Constance Rae

Treasurer—Thomas Diesel
Fifth Member—James Fagan
Sixth Member—Leland Rhode

Faculty Adviser—Mr. Costello

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

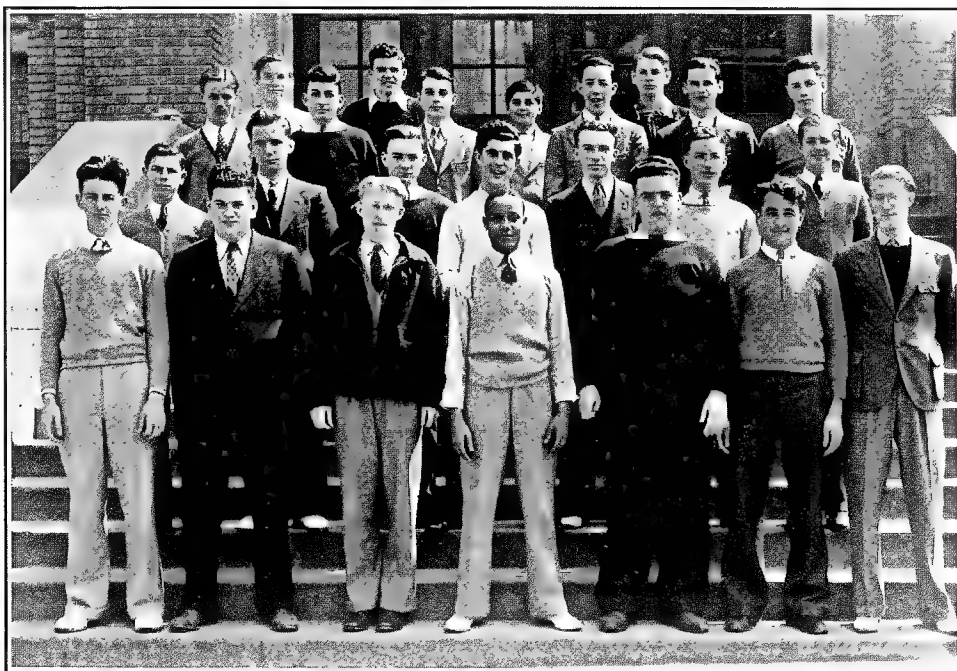

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an organization that brings the students into closer contact with the faculty. It holds many social affairs throughout the school year, and aids in the improvement of conditions in the school. This club has Dr. Feingold for its faculty adviser. The present officers are:

OFFICERS

President—George Fritze
Vice-President—Gustave Andrian

Secretary—Elinor Bride
Treasurer—Henry Kaplan

LEGISLATIVE CLUB

During the past semester Room 333 became a miniature congress when the Legislative Club was in session. Arguments pro and con fairly crackled through the air. Organized only last year, the club has now become one of the most interesting and probably the most unusual in the school.

OFFICERS

Speaker—Virgil Young
Secretary—William Toubman

Treasurer—Ray Reynolds
Fifth Member—William Ryan

Faculty Adviser—Mr. Coons

GIRLS' LEADERS CORPS

GIRLS' LEADERS CORPS

The purpose of the Girls' Leaders Corps is to arouse interest in sports. This was accomplished this semester by a swimming and skating party. The Corps is also looking forward to a tennis and golf tournament. The social activities consisted of a formal dance which was the first of its kind ever attempted in Bulkeley. This turned out to be the most outstanding social event of the term.

OFFICERS

President—Betty McCue Secretary—Muriel Waterhouse
Vice-President—Hildegard Wagline Treasurer—Roma Wilson
Faculty Adviser—Miss Tracy

LITERARY CLUB

This year the Literary Club has devoted its time to informal panel discussions of recent novels. This has proved a most interesting and complete way of becoming thoroughly acquainted with the authors and their works.

OFFICERS

President—Genevieve Grady Vice-President—Hildegard Wagline
Secretaries—Marie Manion and Irene Winalski
Program Committee—Grace Buchstane
Faculty Adviser—Mrs. FitzGerald

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

This semester the Boys' Glee Club in co-operation with the Girls' Glee Club and the Senior Orchestra, and under the excellent and capable direction of Miss Gleason, presented the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "The Mikado"—a performance that evoked favorable comment everywhere.

President—Paul Perrotta
Vice-President—Walter Elliott
Secretary—John Redys

Librarian—Harold Hansen
Assistant Librarian—Joseph Spillane
Faculty Adviser—Miss Gleason

THE BOYS' CLUB

The Boys' Club has now completed ten years of service, and during this period it has aimed to develop in its members an enthusiasm for highest ideals in scholarship, sportsmanship, fellowship, and character. The Club looks forward to even greater usefulness during the decade that lies ahead.

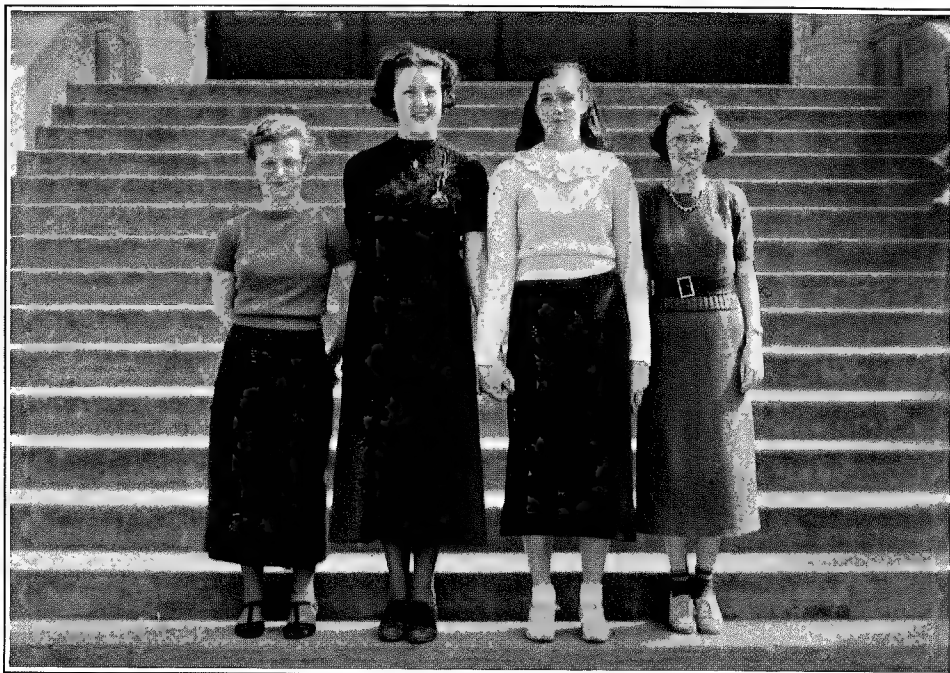

During the past semester, the Club held a Father-Son meeting, several sport nights, and a tenth anniversary celebration. Among the entertaining speakers heard by the members were Mr. Lawrence Wheelock, Mr. Paul Diesel, and several past presidents of the club.

President—David P. Rosen
Vice-President—Henry Kaplan

Secretary—James Matthews, Jr.
Treasurer—George Fritze

Fifth Member—Howard Johnson

GIRLS' LEAGUE

The purpose of the Girls' League is to create a friendly co-operative feeling among the girls, and to promote Honor, Service, and Loyalty. The League encourages its members to observe its ideals—Usefulness of Living, Joyousness of Giving, Naturalness of Being, Ideals in Developing, Orderliness in Thinking, and Readiness in Serving.

OFFICERS

President—Winifred Kerin
Vice-President—Phyllis Burr
Secretary—Clarissa Hill
Treasurer—Nancy Hodinott
Faculty Adviser—Dr. Dargan
Associate Advisers—Miss Wheeler, Miss Kienle, Miss Frauer, and Miss Langwill

FRENCH CLUB

The purpose of the French Club is to promote an interest in the French people and their customs. During the past year it has had a variety of programs, for each meeting has been put in the charge of two different members. At the end of every semester a party is held in place of the last meeting.

OFFICERS

President—Paul Fitzgerald
Treasurer—Marcia Williams
Vice-President-Secretary—Louise Resony
Faculty Adviser—Miss Taylor

JUNIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

The purpose of the Junior Dramatic Club is to create an interest in dramatics among the lower classmen. This semester the club presented a three-act comedy, "Verse and Reverse."

OFFICERS

President—Florence Sandberg

Secretary—Robert Gustafson

Vice-President—Joseph Nolan

Treasurer—Alice McDermott

Faculty Adviser—Miss Hofmann

NI-NO-VAN CLUB

The object of the Ni-No-Van Club is to train young women to be alive and efficient leaders in home and community life, and to further their interest in Home Economics. It draws its membership from the girls who are taking or who have taken Home Economics.

OFFICERS

President—Natalie Yedzinak

Secretary—Justine Langrish

Vice-President—Catherine O'Brien

Treasurer—Eleanor Donlon

Faculty Adviser—Mrs. Pullar

BOYS' BIOLOGY CLUB

During the past semester the Boys' Biology Club completed a very successful program. This included a lecture by Wesley Tiffney, a talk on his summer experiences by Robert Adams, a party given by the Girls' Biology Club, and a trip through the Bond Bread plant.

OFFICERS

President—Robert Adams
Vice-President—Henry Jarvis
Secretary—Donald Muisener

Treasurer—Irwin Goodwin
Fifth Member—Charles Bittner
Faculty Adviser—Mr. Fellows

AGORA

The Agora aims to teach its members to think logically, to speak clearly and sincerely, and to develop a greater interest in present-day questions. Twice a month a regular debate is held with club members acting as judges and critics. One evening the girls entertained the Edison Club at dinner after which members of both clubs displayed considerable skill in the art of after-dinner speaking.

OFFICERS

President—Adeline Gauruder
Vice-President—Bernice Kolodziez

Secretary—Annette Larned
Treasurer—Jane Steele

Executive Committee—Mary Marchoki and Agnes Bedarz
Faculty Adviser—Miss Garvin

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club is composed of all girls in the school who are interested in music. In February they presented with the Boys' Glee Club and Orchestra an operetta, "The Mikado"—an outstanding event in the school's history.

OFFICERS

President—Doris Duncan
Vice-President—Jeanette Dunphy
Secretary-Treasurer—Genevieve Grady

Librarian—Pauline Fornonzini
Assistant Librarian—Kathleen Eden
Faculty Adviser—Miss Gleason

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club was organized for the purpose of creating further interest in industry and commercial subjects. Only students taking commercial subjects are eligible. During the year an annual dance is held and at graduation prizes are awarded to the student receiving the highest average in stenography and typing, and to the student with the highest average in bookkeeping.

OFFICERS

President—Rena Stockwell
Vice-President—Doris Hepp
Faculty Adviser—Miss Woodis

Treasurer—Isabel Denerich
Secretary—Elizabeth Kase

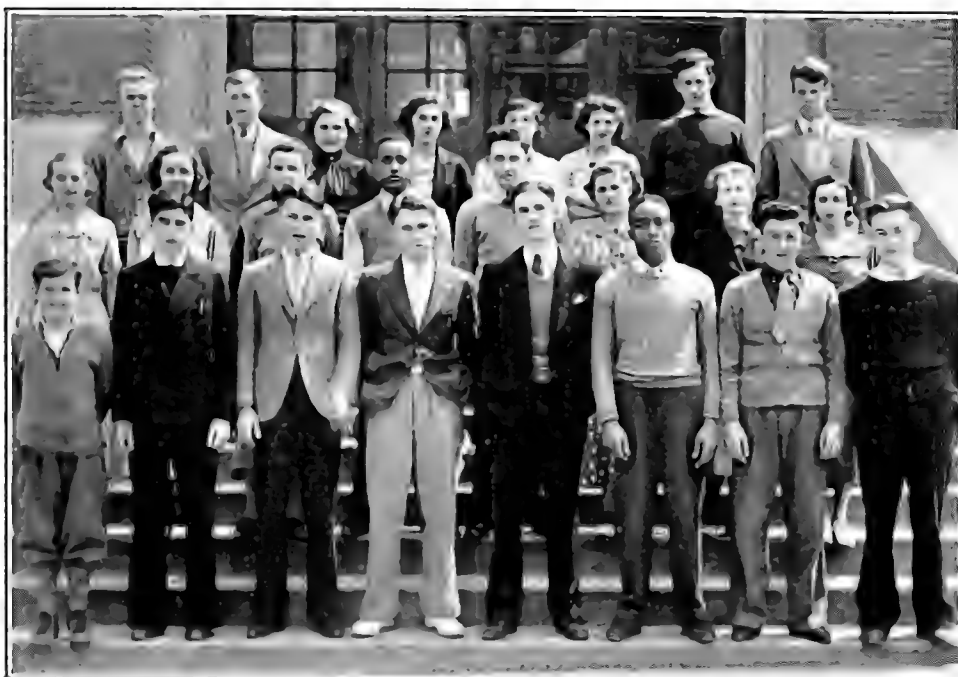

BOYS' DEBATING CLUB

This term the Boys' Debating Club had many interesting debates during its regular meetings, including ones on the Philippines and Socialized medicine. Owing to a crowded school calendar for the year the annual debate with the Agora was omitted.

THE OFFICERS:

President—John FitzGerald
Vice-President—James Matthews

Secretary—William McCarthy
Treasurer—Benjamin Reynolds

ART CLUB

The Art Club, consisting of about twenty-five members, has had an interesting season. In addition to business meetings, there have been two social meetings. The club sponsored a matinee dance which was very successful. Many of the members have made posters for the various school activities.

OFFICERS

President—James Young
Vice-President—Ruth Russell
Secretary—Charles Jaworski

Treasurer—Edward Nolan
Fifth Member—Mary Lynch
Faculty Adviser—Miss M. A. Plumb

THE PARNASSUS CLUB

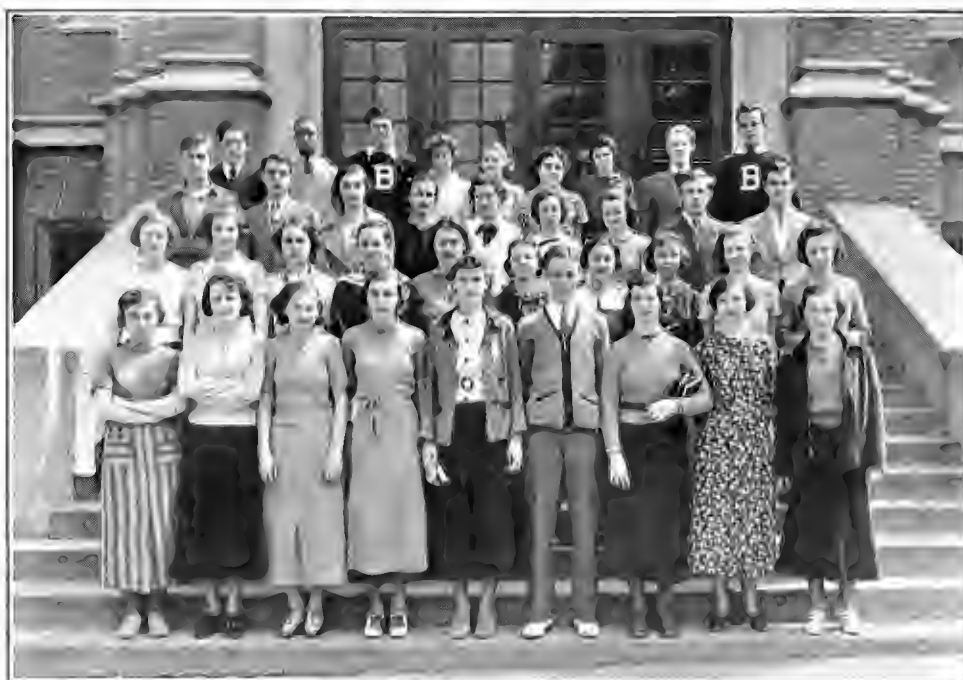

The slightly more than a dozen members of the Parnassus Club have become rather prominent in school affairs this semester and perhaps less literary. They have devoted some time to a perusal of light verse, and to the survey of the best plays of the season.

OFFICERS

President—Max Zaretsky

Secretary—Gustave Andrian

Faculty Adviser—Miss Francis

HISTORY - CIVICS CLUB

The History-Civics Club is composed of those pupils who have taken any form of history and are interested in current events. During the past semester our guest speakers included Miss Solloway, who described her visit to Russia, Miss Converse, who told about her visit to the National Parks, and Captain Kennedy of the 143rd Observation Squad, who described the Armory's air equipment. A debate with the Hartford High School History-Civics Club was also held.

OFFICERS

President—Thomas Diesel

Secretary—Louis Griffin

Vice-President—Anne Shea

Treasurer—Nancy Collins

Faculty Adviser—Miss Colby

GIRLS' SWIMMING CLUB

The Swimming Club is one of the most valuable clubs in the school because it develops such an important faculty in its members. It is composed both of beginners and experienced swimmers.

OFFICERS

President—Frances MacMahon
Vice-President—Marjorie Prentice
Secretary—Elinor Devanney

Treasurer—Elinor Bride
Member-at-Large—Ingrid Monson
Faculty Adviser—Miss Andrews

GIRLS' GOLF CLUB

The Girls' Golf Club was established for the purpose of creating further interest in outside athletics, the major sport, of course, being golf. During the golf season Scotch tournaments were held in which the boys and girls both participated. In the winter, bowling kept the members in trim for the coming season.

OFFICERS

President—Elizabeth Kase
Secretary—Doris Duncan

Treasurer—Letitia Rettie
Coach—Rose Coyne
Faculty Adviser—Miss Gilligan

THE TORCH

Celebrating the tenth year of its existence, the Torch came out with many new features this semester, chief among which was an "Inside Stuff" column and "Introducing", a column which gave biographical sketches of prominent seniors. A novel "Torch Nite" and two roller skating parties were also sponsored by the paper.

OFFICERS

Co-Editors—James Matthews, Jr., and David P. Rosen

Business Manager—Marguerite V. Strong

Faculty Advisers—Mr. Cocks and Mr. Hart

CLASSICAL CLUB

The Classical Club has realized its purpose of creating more interest in the classics very effectively this term. This year it celebrated the two thousandth anniversary of the birth of the Poet Horace. Most of the meetings were devoted to readings of his Odes and Satires.

OFFICERS

President—Anita Sullivan

Vice-President—Grace Buchstane

Faculty Adviser—Miss Edith Plumb

Secretary—Phyllis Burr

Treasurer—Marcia Williams

THE DIAL

This semester the Dial has endeavored to combine popular appeal and its usual high standard of writing. A Tall Tales Contest was sponsored, the winner receiving a copy of The Adventures of Baron Munchausen. In May a section was devoted to personal experiences in the Flood; in June a tenth anniversary issue was put out, thus completing a successful half-year as well as the eighth year of its existence.

OFFICERS

Editor-in-Chief—Raymond J. Bieth, Jr.
Assistant Editors—Ray P. Reynolds and Annette Larned
Business Manager—Paul J. Perrotta
Faculty Advisers—Mr. Stoddard and Mr. Russell

GIRLS' BIOLOGY CLUB

The Girls' Biology Club had an interesting season. Trips were taken to New York, Wallingford, Bryant & Chapman's, New London, and Cedar Mountain. There were many business meetings and several bird trips.

OFFICERS

President—Betty Pressy
Vice-President—Frances Wilsberg
Secretary—Ann Ryznic
Treasurer—Mary Farina
Faculty Advisers—Miss Converse and Miss Hodge

THE SCRIBBLERS

The Scribblers are open for membership to all girls who are interested in literature and have some writing talent. This year they studied different forms of short stories and then with the help of each other's friendly criticism, they wrote some stories of their own.

OFFICERS

President—Irene Winalski

Secretary—Anna Serabien

Faculty Adviser—Miss Holsten

EDISON CLUB

The Edison Club is a science club and its members are interested in learning more in the field of science. During the past semester its membership exceeded thirty in number. Trips were made to many places of scientific interest. The schedule of trips was as follows: New England Telephone Company, Wesleyan University, Hartford Electric Steel Corporation, Trinity College, Colt's Fire Arms Company, WTIC.

OFFICERS

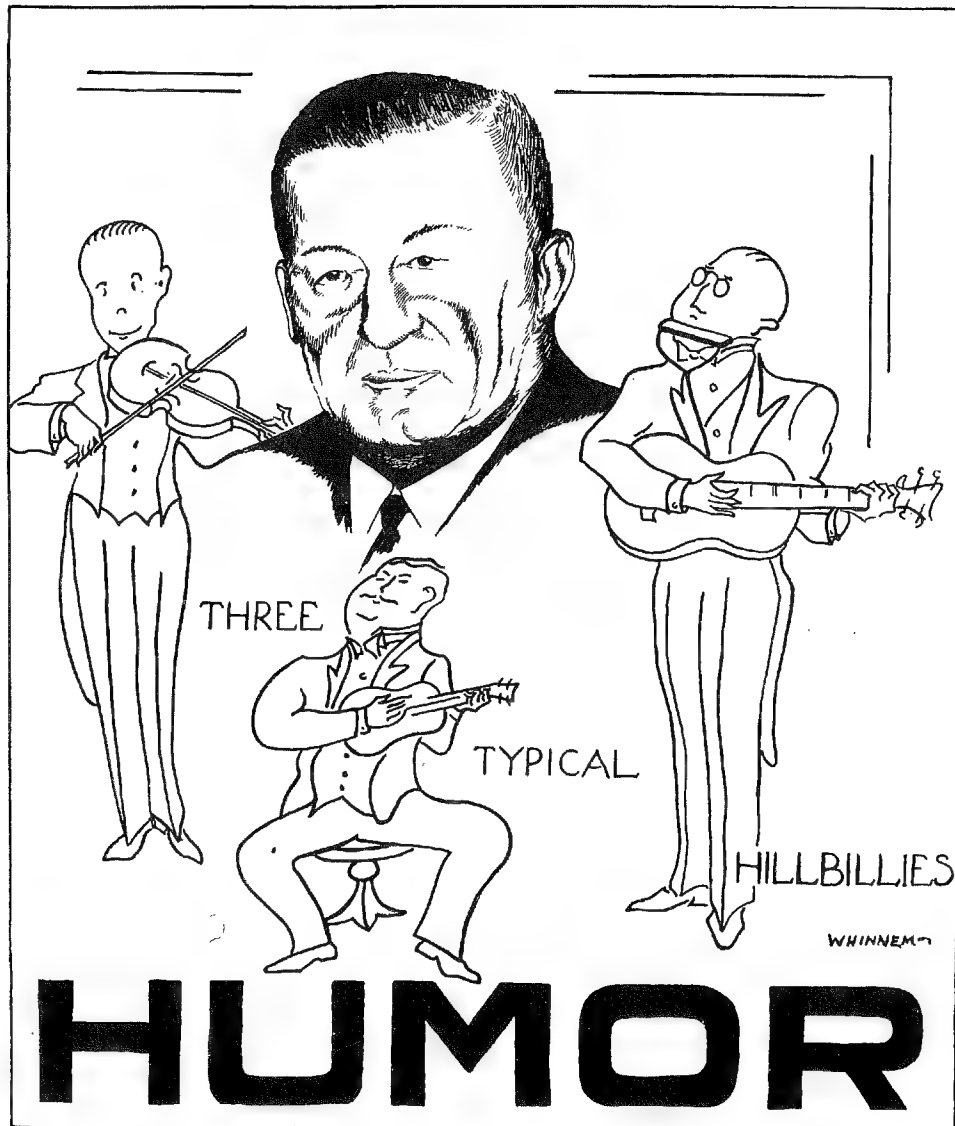

President—Louis Drakos

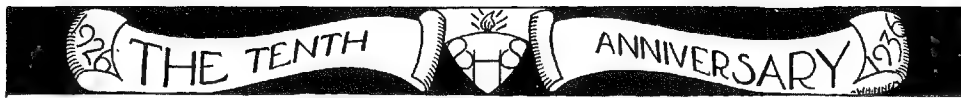

Secretary—Timothy Connelly

Vice-President—Matthew Press

Treasurer—Alfred Gavert

Fifth Member—Julius Reale

bessie the bumblebee

(cousin to archy the cockroach)

bessie the bumblebee was sitting on a tennis ball
she was philosophizing—and bewailing all the silliness of that game with its silly name tennis.
to bessie tenn is 2x5. batting a ball reminded her somehow of the supreme court with its gold clause and other laws to bother us gents with no gold in our pants anyhow the new deal for her had no appeal.
she only hoped this guy batting the ball wouldn't step on her toes
bessie had corns—to add to her woes
BAM-!/1—that feller needs a slam on the kisser or nose.
what's this—a paper of current events & politics and political gents and f d r proposing social legislation for the welfare of the nation.
if the n r a won't do
the p w a will take care of you.
it says here that all soldiers got a bonus.
bessie says—maybe finland will loan us
the mazuma to pay the bonus.

cogitations of bessie the bumblebee as she buzzed around bulkeley watching the class of 1936b

i buzzed about the dial room looking for p j perrotta some how i felt like stinging him tho i know i shouldn't otta that matthews feller with his pies

"just like mother makes"
if it's all the same to you guys throw away the pie and give me the cakes

some teachers will simply not take nonsense they ask for no more "howie" johnsense cecile's last name was really gibbon she got the fitz while we were ribbin

when my ford arrives, only you will fillum let your mind be at ease, mr. toubman willum public letter to b. mccue

"stick around, boys, i may pecue" school is palling on billy hoyt but watch his graduation noyt girls i need only say that blotto is not the game of johnny motto

OUTSIDE STUFF

(With Apologies to the Torch)

After cudgeling what remains of my memory, of the four strenuous years spent in trying to decipher some of my teachers' handwriting and answering the query of others as to the whereabouts of my detained slip; wondering how to take Mr. Swaye's remarks about figures, Mr. O'Leary's (still unsold) horse, Mr. Russell's exultations over the Foot Guard, and Miss Colby's and Mr. Weaver's flood troubles, I am going to reminisce about some of the things which have transpired at Bulkeley during the past four years.

Remember Andy Forte's shiners Fritze and his daydreams Joe Devito's inoculation and his all-time record for getting "Babe's" make-up hours Paul Dennis McGinnis (there's rhythm in that there name, boys) and his six-gun Gus Andrian's drag with the office staff Charley Bradshaw's daily nap in geology Charlie always was a down-to-earth fellow Johnny Egan's daily tussle with Mr. Costello Claire Burns and her liking for Trinity Tommy Diesel's daily Round Table discussions at his proctor's table in the lobby during the first recess and don't forget "Fireman, save my child!" Cavanaugh Frances Wilsberg and that bewitching smile "Pokey" Miles and his Tumultuous Trumpet Frank Massa and his typewriters Jane Edwards' partiality for East Hartford Howie Johnson and his wandering shoes And remember those Anniversary Exercises when Charley Whalen almost flew out the microphone and "Crooner" Gauruder with his nonchalant suspender snapping Jack Motto forgetting his speech and the audience forgetting the speakers' speeches The trip to the diner afterwards to refresh the "inner man."

We mustn't forget the Great Flood some of the boys on National Guard duty Walking up Main Street at 9 p. m., lighting my way with a flashlight candles selling for 2 for 5 cents at 3 o'clock, 5 cents at 4, 10 cents at 6, 20 cents at 8 The Torch goes "to press" by candle and lamp-light That beautiful "no homework done" excuse—the lights were out in our house The Asylum Street sidewalk and store cellars filled with sandbags The Times and the Courant's famous flood issues Scareheads in New York papers about Hartford River at 37.5 feet Bulkeley running on auxiliary power No lights in the cafeteria. (It didn't make any difference though—you still couldn't find a trace of ham in the ham sandwich) Teachers doing flood relief work Those flood relief movies that we never did see one of the pictures was (of all things) "Here Comes the Navy". (In Hartford it was the Coast Guard.) The brilliantly lighted power plant at South Meadows standing out in sharp contrast to the darkened city Old fellow walking on Main Street carrying a lighted old-fashioned lamp Bushnell Park flooded The dancing pavilion at Colt Park serenely floating on the 15 feet of water that covered the playground a rowboat in the Hotel Bond lobby The huge oil tanks floating down the river The muddy, swollen Park River almost reaches Main Street. The complete submergence of Brainard Field "The nine o'clock curfew" The huge crowds Isolation of East Hartford Altogether it was probably the most eventful year in Hartford's history.

To get back to Bulkeley. That eight-page Torch Those Dial jokes and that "Introducing" column That sixth period 236 study hall Those refreshments at the Boys' Club meetings That candy at the Dramatic Club plays Ben Reynolds rushing about looking for his editorial board his brother Ray's constant blush Elinor Bride's love of football Richie Lindner's lab bill The feud between Mr. Stoddard and the Torch Pauline Fornonzini and East Hartford Max Zaretsky and Mr. O'Leary trying to get through the same door at the same time Doctor Mahoney's remarks about Danno O'Mahoney and the Irish in general Genevieve Grady and the Mikado Miss Neal's tussle with Billy Hoyt's writing Dunc Yetman's memory Joe Weiner's truck and the track team Those hectic Legislative Club meetings That tragic New Britain game Miss Plumb and her pet turtles Marion Cotter and Betty McCue's constant companionship The mad rush to get cars for the reception Tommy Burkholder and Blue Hills Avenue The faculty getting their picture taken for this Class Book The mob in the library at recess trying to get the baseball scores in the Courant Julius Reale and his mop of hair The baseball team hitch-hiking to "Goody" Park Ann Scott's cuteness Mr. Swaye's hectic time in 236 Miss Anderson's cheerfulness Lee Rhode and his Sophomore friends Bill Harrison's marks in chem Irene Pastick's "B" "Punjab" Redys as Poo Bah, the comedian in the "Mikado" Ronnie Tubbs and Mrs. FitzGerald's third period English class and last, but not least, those mysterious odors coming from the chem. lab when hydrogen sulfide was being made.

All joking aside, however, we of '36B have had one swell time at B. H. S., even if demerit slips and F's interrupted us now and then. We all certainly owe something to the school and its faculty. Don't forget our first class reunion. We'll be seeing you!

ADVICE TO JOB HUNTERS:

SEEK EMPLOYMENT IN A FIELD WHICH OFFERS: (1) A good starting salary; (2) Opportunities for advancement; (3) Security against "lay-offs" or possible unemployment; (4) Experience with which to start a business of your own. . . . No other work combines all these desirable features as does MODERN ACCOUNTANCY. No other training in this golden field will prepare you as quickly, thoroughly, and inexpensively as we will. . . . Come in and see what we have done for other Bulkeley graduates.
